

The CALDRON

1926

GEN

ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 1833 01772 5521

GENEALOGY
977.202
F77FMA
1926

The CALDRON
1926

Published by the SENIOR CLASS of Central High School
Fort Wayne
Indiana

Foreword

*T*HIS Caldron has been published as an everlasting memory book of the days we spent in Central High School.

Order of Contents

DEDICATION
THE SCHOOL CLASSES
ATHLETICS
ACTIVITIES
TIGER TRAIL
ADVERTISING

Dedication

To Fred H. Croninger and his ideals we dedicate this book

The SCHOOL

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2018

<https://archive.org/details/centralcaldron1926>

The School

HEREIN is represented pictorially our school. Here is one of the important means of our education. Daily we pass in and out of its doors, never considering what a fine old masterpiece it really is. In our school are all sorts of departments. We can obtain elementary training along any line which we expect to follow in our later life. We can take training to fit ourselves for college, for commercial, and for industrial work which will enable us to begin work immediately after leaving school.

CALDRON

CALDRON

A black and white photograph of a three-story brick building, likely a historical structure. The building features a prominent arched entrance on the ground floor, supported by ornate columns. Above the entrance is a balcony with a decorative railing. The upper floors have arched windows and decorative cornices. The photograph is mounted on a page with a decorative border.

CALDRON

The office is the most important room in the entire building, in that the entire school is directed from it. At the far side is the desk at which Miss Chapin keeps the records. Facing this is the entrance to the office of our principal, Mr. Fred H. Croninger. It is from this place that the activities and programs of our school are directed and carried out.

Most of the teachers who do not spend their vacant periods in the office can be found in the teachers' rest room. It is a very cozy and cheery room. It is an ideal place for the teachers to congregate and chat. Because it is so home-like it furnishes a fine place in which to spend one's leisure correcting test papers or in the less judicial occupation, reading.

Central boasts of one of the finest and most complete school libraries in the state. In it reference work can be done along almost any line desired. The teachers have wisely adopted the policy of making assignments which require careful reading of books in the library. Our library can not only be used during school time but also after the regular time, and books can be drawn out and used at home.

Drawing and art work are important subjects. Instruction in all phases of art is given. Many people take this course as the foundation for more advanced study along this same line at a later time. The art department furnishes almost all the placards and posters which are used in school. Another thing for which they deserve much thanks and praise is the drawings which appear in this book.

Commercial subjects are essential, in that they give invaluable training along lines which are of practical use in later life. The aim of the commercial course is to release into the business life of the city a body of young people with a thorough background of general education, and a sound specific training in office routine and practice.

The botany room is very delightful. In it are plants of all sorts. Botany deals directly with the study of plant life. Indirectly it teaches many other things. It develops openness of mind through discussion of subjects which would otherwise be forgotten. Through the discussion and study of the intricacies of the plant world it develops the powers of thought.

Physical geography is among the most interesting subjects in school. It is interesting because it deals with so many of the actual, existing, geographical conditions of our country. Nothing could be more fascinating than a study of problems of this sort. The physical makeup of our country is studied in detail.

The subject of domestic science requires little explanation. The mere mention of the words impels our minds to all kinds of pleasant thoughts. All one needs to do is to pass by its door and sniff the savory odors which issue from it and he will be very generous in his commendation of this branch of study.

Chemistry is the science of the senior year. It is a study of matter. Two types of work are done. One is the study of the ingredients which make up matter, while the other is the study of the quantity of the ingredients in the matter. Daily class recitations are held on four days of the week and the fifth day is spent in laboratory work by the pupils themselves.

CALDRON

Physics is the science of the junior year. It is a required subject. This is not a condemnation of it, but rather the highest praise which can be bestowed on it. It is required of all boys because it deals with the fundamental, mechanical and scientific problems of the present time.

Mechanical drawing—the words explain themselves. Here our future mechanical engineers and even our architects are taught the art of drawing. This is an extremely important art because, before a machine or, in fact, anything which we have, can be made in our factories, a scale drawing of it must be made. Here the boys are being taught to do this thing.

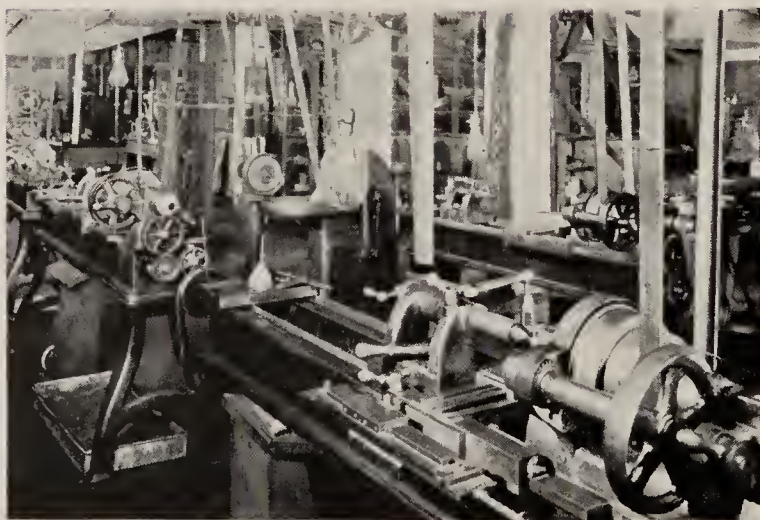

Manual training is one of the subjects taught in our school. Classes are held in the basement. Here the boys learn to turn out all sorts of things. It is the fundamental training of our future woodworkers. All may not intend to follow this but even then it is a very good subject to know in later life.

The automobile shop is another of the important departments of the vocational branch of our school. The knowledge of the mechanics of the automobile is indeed very valuable in this day of motor transportation. This knowledge is needed by the man who expects to enter any phase of the automobile business and even to one who merely drives an automobile.

Where would we be without printing? Printing is one of the most important trades of today. Without printing we could not even have this book. Printing of all sorts is taught in our print shop. There are several job presses. The students also get much practice in newspaper printing by their work on the Spotlight.

Our machine shop is another important branch of the vocational department. It offers training along lines which are very valuable. One usually thinks of the machinist as a common laborer when in reality he is one of the most skillful. It is no simple task to turn down metal accurately as they are required to do.

CLASSES -

Administration

WHEREIN are presented several of the most important figures in our public school system. First is Louis C. Ward, the head of the entire system. Next come Fred H. Croninger and Miss Anna B. Lewis, the principal of our school and the dean of girls, respectively. Then are presented the school board and the teaching staff of Central. It is the latter group with whom we come in contact most. To the entire group we owe our most hearty thanks for the help which they give us and for the high standards of scholarship which they have established.

LOUIS C. WARD

FRED H. CRONINGER

MISS ANNA B. LEWIS

Administration

Superintendent

L. C. WARD

Board of School Trustees

JAMES E. FORD, Chairman

WILLIAM H. REED, Secretary

MRS. R. EARL PETERS, Treasurer

MRS. L. G. ELLINGHAM

DR. L. P. DRAYER

BYRON SOMERS

HERMAN FREIBURGER

CALDRON

Faculty

FRED H. CRONINGER - - - - - Principal, B. S.
 ANNA B. LEWIS - - - - - Dean of Girls, A. B.
 ANGELINE F. CHAPIN - - - - - Office

Arts and Crafts

ANNA MARY NEWMAN
 BERNICE SINCLAIR

Athletics

MARK W. BILLS, A. B.
 MURRAY J. MENDENHALL, A. B.
 HILDA M. SCHWEHN, A. B.

Attendance

E. B. CLARK, A. B.

Commerce

M. H. NORTHROP, A. B.
 ELVIN S. EYSTER
 HARRY B. IMMEL, B. A.
 L. A. JOHNSON, M. A.

English

VERA LANE, A. B., M. A.
 R. K. BUTLER, A. B.
 MARY E. CROMER, A. B., A. M.
 CHARLES E. DICKINSON, A. B., A. M.
 HAZEL HAWKINS, Ph. B.
 MARIAN INGHAM, A. B.
 JULIA R. STORR, A. B.
 MARJORIE SUTER, A. B.
 KATHERINE V. WELCH, A. B., B. S.
 EDITH J. WINSLOW, A. B.
 BERTHA J. WOHLFIELD, A. B.

History

MARY O. KOLB, A. B.
 JOHN DELONG, A. B.
 M. G. KIMES, A. B.
 ROLLO E. MOSHER, A. B., LL. B.
 WILLIS RICHARDSON, A. B., A. M.
 MARY CATHERINE SMELTZLY, A. B.

Home Economics

GERTRUDE H. KEEP
 AMY S. BARNES, B. S.
 MARTHA BEIERLEIN, B. S.
 LAURINDA DEVILBISS
 AGNES PATE, B. S.

Latin

MARY O. HARRAH, A. B.
 GERTRUDE BEIERLEIN, A. B.
 EDITH L. BURTON, A. B., A. M.
 FLORENCE J. LUCASSE, A. B.
 EVA M. MCKINNIE, A. B., M. L.

Library

ERDEAN F. MCCLOUD,
 Supervisor of Branches
 EMMA M. SHOUP,
 Assistant School Librarian, B. S.

Manual Training

G. H. RUSSEL
 A. G. CLEAVER
 W. W. KNIGHT
 CHARLES O. MAYS
 BASIL SHACKELFORD
 HARRY A. THOMAS, B. S.
 T. W. THOMPSON

Mathematics

MARY E. GARDNER, B. PD., A. B.
 MARIE H. CHRISTMAN, B. S.
 GLENN F. HEWITT, A. B.
 MARIE MILLER, A. B.
 JOHN H. REISING, B. S., A. B., A. M.
 VENETTE SITES, A. B., A. M.

Modern Languages

BERTHA F. NELSON, A. B., A. M.
 ISABEL FREEMAN, A. B.
 VICTORIA GROSS, A. B.
 L. A. STROEBEL, Ph. B.

Music

WILLIAM R. SUR

Science

MEREDITH C. ALDRED, Botany, A. B.
 JULIA ALEXANDER, Biology, Ph. B.
 CHARLES D. DILTS, Chemistry, A. B.
 EDGAR M. SUTER,
 Physical Geography, A. B.
 IRVEN C. TONKEL, Biology, B. S.
 HARRY L. VEATCH, Physics, A. B.

Vocational

JOHN H. HINES, Mechanical Drawing
 MARION BLACK, Automobile
 PAUL B. COX, Electricity
 EDGAR S. HILL, Printing, A. B.
 J. L. NORFORD, Electricity

Seniors

THE likenesses of the seniors are next in order, as well as the list of their activities. The length of this list means little or nothing as far as scholarship is concerned because some of the best pupils are those who have not participated in our activities. Four years ago this class entered our doors with about 650 in its group. Soon about 150 will have successfully graduated. Many have left because of conditions which forced them to do so; others have left because they could not stand the gaff or could not see the benefits of an education. Of those who are graduating we expect great things.

Senior Class Officers

First Row: Robert Bradtmiller, President; Glenn Van Hoozen, Vice-President; David Heaton, Secretary; Marcella Koerber, Social Council.

Second Row: Richard Shoaff, Social Council; Virginia Curdes, Social Council; Elizabeth Smith, Social Council; Florence Blosser, Social Council.

FACULTY ADVISERS

MRS. E. B. CLARK

WILLIAM R. SUR

MILDRED ADAIR

Sorosis; Girls' Glee Club, junior year; Senior Bulletin Committee; four-year honor roll.

JAMES FREDERICK ANGLIN

Spotlight reporter, junior year; Editor, Fragmenta Latina; Treasurer Math Club; Press Club; Hi-Y, senior year; "Wisdom Teeth"; Student Players Club; President, Math Club; Advertising Manager, Caldron; Economics Committee; four-year honor roll.

GUYLA DELIGHT ARNOLD

Friendship Club.

VIRGINIA LUCILE ARNOLD

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Christmas Cantata, senior year; "Pan."

MATHILDA LOUISE AUMANN

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; C. G. A. A.; reporter, Keyboard; Secretary, Friendship Club, senior year; four-year honor roll.

MAXWELL KEMP BAKER

Sports Editor, Spotlight, junior year; Managing Editor, Spotlight, senior year; Student Council; Press Club.

WALTER BALLARD

ERMA LONAVENE BANKS

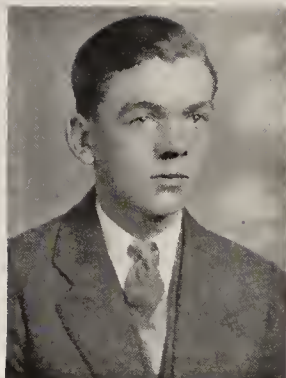

Girls' Glee Club, three years; society editor, Keyboard, junior and senior years; Girls' Quartette.

MAGGIE ANNE BARNES

Economics Committee; State Commercial Contest, senior year.

EDNA LOUISE BEAMER

HERBERT FREDERICK BECKMAN
Junior Hi-Y; Math Club.

SYLVIA BERMAN
Sorosis; Student Players Club; Vice-President, Math Club, senior year.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH BLOSSER
U. P. D.; Society Editor, Spotlight, junior year; "Seven Gifts"; Boosters' Club; Sorosis; T. N. T. Vaudeville; Friendship Club; Art Editor, CALDRON; Social Council, senior class; "Polished Pebbles"; "Wisdom Teeth"; "Op O' Me Thumb"; Senior Play; Secretary Student Players Club, senior year.

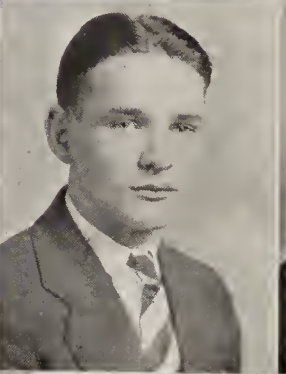

HAZEL MAXINE BONHAM
State Commercial Contest, junior year; Keyboard staff, senior year.

MARIE LUCILE BONHAM
Class basketball, sophomore and junior years; Tennis Team; C. G. A. A.

GERALD EDWIN BOSSERMAN

CARL WILLIAM BOWEN
Radio Club.

FERNE BOWERS
Class basketball; U. P. D.; Math Club; T. N. T. Vaudeville; Big Four Vodvil; Girls' Glee Club; Girls' Quartette; "Cherry Blossoms"; "Noel"; "Windmills of Holland."

VERNIDA ALMA BOWMAN
Four-year honor roll; Keyboard staff, senior year; State Commercial Contest, senior year.

HAROLD SHERMAN BRADEN
Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; Math Club.

CALDRON

ROBERT W. G. BRADTMILLER

Football, freshman and sophomore years; Junior Hi-Y, Secretary, freshman year; President, sophomore year; Boys' Glee Club; "Cherry Blossoms"; "Windmills of Holland"; "Pot Boilers"; Math Club; Latin Play; Boosters' Club; Hi-Y, Treasurer and President; Plats; Student Council; Student Players Club; Social Council, junior year; President Senior Class.

JAMES LAMAR BRANDT

ESTHER REBECCA BRONXON

Sorosis; Friendship Club; Orchestra; Quartette accompanist; Girls' Glee Club; Big Four Vodvil; "Pan"; "Mikado"; CALDRON staff.

HAROLD HUGO BRUECKNER

Radio Club; Advertising Manager, CALDRON.

WERNER BUESCHING

CLARA EMILY BUSSE

U. P. D.; Girls' Glee Club; President, Brush and Pencil Club; Friendship Club.

GLENN RONALD CASEBEER

Class Basketball; Reserve Team; Varsity Football; sports staff, Spotlight, senior year.

IRIS EILEEN CHANEY

Friendship Club; C. G. A. A.; State Commercial Contest, senior year.

GLADYS MARIE CLEMMER

WILLIAM MAURICE COLTER

MARABEL ELIZABETH CONNETT

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Big Four Vodvil; Brush and Pencil Club.

MARY VIRGINIA COOPER

Friendship Club.

VIRGINIA WOOD CURDES

U. P. D.; Social Council, junior and senior years; Assistant Circulation Manager, CALDRON, junior year; Circulation Manager, CALDRON, senior year; Secretary, Sorosis, senior year.

DEAN FRANK CUTSHALL

Vice-President, Junior Hi-Y, sophomore year; Boys' Glee Club, junior year; Hi-Y; Math Club; Student Council; Boosters Club; Senior Play; President, Plats, senior year; Secretary, Hi-Y, senior year.

SAMUEL DAVID DAVISON

ELIZABETH FLORENCE DEARING

Girls' Glee Club; U. P. D.

ROBERT DERCK

MILTON LINE DIEHL

Class basketball, freshman year; Reserves basketball, sophomore year; Varsity basketball, junior and senior years; captain varsity basketball, senior year; Track, junior and senior years; Boosters Club; Class baseball, freshman and sophomore years; Student Council.

NEWTON FREDRICK DOUGHMAN

Class basketball, junior and senior years; Track, junior year.

ALLEN ANTHONY DUCAT

Foreman, senior machine shop.

LESTER HAROLD EISENHUT

ELSIE KATHERINE ERDMANN

Varsity baseball, freshman year; U. P. D.; Girls' Glee Club, junior and senior year; Christmas Cantata; "Pan"; Assistant news editor, Spotlight, junior year; Editor-in-chief, Spotlight, senior year.

MARTHA EMILY ESSEN

MARY EVANGELINE FEICK

EARL BYRON FELGER

Class football, sophomore year; Varsity track, sophomore, junior, and senior years; Captain, Track team, senior year; Class basketball, sophomore and junior years; Sports editor, Keyboard, junior and senior years.

EDITH MARGARET FOSLER

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Student Council.

CLEMENTINE EVA FOSTER

Orchestra, four years; Girls' Glee Club, four years; "Pan"; "Windmills of Holland"; "Polished Pebbles"; Christmas Cantata; Spotlight staff, junior year; Home Economics Club; "Noel"; Mixed chorus.

BERNICE FRANCES FRANKLIN

Sorosis.

ESTHER ANN GASKILL

Big Four Vodvil; U. P. D.; Girls' Glee Club; Sorosis; Friendship Club; "Wisdom Teeth"; "Op O' Me Thumb"; Spotlight staff, senior year; CALDRON staff, senior year; Social Council, junior year; Senior Play.

CLARENCE ARTHUR GEBHARD

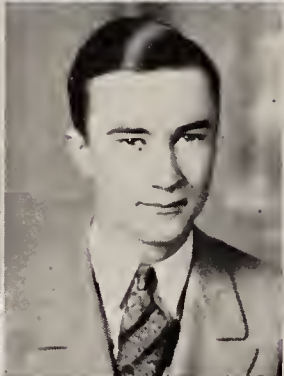

Radio Club.

EDWIN KARL GEMMER

Class football, sophomore year; Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y.

LORETTA MATILDA CLARA GERBERDING

Girls' Glee Club, three years; Friendship Club; C. G. A. A.; U. P. D.; "The First Christmas"; "Pan"; Mixed chorus.

LUCILE OLIVE GONGAWARE

U. P. D.; Sorosis; Brush and Pencil Club; Girls' Glee Club; Girls' Quartette; Class Basketball, sophomore year; Spotlight staff, sophomore year.

PAUL FAIR GRIFFIS

KEITH GRUBER

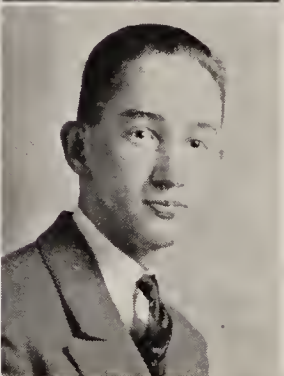

THEO LUELLA HANES

U. P. D.; Girls' Glee Club; Student Council, senior year.

VELMA AMANDA HAPPEL

Orchestra, senior year; Student Council, junior year; Economics Committee, senior year; four-year honor roll.

HELEN MABEL HARRINGTON

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Sorosis; Class basketball, sophomore and junior years; T. N. T. vaudeville; Girls' Glee Club; C. G. A. A.

WILLIAM BERNARD HARTQUIST

Junior Hi-Y, freshman year; Vice-President, Junior Hi-Y, sophomore year; Drum Corps; Hi-Y; Student Council, senior year; Spotlight staff, senior year.

DAVID REITZE HEATON

Valedictorian; Student Council; Secretary, senior class; Track Team, junior and senior years; Debating Team, junior and senior years.

CALDRON

MARGARET LOUISE HEINCLEMAN

Basketball, freshman year; U. P. D.

MILDRED CAROLYN HERSHBERGER

Girls' Glee Club; Spotlight Staff; CALDRON Staff; Friendship Club; Brush and Pencil Club; Christmas Cantata; Big Four Vodvil; Sorosis.

VERA LORETTA HEVEL

Keyboard Staff.

ERWIN CHARLES HOCKEMEYER

Varsity basketball, sophomore year; Varsity football, junior and senior years; class baseball, sophomore year; class football, sophomore year.

CHARLES NEWTON HOEMIG

Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; Boys' Glee Club; Plats; Radio Club.

RUTH MEANS HUNT

Debating team, junior and senior years; winner Extemporaneous Contest, senior year; Roosters' Club.

BLANCHE ELLEN JACOBS

Math Club, sophomore, junior, and senior years; Friendship Club; C. G. A. A.

EVELYN JACOBS

Class basketball, sophomore and junior years; tennis team, junior and senior years; C. G. A. A.; Student Council, junior year; Glee Club; Senior Play; four-year honor roll.

L. HAROLD JOHNSON

Band; Circulation Manager, Spotlight, senior year; Reporter, Spotlight, junior year; Secretary, Drum Corps; Secretary, Junior Hi-Y, freshman year; President, Boys' Glee Club, sophomore year; Secretary, junior year; Treasurer, senior year.

HAROLD WATLING JORDAN

Math Club, sophomore year; Treasurer, Student Players Club, senior year; Advertising Solicitor, Spotlight; President, Plats, senior year; Senior Play.

MARIAN RUTH JORDAN

Vice-President, U. P. D., sophomore year; Spotlight Staff, junior year; Student Council, senior year; Dramatics Club, junior and senior years; "Seven Gifts"; "Op O' Me Thumb"; Friendship Club; Senior Play.

HOWARD KAYSER

Junior Hi-Y; Secretary, Hi-Y, senior year; Class Football, sophomore year; Class Basketball, sophomore, junior, and senior years; Hi-Y Swimming Team, senior year.

ROBERT KELKER

ELIZABETH NORINE KEPLER

Glee Club; U. P. D.; Friendship Club.

HUGH JOSHUA KESLER

Junior Hi-Y; Class Basketball, freshman year; Reserve Basketball, freshman year; Varsity Basketball, sophomore and junior years; Student Council, sophomore and junior years.

PAULINE LUCILLE KILTY

"Mikado"; Girls' Glee Club.

VERE CARL KINT

Boys' Glee Club; Hi-Y; Editor Fragmenta Latina, junior year; Math Club; Reporter Fragmenta Latina, senior year.

MARCELLA DETTMER KOEHLINGER

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Math Club; Home Economics Club; Girls' Glee Club; Spotlight Staff; "Pan"; Christmas Cantata.

MARCELLA ELIZABETH KOERBER

Student Players Club; "Wisdom Teeth"; Vice-President, President, Sorosis, junior year; Glee Club, three years; Junior Associate Editor, junior year; Associate Editor, senior year, CALDRON; Varsity Basketball, freshman and sophomore years; Vice-President Class, sophomore year; Social Council, senior year; Student Council, sophomore and junior years; Math Club; Press Club; Christmas Cantata, junior and senior years; U. P. D.; Fall Fire Frolic, freshman year; four-year honor roll; Senior Play; Recognition Day program.

CLARENCE FREDRICK KOLMERTEN

KARL WILLIAM KRUDOP

Class Basketball, sophomore year; Varsity Football, junior year; Radio Club; Math Club; Rifle Team; Track, senior year.

EARL ALBERT ROSS LAMBOLEY

HAROLD LAPP

MARGARET MATILDA LEASURE

Math Club, sophomore and junior years; Glee Club, three years; President, Sorosis, senior year; Cantata, "Pan," "Mikado."

HAROLD ARTHUR LEHMAN

Hi-V; Reserve Basketball Squad.

SELMA ALAIN LEVY

Senior Play.

VERA LIGGETT

DORISON ROMAINE LINNABERRY

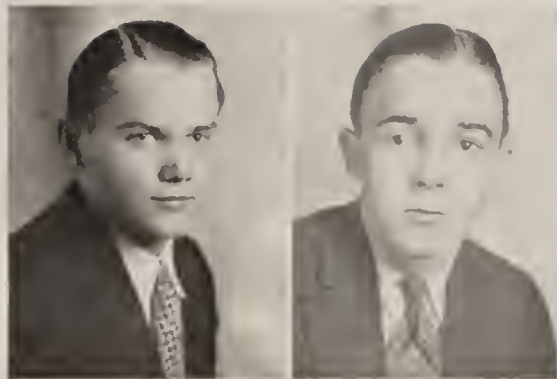

Junior Hi-V; Math Club; Hi-V; Secretary-Treasurer, Radio Club, junior year; Vice-President, senior year.

PHYLLIS FREDA LONG

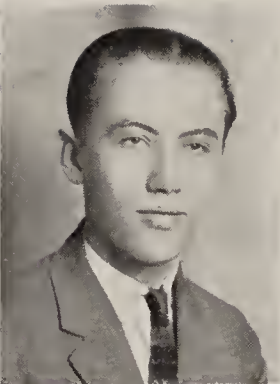

Vice-President, Sorosis; Vice-President, C. G. A. A.; Varsity Basketball; Varsity Baseball; Friendship Club; four-year honor roll.

NELLIE MARIE LOTZ

Home Economics Club; U. P. D. Club; Glee Club.

CALDRON

FERN GENEVIEVE McCOMB

Girls' Glee Club; Feature Editor, Spotlight, junior and senior years; Sorosis; Math Club; CALDRON Staff; "Big Four Vodvil"; "Windmills of Holland"; Economics Committee; Press Club; Mixed Chorus; Friendship Club; "Pan"; "The First Christmas"; "Mikado"; four-year honor roll.

LEE ADRIAN MCKEE

Radio Club.

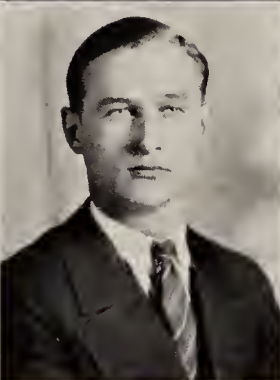

HARRIET GRACE McMILLEN

Girls' Glee Club; "Pan"; "First Noel"; Math Club; C. G. A. A.; "Big Four Vodvil"; Sorosis; Home Economics Club.

EUGENE MARTIN

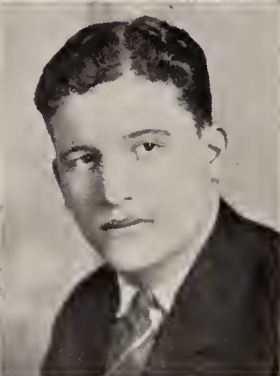

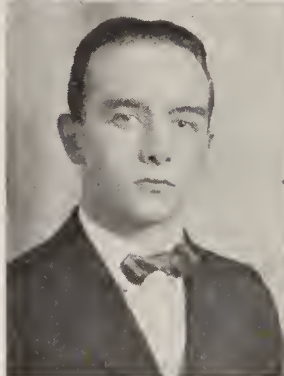

Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; "Windmills of Holland"; T. N. T. Vaudeville; "Op O' Me Thumb"; Stage Manager "Cherry Blossoms"; Senior Play.

EDITH CONSTANCE MEADS

CLIFFORD ROY MEEK

Varsity Football, senior year; Track; Boys' Glee Club.

ROBERT LOUIS MEEK

GILBERT ROCKINGHAM MEYERS

HOWARD FARRELL MEYERS

DOROTHY LUCILE MILLER

C. G. A. A., junior and senior years; Varsity Basketball, sophomore, junior, and senior years; Class Basketball, sophomore, junior, and senior years; Tennis Team, four years.

EDWARD NORRIE MILLER

Accompanist, Boys' Glee Club; Accompanist Boys' Quartette; Treasurer, Hi-Y; "Mikado."

MAY JUANITA MILLER

Friendship Club.

WAYNE LINNWOOD MILLER

Varsity Football; Varsity Track.

AMELIA VERONICA MOELLERING

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Math Club; Brush and Pencil Club; Home Economics Club; Girls' Glee Club; C. G. A. A.; Big Four Vodvil.

KATHRYN MONN

Girls' Glee Club; Math Club; U. P. D.; Class Basketball, freshman year; "Cherry Blossoms."

LYALL DONALD MORRILL

Varsity Basketball, junior and senior years; Varsity Track, sophomore and junior years; Debate Team, senior year; Assistant Sports Editor, Spotlight, junior year; Sports Editor, Spotlight, senior year; Senior Play; Boosters' Club; Student Council, senior year.

MILTON LOUIS NEUROTH

Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y.

JASPER FRANKLIN NOBLES

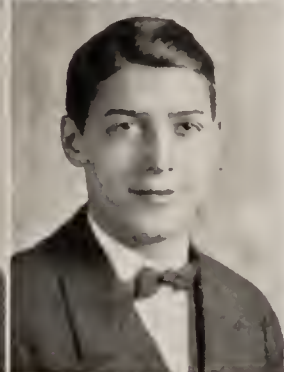

Varsity Football, sophomore and junior years; Varsity Basketball, sophomore and junior years; Varsity Track, sophomore and junior years.

MARIAN KATHRYN NORFORD

Treasurer Sorosis, senior year; Home Economics Club; Reporter Latin Paper; Math Club; Friendship Club; four-year honor roll.

KATHRYN JUNE OSBORN

Spotlight Reporter; Friendship Club; Math Club; Brush and Pencil Club; U. P. D.

Student Council; U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Brush and Pencil Club; Sorosis; Student Players' Club; "Wisdom Teeth"; Senior Play.

Friendship Club.

Hi-Y; Radio Club; Boys' Glee Club; "Mikado."

Math Club.

LUCIE LEE PULLIAM

Friendship Club; "Mikado"; Girls' Glee Club.

Hi-Y.

Boosters' Club; Friendship Club.

Varsity and Class Basketball, junior and senior years; Math Club; Sorosis; President, C. G. A. A.; Vice-President, Friendship Club, senior year.

PAGE HOUSTON ROBINSON

ELWOOD ROTH

Class Basketball, sophomore and junior years, Varsity, senior year; Track, junior year.

DOROTHY KATHRYN ROUX

U. P. D.

ESTHER RACINI ROUX

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Big Four Vodvil.

ROBERT CALVIN RUHL

Business Manager, CALDRON; Class Secretary, junior year; Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; Senior Play.

MALCOLM EARLY RUPP

Junior Hi-Y.

PEARL HELEN SALON

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Sorosis; Student Players Club; "Op O' Me Thumb"; "Fifteenth Candle"; "The Seven Gifts"; Spotlight Staff; four-year honor roll.

JOSEPHINE ELENORA SARGENT

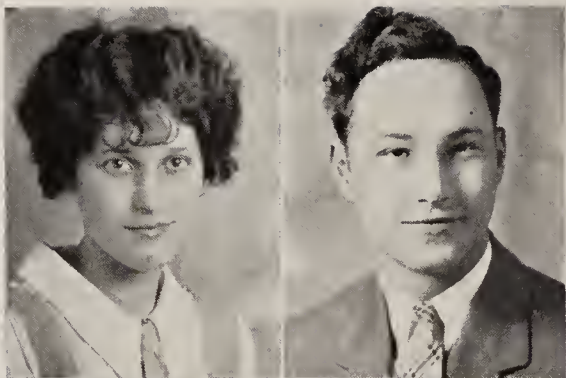

LEONARD ANDREW SCHEELE

Junior Hi-Y, Treasurer, freshman year; President, sophomore year; Vice-President, Hi-Y, junior year; Boys' Glee Club; "Cherry Blossoms"; "Windmills of Holland"; Plats; Boosters' Club; Latin Plays; Math Club; Radio Club; Student Players' Club; Student Council; Winner Extemporaneous Contest, junior year; Debating Teams, junior and senior years; Drum Major, band; Junior Assistant Business Manager, CALDRON, 1925; Editor-in-chief, CALDRON, 1926; four-year honor roll.

MILDRED MARTHA SCHILD

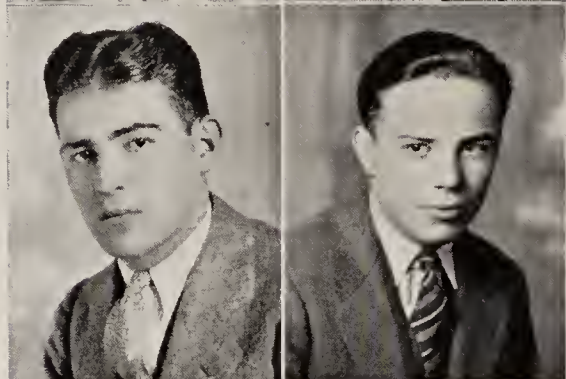

CALDRON

RUTH ISABELLE SCHNEIDER

Glee Club, three years; "Cherry Blossoms"; "Noel"; "Pan"; Big Four Vodvil; C. G. A. A.; U. P. D.; Boosters' Club, senior year; Press Club; Secretary, Sorosis, junior year; Friendship Club, President, senior year; Spotlight Staff, junior and senior years.

PAUL EDMOND SCHROEDER

Hi-Y; Track; Varsity Football, senior year; Class Basketball, sophomore year.

SOL SCHWARTZ

Circulation Manager, Spotlight, sophomore year; Boosters' Club; Varsity Yell Leader; Drum Corps.

EDWARD WAYNE SCOTT

Basketball, Varsity, junior and senior years; Basketball Reserves, sophomore and junior years; Baseball, Varsity, junior and senior years; Class Baseball, junior and senior years; Boosters' Club, senior year.

ARTHUR GLASS SEELY

Assistant Secretary, Radio Club, senior year; Math Club, junior year.

MARY IVALU SHEETS

Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Keyboard Staff; "Mikado."

THOMAS RICHARD SHOAF

President of Class, sophomore and junior years; Social Council, senior year; Tennis Team, four years; Class Basketball, freshman and sophomore years; Hi-Y; Student Players' Club; Student Council; Photographic Editor, CALDRON, senior year; Salutatorian.

ALMA SMITH

C. G. A. A.

GLENN ELIZABETH SMITH

U. P. D.; Class Basketball, sophomore year; Social Council, sophomore and senior years; Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Christmas Cantata, junior year; Sorosis; Editor, Keyboard, senior year; CALDRON Staff; Big Four Vodvil.

MARY KATHARINE SMITH

CALDRON

RUTH MADOLINE SPIEGEL

DICK STARNER

Junior and Senior Hi-Y; Class Basketball, junior and senior years.

LUCILLE MARGARET STEISS

Friendship Club; Sorosis; Keyboard Staff; Spotlight Staff; CALDRON Staff; Girls' Glee Club.

HERMAN STIEGLER

Varsity Football, junior and senior years; Varsity Baseball, junior and senior years; Class Baseball, sophomore year; Reserve Basketball, sophomore year; Varsity Basketball, junior and senior years; Class Basketball, freshman and sophomore years.

JAMES WILLIAM SUTTON

Debating Team; Reporter, Spotlight; Circulation Manager, Keyboard; Winner Discussion Contest; President Math Club; Student Council; Hi-Y; Student Players' Club; Senior Play.

JOY DELORES SUTTON

U. P. D.; Friendship; Brush and Pencil Club.

HAROLD ORVILLE SWINEHART

ALICE LOUISE TIGGES

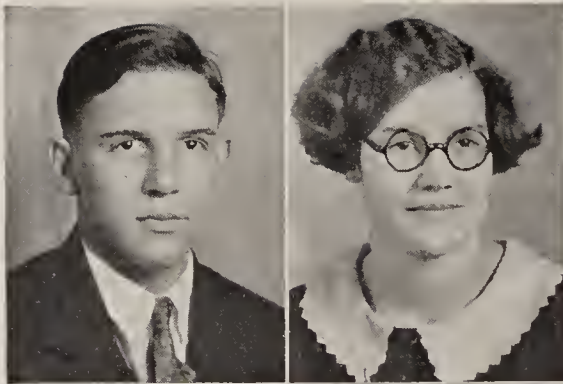

RALPH PORTER TROYER

Class Basketball, sophomore year; Reserve Basketball, junior year; Varsity Basketball, junior and senior years.

ELIZABETH LENOR VALENTINE

Girls' Glee Club; Brush and Pencil Club.

GLENN ROBERT VAN HOOZEN

Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; Class Basketball, sophomore year; Vice-President, Junior and Senior Classes.

RUTH MARTHA WALLHAUSEN

Girls' Glee Club; Student Council; CALDRON Staff; Christmas Cantata, junior year; Senior Play.

ELEANOR LOUISE WELLER

Sorosis; Math Club; Friendship Club.

MADOLIN ELIZABETH WHITE

U. P. D.; Friendship Club; Girls' Glee Club; Brush and Pencil Club; Math Club; Student Council.

AUBREY HOWARD WILLIAMS

President, Junior Hi-Y; Hi-Y; Radio Club; Varsity Football, senior year; Rifle Team; Senior Play.

MARIE AMELIA WILLIAMS

Sorosis; Friendship Club; Secretary, C. G. A. A.; Girls' Varsity Basketball, four years; Captain Girls' Basketball Team, junior year; Class Basketball, four years; Society Editor, Spotlight, one year; Club Editor, CALDRON, senior year; U. P. D.; Student Council; Girls' Glee Club; four-year honor roll.

JAMES E. WOODS

Rifle Team.

ALBERT GEORGE WORTON

Varsity Football, junior and senior years.

MAXINE WYATT

LADONNA ZUBER

LOUISE ZWICK

FRANKLIN ALEXANDER EMERICK, JR.

Hi-Y, junior and senior years; Boys' Glee Club; Mixed Chorus; "Cherry Blossoms"; Manager Debators, senior year; Math Club.

PEARL KRETZINGER

Friendship Club; C. G. A. A.; Girls' Glee Club.

HELENA LUCILE LEES

MRS. E. B. CLARK

Faculty Adviser.

WILLIAM R. SUR

Faculty Adviser.

Senior Honor Students

First Row: David Heaton, Valedictorian, 95.78; Richard Shoaff, Salutatorian, 93.53; Fern McComb, 92.96; Marian Norford, 92.93.

Second Row: Pearl Salon, 92.42; Vernida Bowman, 92.37; Phyllis Long, 91.56; Velma Hiappel, 91.11.

Third Row: Marie Williams, 91.03; Leonard Scheele, 90.96; Mildred Adair, 90.29; Evelyn Jacobs, 90.16.

Fourth Row: Marcella Koerber, 90.09; James Anglin, 90.01; Matilda Aumann, 90.00.

Junior

THE junior class is about to enter its senior year and should far overshadow the present graduating class. The class of '27 has one of the peppiest organizations that has graced the halls of Central in many a year. They have carried on their activities with much zest. They have given co-operation whenever it was asked and have never shirked from doing their share of any work that was to be done.

Junior Class Officers

First Row: John White, President; Charlotte Stier, Vice-President; Richard Meeker, Secretary; Paul Mensing, Treasurer.

Second Row: Harland Robinson, Social Council; Harriet Hiester, Social Council; Wayne Kepler, Social Council.

FACULTY ADVISERS

MISS HILDA SCHWEHN

JOHN DELONG

A large black and white group photograph of the 1934-1935 Senior Class. The students are posed in many rows on the steps of a building with large arched windows. The group includes both men and women in formal attire of the mid-1930s.

Junior Class Roll

Aichele, Evelyn
 Albaecht, Clara
 Alderdice, Dorothy Alter, Catherine M.
 Altschul, Carl L.
 Ault, Burnell
 Baatz, Esther Baker, Audrey
 Baker, James D.
 Bash, Frances R.
 Bayer, Earl
 Beck, Frederick William
 Bennet, Mabel
 Berghoff, Margaret
 Bergman, Mildred Gertrude
 Bobilya, Ethel Louise Bond, George
 Bradtmiller, Margaret Bredemeyer, Robert Brinkroeger, Paul
 Boittin, James Brooks, LeRoy
 Brown, Leodicea
 Brown, William
 Buck, Clarence Allen
 Buelow, Ethel L.

Burg, Eugene C.
 Buesching, Erwin
 Butler, Margaret Buttram, Constance
 Campbell, Katherine
 Carroll, Lincoln
 Clark, Verl Mildred
 Cler, Oscar
 Clippenger, Lavern
 Clause, Laulta
 Comparet, Germaine
 Converse, Virginia
 Cook, Robert H.
 Cox, Edward L.
 Crance, Bernice
 Crapser, Marcella E.
 Crawford, Mildred
 Cress, Melba
 Cross, Thelma Evelyn
 Croxall, Katherine L.
 Current, Aden
 Davies, Esther Margaret
 Davis, John Forrest
 Dean, Edith Elizabeth
 Dickerson, Naomi Louise
 Doherty, Orval

Dunfee, Ralph
 Dye, Laura Katherine
 Eby, Jeanette
 Egly, Marjorie
 Eisenhut, Eleanor L.
 Engelmänn, Sara Marie
 Estes, Anna
 Faux, Venus
 Felger, Paul Henry
 Felger, Thelma Elizabeth
 Ferlini, Alvaro
 Ferris, Donald
 Fischer, Frederick W.
 Fitch, Geraldine Elizabeth
 Fleischman, John Richard Fletcher, Helen Fletcher, John Edwin Ford, Lorena
 Fulkerson, Bernice Thelma Ganther, Maizie Alda
 Genig, Lester
 Gildea, Laura Evelyn
 Gladstone, Naffie
 Glock, Wayne R.
 Gollmer, Henry Paul
 Gauty, Arthur Ed.

CALDRON

Gruber, Chalmer	McPheeters, Clyde V.	Scoles, Thelma
Grenlack, Gordon	Mass, Evelyn C.	Scott, Viola
Gunn, Nell	Manth, Robert Louis	Shearer, Carroll
Haberkorn, Franklin	Mantz, John Eugene	Shipley, Ethel
Hagermann, Theodore	Maxwell, Leila Katherine	Simminger, Louise
Haley, Isabelle	Meeker, Richard	Smith, Raymond Carl
Hans, Lillian	Merrilat, Clayton	Smith, L. Pauline
Handen, Lela Edna	Merrilat, Thelma Ruth	Snook, Mary Martha
Harnish, Hope Eleanore	Michaels, Dorothy	Sedtman, Cless
Harris, Martha	Miller, Clarice Lillian	Southern, Harold
Hart, Doris Delbert	Miller, Wayne L.	Southworth, George
Hayden, Lee Fannie	Miller, William M.	Spahr, Doloras I.
Heine, Richard F.	Milligan, Edward Theodore	Spieth, Marie
Hengstler, Charles	Mills, Paul E.	Steinhauser, Paul Fred
Hessert, Chester	Mleko, Frank Michael	Stier, Charlotte Louise
Hiester, Harriett L.	Mossman, Lewis Burnell	Stitz, Mildred Lucille
Himelstein, Sylvia	Murray, Harold C.	Stocks, Margaret
Hodell, Charlotte Mae	Myers, Gertrude Helen	Strauss, John Karl
Holden, Kathleen	Nachtigall, Leonora A.	Studler, Eveline
Hauck, Ora Clifton	Nelson, Dorothea Marie	Tenny, Laura Frances
Hurwitz, Bella	Nichols, Grace Idell	Thain, George Oswald
Jasper, G. Paul	Niles, Norwin Mellatt	Theme, H. Carl
Johnson, Nye Raymond	Norford, Virgil	Timma, Dora
Katzenberg, Rose	Novitsky, Byron	Tonkel, Mildred Josephine
Kaufman, Mary Eloise	Ostermeier, Gertrude	Traxler, Virginia Helen
Kaufman, Orville	Overdeer, Helen Lucille	Trier, Virginia Marguerite
Keefer, Stella Louisa	Overmyer, Charles O.	Vehl, Marvin Edward
Kelker, Robert B.	Parker, Stuart Lowell	Van Shick, Roger
Kellams, Edith	Pattee, Evelyn	Voegtlin, Carl B.
Kepler, Wayne	Perry, Emma Grace	Walker, Bonnie
Klein, Hugh M.	Pfeiffer, Marcia	Walters, Howard L.
Kleinhans, LaRheba	Phipps, Clifton	Walters, Earle H.
Knight, Gerald	Pio, Mabel	Washburn, William
Koberly, Florence	Pollak, Rosalia	White, Jack
Kruekeberg, Dorothea Martha	Ponsot, Robert	White, John
Kuckein, Horst	Popp, Tom George	Widenhaefer, Herbert E.
Ladig, Alice Lucile	Porter, Robert Lewis	Wiegman, Dorothy Lois
Lahmeyer, Robert	Powers, Helen Isabelle	Williams, Jack
Lang, Dorothy	Pratt, Mary Catherine	Winter, Ignota
Lange, Chester E.	Proctor, Helen Eloise	Withers, Freda
Lantz, Gertrude	Rahdert, Verna E.	Woebeking, Marian
Lane, Richard	Ramsey, Robert Nelson	Woods, James E.
Lee, Velma Marguerite	Renier, Martha	Woodward, James A.
Lennan, Joseph	Riedel, Carl Richard	Wyrick, Ralph Duane
Liggett, Mary Elizabeth	Rippe, Dorothy	Yant, Edward E.
Litfiy, Albert	Roberts, Harold	Yarnelle, Alice Porter
Laetz, William Robert	Robinson, Geraldine	Yates, Dorothy
Lochner, Harold	Robinson, Harland	Youse, John Herbert
Lonergan, Blanche	Rosenthal, J. Milton	Zeller, Roselyn Gene
Long, Geraldine	Rosenthal, Zelda I.	Zimmerman, Ralph Thomas
Lott, Howard	Rousseau, Wayne	Zingrebe, Edna
McComb, Walter Allen	Russell, Howard	Zollinger, Ralph George
McConnell, Robert	Salzbrenner, Alma	McKenlay, Henlen
McFadden, Wilma	Saunders, Frances	Cook, Paul
McKim, Clausen	Schmidt, Edward

Junior Class Honor Roll

First Six Weeks:

Gunther, Maizie
Harris, Martha
Heine, Richard
Merillat, Clayton
Norford, Virgil
Overmeyer, Charles
Scoles, Thelma
Stier, Charlotte
Widen, Harriet
Withers, Freda
Yarnelle, Alice
Youse, John Herbert

Semester:

Croxall, Katherine
Gunther, Maizie
Harris, Martha
Heine, Richard
Kaufman, Mary
Norford, Virgil
Novitsky, Byron
Overmeyer, Charles Pollak, Rosalia
Popp, Tom
Scoles, Thelma
Stier, Charlotte
Withers, Freda
Yarnelle, Alice
Youse, John
Merillat, Clayton

Second Six Weeks:

Croxall, Katherine
Dean, Edith
Gunther, Maizie
Harris, Martha
Heine, Richard
Kaufman, Mary
Merillat, Clayton
Merillat, Thelma Stier, Charlotte
Widen, Harriet
Withers, Freda
Yarnelle, Alice
Youse, John Herbert

First Six Weeks,

Second Semester:

Croxall, Katherine
Harris, Martha
Heine, Richard
Kaufman, Mary
Merillat, Clayton
Norford, Virgil
Popp, Tom
Smith, Carl
Stier, Charlotte
Widenhoefer, Herbert
Withers, Freda
Yarnelle, Alice Youse, John

Sophomore

THE sophomores have completed just half of their course and must decide whether they want to cross the line and finish, or whether they are content to remain where they are. The sophomore class has in it many notable characters who have created history by their rapid rise to fame along many lines of activity at Central.

Sophomore Class Officers

First Row: Wayne Link, President; Mary Thayer, Vice-President; Mary Erwin, Secretary-Treasurer; Madeline Cromwell, Social Council.

Second Row: Jack Kitch, Social Council; Sol Rothberg, Social Council.

FACULTY ADVISERS

MARK BILLS

MISS JULIA STORR

CALDRON

Sophomore Class Roll

Allen, Durward Leon
 Aumann, Paul H.
 Babcock, Donald Ballou, James O.
 Barbaur, Ethel N.
 Bauter, Evelyn June
 Bash, David
 Bassett, Jessica Baum, Alice
 Bland, Olive Anline
 Beber, Lucile Dorothea
 Beberstein, Robert William Beckman, Ruth Virginia
 Bedner, Mary
 Beerman, Evelyn Madalene
 Berning, Edgar Beverforden, Robert
 Biddle, Walter Manford
 Billingsley, Hubert Finley
 Bishop, Calvin Lee
 Baxler, Victoria
 Blaising, Doris Blakely, Estella A.
 Blauton, Grover
 Boggs, Helen Bohnke, Glennys L.
 Bolman, P. Murray
 Bower, Walter
 Bradtmiller, Jane
 Brant, Wynalle
 Bratl, Anna

Briggs, Charles Edwin Breckhall, Edward Books, Imogene L.
 Brosius, Robert Henry
 Brown, Delillah
 Bruns, Ruth Louise
 Buckland, Dwight
 Buecker, Carl
 Buesching, Marguerite Mary
 Bervvis, Bernard
 Byers, Orlie
 Campbell, Dorothy M.
 Campbell, John Robert Carrel, Wealthe Louise
 Casey, Donald Chaney, Augustine
 Clark, Thomas M.
 Claxton, Esther Garnet
 Connet, Margaret E.
 Cook, Frances Leona
 Cook, Ralph William
 Cook, Russell E.
 Coalman, Walter
 Coppock, Martha Florence
 Cromwell, Madeline Cross, William Harold Croxall, Grace Elizabeth
 David, Esther Marie
 Davidson, Albert
 Davies, Helen Marie
 Davis, Vivan Lucile

Davis, Wayne
 DeLancey, Opal
 DeLaney, Orval
 DePew, William Gerald
 Dick, Melvin L.
 Doege, Elmer
 Dornte, Wayne F.
 Drayer, T. Park
 Dreyer, Margaret
 Duddleson, Wilma
 Duesler, Lois Iala
 Eby, Chris
 Edwards, Charles Egly, Janet
 Eisenhut, Kenneth Franklin
 Elder, Donald E.
 Ellyson, Dorothy K.
 Elson, Eric Waldo
 Emerson, Laura May
 Emrick, E. Victor
 Eninger, Robert
 Erwin, Mary Elizabeth
 Evans, Lois Frances
 Farrell, Adam N., Jr.
 Fawley, Helen Ferguson, Clue D.
 Ferguson, James Edward Fichman, Felix
 Finks, Lucille
 Foester, Gerkardt
 Fox, Dorothy Catherine

Fox, Wallace
 Frick, Phillip
 Fritz, Laverne Marnel
 Garnian, Lucile Dorothy Gaskill, Robert James Gass, Charles Franklin
 Gebert, Alma Evelyn
 Gerberding, Hildegard
 Gibson, Henry
 Glock, Maurice
 Godwin, Ruth E.
 Goodwin, Irene Mae
 Goue, Edwin Gray, Joseph Bunk
 Gray, Violet
 Grummons, Helen Mabel
 Habecker, John
 Habig, Ernest Edward Hamilton, Vernida Thelma Hammond, Carl
 Hanke, Clarence
 Haxby, Freda
 Hayden, Anne
 Hazelett, Mildred
 Heathman, Herbert C.
 Heit, James
 Henry, B. Robert Henderhorst, Wilfred
 Hine, Lloyd
 Hizm, Leonard W.
 Hoemig, Glenn
 Holderman, Mary E.
 Hortmeyer, Louise Mary
 Hurwurtz, Bella
 Hutchinson, Blake
 Hutchinson, Doris Ivins, Suzanne Jackman, Doris Hope
 Jackson, Guy Clinton
 Johnson, Leona Rae
 Johnson, Lucille
 Johnson, William A.
 Johnson, John W.
 Johnson, Norina Katherine
 Jones, Birdell George Juergens, Evelyn Keenan, Evelyn Hilda
 Keester, Christena
 Kiester, Irene
 King, Alma Juanita
 Kitch, John D.
 Klebe, Robert William
 Knight, Donald Koch, Florence Helen Koehlinger, Gerhard Fred
 Koehlinger, William
 Koenig, Melvin Henry
 Kramer, Howard Edgar Lancaster, Charles E.
 Landin, Samuel J.
 Leffler, Louise Helene
 Leonard, Tom Leslie, Mildred

Leverenz, Elsie Anna
 Leggit, Walter Page
 Light, Helen Eugenia
 Link, Wayne Edward Lohe, Norman Richard
 Long, Gale Robert Lowery, Esther Mead
 McClellan, Gertrude
 McKee, Robert Henry
 McMaken, Edward McNeal, Violet
 McNeal, James H.
 McNelly, Theodore
 March, Julia Belle
 Martin, Robert Lorlton
 Maye, Carl Monroe
 Mensing, Paul William
 Meyer, Howard C.
 Miller, Florence Louise Miller, Nellie Ethel
 Millikan, Frances Lucile
 Mills, Ruth Dorothy
 Mleko, Mary Jenny
 Monroe, Conrad John Morris, Charles Morris, Orval
 Motz, Paul M. W.
 Mounsey, Rex C.
 O'Brien, Merlin
 Osburn, Ruth Geraldine
 Patterson, George Penrod, Arthur
 Pfeifer, Werner Carl
 Phillips, Ione Constance
 Pio, Cecile Lucile
 Pitts, Jeanette Irene
 Preece, Helen Marie
 Pritchard, Owen C.
 Prugh, Phyllis Bernadine
 Rader, Selma Louise
 Reed, Mildred Lucille
 Refakis, George John Reim, Bernice
 Reim, Eugene
 Rhamy, William O.
 Ridley, John Ewing
 Rinaker, Otto Floyd
 Rippel, Elizabeth Virginia
 Robinson, Pauline
 Rockhill, Thomas
 Rogers, Glenn
 Rohrbach, Esther
 Rothberg, Sol
 Rowland, Gladys G.
 Ryder, William E.
 Saylor, Chester
 Scheele, John Scheele, Otto
 Scheiman, William T.
 Schellenbach, William Schlacter, Harry Phillip
 Schoppmann, Paul
 Schroeder, Gertrude

Schultz, Evelyn Mae
 Schultz, Dorothy Sophia
 Schwartz, John Dale
 Seymour, Hildred Harriet
 Show, Harry Franklin
 Sheets, Wayne A.
 Shields, Mary
 Shockley, Blythe
 Shultz, Loretta Winifred
 Sieling, Herman
 Skelton, Charles S.
 Slater, Mildred Juanita
 Smenner, Mary G.
 Smith, Bernard Leroy
 Smith, Edith Marie
 Smith, Elvaretta
 Snake, Harry William
 Spieth, G. Pauline
 Stapleton, Glenn Durward
 Steinbauer, Mildred
 Steiner, Mary Eva
 Stellhorn, Velma Lillian Stephan, Frederick Charles Stephan, Lucile
 Steup, Ethel Mae
 Stevens, James Felton
 Steward, Dale W.
 Steward, Jean
 Stohlmann, Alice
 Stouder, Jane Julia
 Stumpf, Henry
 Simmons, William Hay
 Swan, Robert
 Swick, Franklin
 Tagmeyer, J. Elizabeth
 Tannehill, Louis C.
 Thayer, Mary Gertrude
 Trempel, Helen Louise
 Trick, Franklin A.
 Umbach, Margaret
 Van Horn, Carl E.
 Wagner, Gwendolyn
 Walker, William Harold
 Ward, Alice Lee
 Warning, Hazel Louise
 Weber, Ervin S.
 Weber, Georgine Frances
 Weikart, Mildred Clara
 Weimer, Richard Otto
 Weinstein, Pearl
 Wiant, Thoburn
 Wilkins, E. Carl
 Witham, Geraldine Margaret Woehr, Wilda
 Wolke, Alfred Henry
 Woodruff, Helen Katherine
 Woods, Sadie Mae
 Worgum, Ruby Marcile
 Worline, Walter Ray
 Yergens, Paul Frederick Young, Glorvina Lucille
 Zwick, Irving Albert

Sophomore Class Honor Roll

First Six Weeks:

Coppock, Martha
Croxall, Grace
Davies, Helen
Garman, Lucille
Hurwitz, Bella
Leverenz, Elsie
Steiner, Mary
Umbach, Margaret
Wagner, Gwendolyn
Davies, Marie
Godwin, Ruth May
Thayer, Mary

Second Six Weeks:

Coppock, Martha
Croxall, Grace
Davies, Helen
Garman, Lucille
Leverenz, Elsie
Steiner, Mary
Tremple, Helen Umbach, Margaret
Ward, Alice Lee
Davies, Marie
Godwin, Ruth May

Semester:

Coppock, Martha
Croxall, Grace
Davies, Helen
Garman, Lucille

Gerberding, Hildegard
Godwin, Ruth May
Leverenz, Elsie
Steiner, Mary
Trempel, Helen Umbach, Margaret
Wagner, Gwendolyn
Ward, Alice
Davies, Marie
Thayer, Gertrude

First Six Weeks,

Second Semester:

Croxall, Grace
Davies, Helen
Garman, Lucille
Godwin, Ruth May Kitch, John
Leverenz, Elsie
Rhamy, William
Thayer, Mary
Umbach, Margaret
Wagner, Gwendolyn
Bowen, Philip
Bowman, Dorothy Mann, Philip
Eisenhut, Virgil
Falk, David
Forsythe, Jean Gerding, Helen O'Brien, Myron Stockman, Robert Weaver, Richard

Freshman

THE class of '29 has completed the hardest part of its career, namely, going through the first high school year. They have made their acquaintances and can lead a pleasanter life during their remaining three years. The '29s are unique in that they are the largest freshman class that has ever entered a high school in Fort Wayne. It is hoped that they will also have the largest number to graduate.

Freshman Class Roll

Abbott, Robert Agster, Ruth
Allard, Helen Louise
Archer, Robert Allen
Arduster, Bruce Joseph Arduster, Paul
Arick, Harold Arnold, Donald Arnold, Hubert
Arnold, Nelson

Ashley, Mary
Ashley, William Warren
Aumann, Mildred Anne
Ayers, Bernice
Bacon, Genevieve
Bade, William
Baker, James Arthur
Baker, Robert
Barillas, Katherine
Barnes, George

Basil, Jean Mary
Baughman, Lester Rex
Baumgartner, Allene Emma Beaber, Marcella
Beamer, George Edward Beahrs, Velma
Bearman, Leonard
Beber, Marcelene
Beberstein, Helen Ruth
Beer, Arthur Oscar

Beerman, Wilma Elizabeth
Bell, William Bender, Edward Berman, Alfred Best, Mabel Wade
Betz, Edith May Beyerlein, Mildred
Bitner, Hahn Leroy
Bittler, William George
Blakely, Thomas Gurthrie

A large group photograph of the 1929-1930 Girls' Athletic Union members. The group, consisting of approximately 100 young women, is posed in many rows in front of a building with large arched doorways. They are wearing various styles of 1930s-era clothing, including dresses, sweaters, and hats. The photograph is in black and white.

Blessing, Luther Charles Blew, Golda Lavon
Blosser, Alice
Bogan, Elsworth Kennetb
Bogardus, Ralph Wendell
Boger, Ralph
Bohn, Carl Emil
Bojrab, Joseph Bolds, Harrod
Bond, Charles
Bonham, Grace
Boseker, Forrest Walter
Bowersox, Shirley Wayne

Brant, Aileen
Bright, James Walter
Brittenham, Edith Alston
Brooks, Edward Paul Brown, Floyd
Brown, Robert Alfred
Brown, Virgil Othello
Brueckner, Walter Brundige, Hazel
Budecki, Stanley
Buesching, Velma
Buñik, Donald Lester
Bulmahn, Carl Fred

Burhop, Ruth Ada
Burry, Dorothy
Butler, Mildred Kathryn
Cahow, Ruth Cahow, Zella
Campbell, Olive Orpha
Carpenter, Denver
Carter, Nellie May Cartwright, Esther Kathryn
Certia, Peter Magnus
Chaffin, Donald
Chambers, Mary Elizabeth
Chard, Henry

Clark, Ruth Bernice
Cler, Orville Charles
Cline, Trella Beatrice
Coar, Robert
Colelli, George Joseph
Colter, William
Combs, Elvan Floyd
Cook, Bernice
Cook, Ruth Adrienne
Cook, Marvelene Coral
Cowan, Byron
Cowell, Charles
Crawford, Alma May

Crimm, Wilma Virginia
 Crist, Gladys Viola
 Crum, Harry Allen
 Dafforn, Glenn Robert
 Dailey, Charles
 Dalton, Audra
 David, Jerome
 Davis, Whyneta
 DeHaven, LaVerne
 Dennis, Virgil Edward Dentzer, James Henry
 DeSousa, Mae
 DeSpain, Florence Ethel
 DeWitt, Abe
 Doell, Doris Anna
 Doege, Lorna Ellen Doenges, Verlin Mabel
 Dole, Rachel Minerva
 Dornte, Robert
 Doty, Glenn
 Dressel, Robert Fredrick
 Dunlap, Edgar Winfield
 Dunlap, Lucille
 Dunn, William Fredrick
 Dunton, Clayton Merlin
 Ealing, George Walton
 Ealing, Henry Michael Eastman, William Benjamin
 Egolf, Kathryn Mary
 Ehrman, Ralph Clarence
 Eichholtz, Walter
 Elder, William Francis
 Ellenwood, Alden
 Ellenwood, Lewis Ralph Ellenwood, Laura
 Elson, Rosamond Charlotta
 Ember, Thomas George
 Emrick, Charles Edward Emrick, Evelyn Eleanor
 Ervin, Catherine Terese
 Erwin, Margaret Alice Erxleben, Irene Mabel
 Estes, Mary Elizabeth
 Evans, Shirley
 Ewing, Curtes Clair
 Fahncke, Edgar Carl
 Fairburn, Virginia June
 Fairweather, Alcie Katherine
 Fawley, Dorothy Feller, Raymond Samuel
 Ferguson, Mary Dorothy Fischer, Carl August
 Flory, Robert Willis
 Ford, Alvah Roy
 Franks, Gladys LaVon
 Fredrick, Robert LeRoy
 Freigy, Edward Frisch, Wayne
 Fulkerson, Paul
 Fulks, Kathryn Marie
 Galentine, George
 Gallmeyer, Esther Anna
 Gallmeyer, Walter Garner, Reece
 Gardner, Robert
 Gassafy, Anna Flora
 Gebhart, Homer
 George, Francis Nelson
 George, Judson
 Gerber, Alice
 Gibson, Ralph Leroy
 Gibson, Sarah Frances
 Giggy, Mildred Pauline
 Gocke, Omar Kenneth Goeglein, Raymond
 Good, Mildred Irene Gone, Marian Louise Graham, Ruth
 Grau, Pauline May
 Grier, Estel Lavon
 Grimm, Mary Katherine
 Grimmons, Dorothea Evelyn Gudeman, Helen Lavon
 Guenther, Ralph

Geige, Gladys Irene
 Gunn, Leonard
 Guysinger, Joyce LaVon
 Hagermann, William Oscar
 Hall, Ward Alvin
 Hammer, Walter Herman
 Hands, Myrtle Mae
 Hans, Erwin Walter
 Hans, Robert Henry
 Hanson, Robert Ralph
 Harges, Wayne Edward
 Harris, Mary Hilles
 Hart, Dorothy Marie
 Hawkins, Marjorie Amanda
 Hayden, Jean
 Heider, Helen Dorothy
 Heinig, Louise Flora
 Heine, Albert William Helbig, Bessie Ellen Henkel, Luther Walter
 Henline, Arthur Adam
 Hermeler, Herbert Wilmer
 Herendeen, Henry Harold Heuer, Gilberta Eileen
 Hibbs, Arthur Elwood
 Hickey, Melba Frances
 Hines, Robert Owen
 Hobrock, Marjorie Ann
 Hoefelmeyer, Edwin Hofer, Mary Barbara
 Hofer, Theodore Arthur
 Hohman, Harold Holcraft, Bertha
 Holderman, Paul
 Hollopeter, Charles Lester
 Holmes, Margaret Ellen Hoover, Mildred
 Hoover, Opal Irene
 Hopper, William James Horn, Earl Horstmeyer, Charles
 Horstman, John Clarence
 Hughes, Marguerite Katherine
 Hursh, Catherine Christine Hurst, Paul
 Ivins, Franklin Merle
 Jacobs, Carl Edwin
 Jautz, Gladys Marie
 Jamieson, Henry Louis
 James, Harry William
 Jenkins, Van
 Johnson, Alice Magdalene
 Jones, Kenneth
 Jones, Genevieve
 Julliard, Margaret Lois
 Koeck, Kenneth Kann, Myron
 Kaylor, Nondes Fern
 Kaylor, Virginia Ruth
 Kayser, Arthur
 Keeley, Cerece
 Kelsey, Orville
 Kerr, Leona Ruth
 Kibiger, Alfred
 Kerr, Robert Oscar
 Kinerk, Beatrice
 Kinerk, Homer
 Kinerk, Virgil Frishee
 King, Gladys Ellen Kinsey, Charles
 Kleinhans, John Kloepper, John
 Kloepper, Carl August
 Knisely, Lenora Vvonne
 Knoll, Helen Eudora
 Koegel, Florence
 Koehler, Melvin
 Koenig, Kathryn Elizabeth
 Koethe, Alma Rosella
 Korn, Ruth Arlene
 Korn, Harold Edmund
 Korte, Harold Koontz, Walter William
 Kowlaczyk, George Charles

Kraft, Howard William Kretzinger, Fred
 Kroemer, Erma
 Kratz, Richard James
 Krudop, Norman Paul
 Krueper, Helen Louise
 Kull, Raymond
 Kuntz, Earl
 Lallan, Ralph William
 Lantz, Irene Marie
 Lantz, Richard Laute, Max
 Leach, James
 Lee, Mary Levonia
 Lee, Russell Ralph
 Lehman, Louis Carl
 Lehman, Carl Fred
 Lester, Robert
 LeVack, Richard Lewis, Morgan
 Lewis, Nina Tracy
 Liddy, Rosella
 Liggett, Charles Arthur
 Lindemuth, Hollis Charlotte
 Lindenberg, Ivan
 Linsky, Harold Lissner, Helen Anna
 Lochner, Merl
 Loeschner, Werner Arno
 Logan, Elizabeth Dorothy Lohse, Frederick Alfred Long, Clarence Eldon
 Mahlon, Edwin Malick, Paul Herman
 Mallman, Babe Mildred
 Maloley, Rose
 Mann, Phillip Newton
 Markey, Helen Kathryn
 Marshall, Steve Martin, Norman Franklin
 Masterson, Mary Elizabeth
 Masterson, Rachel McCague, Dorothy Ellen
 McClellan, Helen Louise
 McCulloch, Josephus
 McCutcheon, Bernadine Olive McDonald, Margaret
 McDonell, Byron
 McLuttyre, Fred
 McKinzie, Lucille
 McMaken, Dorothy Ann
 McMeen, John
 McMillen, Effie
 Merks, Dora Ethel
 Merrillat, Leona May Merriman, Virginia
 Mertz, Esther Pearl
 Mertz, Frederick Ruell
 Messerschmidt, Clara Katherine
 Mertz, Mary Wilma
 Meyer, Dorothy
 Michels, Clifford
 Middleton, Ethel Irene
 Miller, Catherine Grace
 Miller, Edwin Weaver
 Miller, Richard Walter
 Miller, Roland Earl Miller, Wanda
 Milligan, Elizabeth Esther Mills, Richard Harry Mitchell, Paul
 Moellering, Mildred Katherine
 Monroe, Forest
 Morrison, Kenneth Morton, Emma Virginia
 Mosely, Claudia Voncile
 Mosher, Clarena Roland
 Mosshamer, Harold William
 Mundt, Alfred Henry
 Mundt, Harold Arnold
 Myers, Harriet Vernell
 Myers, Levi Robert
 Neff, Audra Mabel
 Neher, Beatrice Ernine

Neuhaus, Edward Neuhaus, Henry
 Neuroth, Edward
 Nichols, Thelma Frances
 Nicolet, Howard George Niles, Richard Leon
 Noble, Margaret Malinda
 Nobles, Esther Evelyn Noll, Eugene Russell
 Noyes, T. Robert
 Oglesbee, Clayton Parks
 Oestermeier, Marie Arla
 Overholtz, Harry Chester
 Pageler, Charles Henry
 Pageler, Edward Albert
 Pape, Mae Jewell
 Pape, Oscar
 Papier, Esther Myrtle
 Parker, Andrew Edward Parker, Mildred Lucille
 Patterson, Agnes
 Paul, Elmer Fred
 Paul, Charles Robert
 Paulsen, Harold Perry, Bruce Earl
 Pierce, Francis Arthur
 Pfeiffer, Isabell Frances
 Pierce, Charles Place, Julia Caroline
 Ponsett, Kenneth Frederick
 Poole, Charles Roscoe
 Potosky, Frank Priest, Hazel Leona
 Putt, Roscoe
 Quance, Everett Fred
 Ramsey, Elroy
 Reaser, Florence Myrtle Reed, John Edwin Reemsnyder, Elizabeth
 Refakis, Peter John
 Reiber, Marie
 Rieff, Milas
 Rueter, Shirley
 Reynolds, Fred James
 Rhodes, Chester
 Richard, William Alden
 Richard, Norman Fredrick
 Rinaker, Justus
 Robinson, George Harvey
 Rodgers, Walter
 Rohland, Elizabeth Mary
 Root, Francile Isabell
 Rossington, Robert
 Rost, Francile Berneata
 Rousseau, Louise Martha
 Rousseau, Richard
 Roy, Robert James
 Ryder, Jesse Frederick
 Salzer, Maxine Annabelle
 Salzer, Rodger William
 Sauers, Mildred
 Saunders, Alice
 Schaal, Elsie Louise
 Schatzle, Theodore Joseph
 Scheer, Elmer William
 Schellenbach, Eileen Gretchen Scherer, Roger Schlebecker, Homer
 Schmidt, Carl Fred
 Schoepke, Russell
 Schatt, Velma Mary
 Schrantz, Loren
 Schwabe, Ruth Elizabeth
 Schwartz, Anne
 Schwantz, Harry Franklin
 Scraggins, Edna
 Secrest, Briant Eugene
 Seemeyer, William George
 Sellars, James
 Shearer, Marjorie Helen Shrene, Louise Marie
 Shubert, James Wooley
 Siples, Donald Slater, Lester Otto

Smenner, Margaret Anne
 Smith, Carl Edward Smith, Frank
 Smith, Hester
 Smith, Paul
 Smith, Wilma Grace
 Snell, Chester Cecil
 Snook, Thomas
 Snowberger, Vinson
 Snyder, Clyde Wayne
 Snyder, Joseph
 Salinger, Mildred
 Somers, Paul Preston
 Sorghan, Raymond
 Sowers, Laurett Lucille
 Squires, Alvah Luther Staak, Pearl Elizabeth
 Starr, Loretta Bradway
 Stauffer, Max
 Steel, Arthur
 Stegner, Lorraine Jennie
 Stein, Paul Birhet
 Steinberg, Marion
 Stemen, Rowena Mae
 Stevens, Lester Eugene
 Staffex, Eva
 Stone, William Warren
 Stoner, Arthur Joy
 Stoppenhager, Walter
 Stout, Paul
 Strong, Dorothea May Stuber, Flossie Evelyn
 Studler, Frances Albert
 Swan, Jeanne
 Swick, Mary Elizabeth
 Taylor, Hernain
 Taylor, Margaret
 Tenny, Donald Eugene
 Thieme, Virginia Louise
 Thomas, Ora Dee
 Titus, Margaret
 Upton, Doris Naomi
 Vail, Cortney Ballard
 VanAllen, Calvester Andrew
 Vaughn, Rodney
 Valick, Paul
 Volmerding, Lillian Valtz, Alvin Henry
 Wade, Ross
 Waite, Zella Mae
 Walda, William Carl
 Wallace, Harry Edgar Wampler, Pauline
 Warner, Welcome Allegra
 Weaver, Norma Justine
 Weaver, Richard Porter
 Weikart, Marguerite
 Weinstein, Marion
 Wendellen, Flora Virginia
 Weyrick, Charles Henry
 Whitacre, Ralph
 White, Margaret
 White, Walter
 Wilcox, Donald Wilding, Robert John Wilson, Aulay
 Wilson, Carolyn Jane
 Wilson, Lucile
 Walff, Albert William Warden, Fred
 Worgum, Margery
 Wyrick, Vera Louise
 Vagerlehner, Glenn Douglas Yant, Fred Ralph
 Vergens, Helen Louise Young, Donald Zehner, Connabelle Ruby
 Zeller, Evangeline Ann
 Zeinimer, George Henry
 Zollinger, Harold Gallmeier, Richard Cahow, Lena
 Rully, Eileen
 Kramer, Estice

Mart, Helen Miller, Evelyn Such, Howard
 Bardt, Kenneth Brinsley, Richard West, Miller
 Bergrian, Kenneth Colter, William
 Fauton, Jack
 Paure, Ruth Ethel
 Bame, Lucille
 Allford, George Albert
 Anglen, Emma Babcock, Jank Weber
 Baker, Ellsworth
 Basse, Kinsford Charles Bastian, John Philip
 Bechtold, Glenn Joseph
 Bender, Earl
 Bender, Myrtle Virginia
 Blanton, Alyce
 Bogenschultz, Laurence Paul
 Bosell, Nornian
 Bouillet, Jean Emile
 Bowman, Dorothy Janie
 Bowman, Arnold Ralph
 Brighton, Mary Theodora
 Broxon, Gerald Lewright
 Brudet, Margaret Louise
 Brushweller, Helen Elmyra
 Brushweller, LeEdda
 Buckles, Eva Dea
 Buckmaster, Kenneth Budcki, Henry
 Buhr, Elsie Bunker, Sarah Viletta
 Burton, May Venma
 Caldwell, Fannie
 Case, Geraldine Marie
 Clark, Hazel Elizabeth
 Callin, Dorothy Mae
 Cook, Marvel
 Cook, Maurice
 Dean, Bertha
 Dessauer, Helen
 Dierick, Mabel Janella
 Dornick, Thaine Richard Druhot, Sherman
 Drummond, Clifford Eagleson, Warran
 Eccabarger, Jeanette
 Eggman, Virgil
 Ellis, Vivian Adelaide
 Espich, Fredrick Earl
 Falk, David Sidney
 Ferguson, Margaret Ruth
 Fernwalt, Glenn
 Fletter, James Roland
 Forsythe, Jean Marie
 Foster, Henry
 Foster, Lee DeCamp
 Goff, Murray Francis Garrison, Elizabeth
 Gerding, Helen Imogene
 Gerig, Chet
 Grane, Herschel
 Grandchamp, Samone
 Grove, James Guyett, Nelson Luther Hobig, Raymond
 Hadley, Edwin Hagadorn, Albert Walter
 Haines, Maurice Edward Hanley, Mildred Lucile
 Harnigh, Russell
 Harnishfeger, Grace Velma
 Hayes, Alberta Nina
 Hennig, Stanley Alvey
 Hewen, Ruth Geneva
 Hibler, LaVern
 Hill, George
 Himmelstein, Morris
 Homsher, Burton
 Horton, Gates

CALDRON

Hursch, Marjorie Fern
Johnson, Virgil
Jones, Porter Edward Judt, Edward Charles
Kaylor, Delbert
Kelly, William
King, Jay Robert
Kridler, Wendell Rhinehart
Kroemer, Dorothy Marie
LaHaise, Mildred
Leslie, Grace Charlotte
Linsky, Glenn
Listenberger, Eugene
McComb, John McCoy, Mary Margaret McCreary, Fred Harry McKinley, Herbert
McMahon, Nora Malinda
Mable, Mary
Malcolm, Russell
Marks, Morris
Masloob, Saleme
Metz, Rhoda LaVon
Miller, John Bruce
Miller, Delbert
Miskell, Joe
Moore, Norma Leah
Muhn, Raymond
Myers, Esther Aline
Myers, Mary Alice

Newcomb, Evelyn Edna
Newhouse, James Harold Nolt, Donald Lee
O'Brien, Myron John
Overmeyer, Raymond
Parquette, LaVern
Paternell, Frank Pete
Phillips, Susan Bethel
Poorman, Howard
Porter, Ruth Ellen Pouletsos, Nicholas
Pritchard, Paul
Prosmine, Virginia Jane Ramp, Harold Edward Ranney, George Charles Reed, Emerson
Reuter, Richard
Richards, Charles Richard, Fawn
Riley, John William
Robbins, Charles Maxwell
Robinson, John Howard
Rockhill, Billy Rurode
Roland, Elizabeth
Sams, Norman
Schearer, Helen Mary
Schaster, Norman William Schosser, George
Schwise, Chester
Sebring, Marjorie

Smith, Arthur
Smith, Edward Robert
Smith, Wilson Culver
Smith, William Zerith
Stephan, Ernest Ervin
Stewart, Mary Stockman, Robert Arthur
Stout, Wilbur
Sutton, Mary Elizabeth
Tannehill, Catherine Alice Timmis, Hazel Mae
Traxler, James Kayser
Turner, Lyle
Van Arnam, Betty Louise
Vincenski, Peter
Watson, Lillian Weil, Jack
Wells, Rondle
West, Carl Elwood
Willette, Clariss Betty
Williams, Ervin Edward Woebbeking, Lillian Woodruff, William David
Woods, Louise Martha Wright, Merceda
Zahn, Perry
Harden, Ramona
House, Charles Raymond
Harper, Helen Neuhaus, Helen

Freshman Class Honor Roll

First Six Weeks:

Aumann, Mildred Anna
Beuter, William
Burhop, Ruth Ada
Chambers, Mary
Dume, William
Fischer, Carl
Harris, Mary
Hawkins, Marjorie Hayden, Jean
King, Gladys
Lehman, Carl
McCague, Dorothy
McMaken, Dorothy
Paul, Elmer
Poole, Charles School, Elsie

Second Six Weeks:

Aumann, Mildred Anna
Beberstein, Helen Ruth
Burhop, Ruth Ada
Chambers, Mary Elizabeth
Cook, Ruth Adrienne
Dalton, Audra
Dunn, William Frederick
Gassafy, Anna Flora
Hawkins, Marjorie Amanda

Harris, Mary Hillis
Hayden, Jean
Jacobs, Carl Edwin
Lehman, Carl Fred
Mann, Philip Newton
McCague, Dorothy Ellen
Meyer, Dorothy
Reynolds, Fred James
School, Elsie Louise
Storr, Loretta Bradway
Stoppenhagen, Walter J.
Warner, Welcome O.
Weaver, Richard Porter
Yagerlehner, Glenn Douglas

Semester:

Aumann, Mildred Anna
Beberstein, Helen Burhop, Ruth Ada
Chambers, Mary
DeSpain, Florence
Dunn, William Gassafy, Anna
Harris, Mary
Hawkins, Marjorie Amanda
Hayden, Jean
Jacobs, Carl
Lehman, Carl

Phillips, Marie
McCague, Dorothy
McMaken, Dorothy
Meyer, Dorothy
School, Elsie
Soniers, Paul
Storr, Loretta
Weaver, Richard
Yagerlehner, Glenn

First Six Weeks,

Second Semester:

Aumann, Mildred Anna
Bacon, Genevieve
Burhop, Ruth Ada
Chambers, Mary
Cook, Ruth
DeSpain, Florence
Kalgres, Verlin
Anglin, Emma
Harris, Mary Hillis
Jacobs, Carl
Moore, Phillip
Meyer, Dorothy
Storr, Loretta
Weaver, Richard Porter
Yagerlehner, Glenn
Dessauer, Helen

Football

THE Central tiger seems to have found itself. For three years it has struggled and the 1925 gridiron season was the time during which the hopes of the Blue and White were realized in full. The 1925 squad showed its real mettle and did not disappoint its followers. The team played sensational games, scoring little in the opening periods and then snapping out of it before the finish.

On the following pages is assembled the greatest grid squad which Central has ever produced. Some will graduate, play the college games, and far outshadow Grange, while those remaining will form the backbone of the team which will contend for the city championship again next season.

MARK BILLS

MARK BILLS came to Central High School two years ago as football and baseball coach. His time at Central has been well spent in that he has coached winning teams. The Blue and White gridders have won more games since his coming than they ever did before. He revived baseball and during the first season the Tigers had one of the best teams in Indiana, due to his tutelage. Mr. Bills came from Noblesville High School, where his football teams were always regarded as being good opposition. He graduated from DePauw University after a most successful athletic career.

Football Season

CENTRAL. 16; BLUFFTON. 0

In the opening game of the Central football season, the Tigers defeated the Bluffton gridders after a hard battle. Billingsley's field goal was the first Central score. In the second half, Baker and Stiegler made touchdowns, the latter after intercepting a pass and running seventy-five yards. The Tigers showed a good defense throughout the whole game. The second and third teams played very well against Bluffton.

CENTRAL. 12; LAPORTE. 13

A late rally brought victory to the Laporte gridders after the Tigers had outplayed them throughout the entire game. Captain Baker played one of his greatest games. The Laporte line could not stop his off-tackle smashes. Laporte scored its first touchdown in straight football. The second marker came on a long pass over the Central goal line. The Central gridders displayed the best football they have ever played, but several breaks gave the game to their opponents.

BAKER

RAMSEY

JASPER

STIEGLER

CENTRAL, 35; COLUMBIA CITY, 6

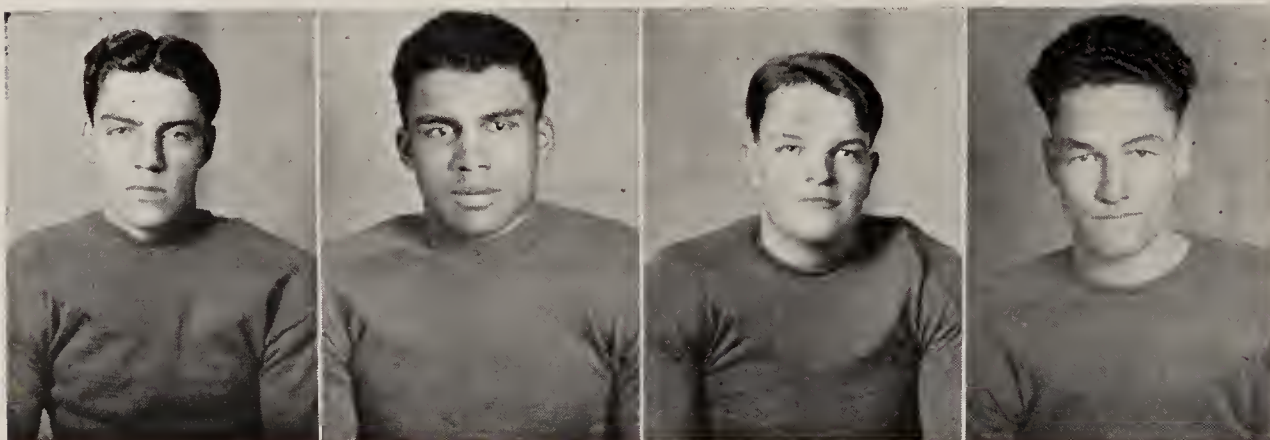

The second Central victory was scored over Columbia City after Central had displayed a wonderful passing game. Columbia City scored on the first play as a result of a trick pass. Central scored a touchdown on straight football and the score was tied at six-all at the end of the half. In the second period, the Blue opened up with a passing attack, with Baker receiving most of them.

CENTRAL, 31; DECATUR, 8

Central won an uninteresting game from Decatur. The second team played about half of the game and turned in a creditable performance against the Decatur gridders. Captain Baker and Billingsley did the scoring for the Blue and White.

CENTRAL, 17; PORTLAND, 7

The Tigers journeyed to Portland. There they had a hard battle with the home gridders. Portland had a good line-plunger in Stone and they scored early in the first quarter. At the end of the second half, Billingsley drop-kicked for Central's first score. In the second half the Tigers displayed a brilliant offense which completely bewildered Portland. Both Central touchdowns came after fifty-yard runs by "Jim" Baker.

HOCKEMEYER

CASEY

COOK

BILLINGSLEY

CENTRAL, 25; AUBURN, 6

The Auburn game was played in a sea of mud at the stadium. The Central gridders had an easy time in disposing of the Auburn team. Auburn had a weak offense, but scored on a long pass. The Central aerial attack gained most of the ground.

CENTRAL, 13; ELKHART, 31

Central's big game of the season was with Elkhart, the state champions. The upstate gridders surely could play football. As usual the Blue and White passing game was the best displayed. Jasper was the big star of the game. He made Central's touchdown and starred on offensive and defensive line play. The Elkhart line and backfield were big and fast, having no great trouble in overcoming the Tigers, who, nevertheless, played a wonderful game.

CENTRAL, 7; SOUTH BEND, 25

On the muddiest field of the year, and with a cold, driving rain throughout the whole game, the heavy South Bend team defeated the Tiger gridders. Fumbles were very frequent and the opposition turned them into touchdowns. This was to have been the first Alumni day at Central, but the rain spoiled the whole affair.

BOND

BAYER

WILLIAMS

WEIMER

GRIDIRON

CENTRAL, 7; SOUTH SIDE, 6

Fourth down and eight yards to gain! Three minutes of playing time remain! A Blue end snatches the ball out of the air and is stopped on the three-yard line. A halfback smashes off tackle for a yard gain. A Green-clad line is rolled back by the charge of a Blue-clad line, and the fullback crosses the goal line between the posts without being tackled. The score is tied at six-all, and the rival elevens line-up in front of the uprights, the one to win a game, a terrific battle, a city championship, to crown a successful season with a great triumph; the other, to stave off defeat, to keep the score even, and go off the field with equal glory. But the desire for victory is stronger than a wish to even the score, and the Blue line holds the Green line in perfect check while a small halfback's toe supplies the margin of victory.

Central had won its first city gridiron title from South Side by a seven-to-six score. The credit and praise of such an impressive victory belong to Coach Mark Bills of Central High School. All of Central thank him for his excellent work in Central's initial victory over South Side.

WORTON

LANG

BRITTON, Manager

CAPTAIN JAMES D. BAKER

THERE is no doubt as to whether Captain Baker is Central's greatest backfield player and perhaps its greatest athlete. Nearly every gridiron battle and hardwood contest were triumphs for the Tiger captain. His senior year has been a blaze of glory second only to that of the Central Tiger, whose fame Baker has so much abetted. On the gridiron the Blue and White reached its pinnacle under his able leadership. He is a halfback who carries the ball, passes, punts, blocks and tackles with equal skill. He was Central's most dependable ball carrier, and, when called upon in the pinches, Baker was sure to gain the needed yardage. On the basketball court, Baker was equaled by few. The Central running guard failed to meet his superior during the three years he performed on the Blue five. He will long be remembered by Centralites who are interested in Central's fame in athletics.

Football Squad

Bottom Row: Hire, Billingsley, McConnell, Hockemeyer, Jasper, Ramsey, Baker (captain), Bodine, Overmeyer, Meek, Dunton, W. Johnson, Link.

Middle Row: Zink, Weber, Bond, Stephen, Koenig, Heathman, Ryder, Shearer, Mills, Klepper, Cook.

Top Row: Britton, Roy, Mendenhall (coach), Weimer, Worton, Casey, Stiegler, Lott, White, Krudop, Boyer, Williams, R. Johnson, Gruber, Lange, Houck, Sieling, D. Johnson, Bills (coach).

1926 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Sept. 18—Open.
 Sept. 25—Laporte, there.
 Oct. 1—Bluffton, here.
 Oct. 9—Open.
 Oct. 16—Decatur, there.
 Oct. 23—Portland, here.
 Oct. 30—Elkhart, there.
 Nov. 6—South Bend, here.
 Nov. 13—Richmond, there.
 Nov. 20—South Side, here.

Basketball

CENTRAL found herself not only in football but also in basketball during the past season. The season started off with a bang. Dope buckets were upset and new laurels were won. Central did more during the last season than any other Fort Wayne school has ever done. She won the city championship and then followed through the sectional and regional tournaments to Indianapolis. There she won her first game and lost the second to Marion, who won the State Championship. Herein are presented the Fighting Tigers who made Central's name in basketball greater than ever before.

MURRAY MENDENHALL

MURRAY MENDENHALL was well known to Fort Wayne long before he came to Central High School as a basketball and track coach. He was said to be one of the best basketball players in the vicinity. He surely demonstrated all the basketball he knew by the wonderful team which he developed during his first year in Central as a coach. His work with the Blue cinder artists is a proof that he is a good track coach. He is a graduate of DePauw.

Basketball Season

THE Central Tigers opened the season with three consecutive victories over Warsaw, Huntington, and Decatur. The Muncie Bearcats downed the Blue after a hard battle. The Tigers obtained revenge for former defeats by great victories over Froebel and Milford. Angola also fell before the Central five. Then the Tigers fell into the worst slump of the season. A long trip to Washington proved disastrous. South Side earned a victory over the Blue in an overtime battle by a 37-35 score. Rochester dropped the Tigers in a hard battle. Bluffton was an easy opponent, but North Manchester upset the Central quintet. The Tigers again hit their stride and conquered the strong Auburn and Kendallville aggregations in impressive victories. In the second Central-South Side fray, the Tigers rose to the heights to give the Green a 38-24 defeat. The Blue five defeated Wiley, of Terre Haute, but lost to Warren. Wins over Monticello and Wabash completed the regular schedule.

DIEHL

JASPER

BAKER

SCOTT

The Tigers blazed a trail of glory through the sectional tournament. Woodburn and New Haven were easily beaten. Central and South Side met in a semi-final game on which very many things depended. The Green played great basketball, but were outclassed in every department of the game. Harlan was downed by a lop-sided score in the final game.

Berne came to the regional tourney with twenty-one victories and no defeats. The first seven minutes of play showed that Berne had a one-point advantage. The Tigers ran wild to make the final score 38-17. Bluffton was the opponent of Central in the evening game and a great battle ensued. The count see-sawed back and forth, but the Blue and White came through in the last few minutes to win, the first Central team to win its way to the final tournament.

The first Tiger five to play in the State Finals was a credit to itself and Central High School. Franklin was expected by many to defeat the Blue. The Johnson county team took an early lead, forcing the Tigers to play an uphill game all the way. A great rally in the second period brought the well-deserved victory. The brilliant offensive play of Jasper and Baker gained recognition of the scribes, and Ramsey performed well at backguard. Against the Marion Giants, the Tigers opposed too formidable a team, but the Blue quintet was great in defeat. Baker, Ramsey, and Scott played good ball in this game.

NOTE: Robert Manth, whose picture does not appear, was also awarded a letter.

STIEGLER

MORRILL

RAMSEY

TROYER

CAPTAIN MILTON DIEHL

IN his junior year Captain Diehl played some wonderful basketball. He was fast, clever, and could hit the basket. He started the next season with a rush and was slated to be one of the best forwards in the game, when unfortunately he broke his ankle in practice. He was unable to play for about twelve games, and, when he returned, showed to all that he could take the ball down the floor and cage it with a great deal of his former skill and speed. The Tiger captain finished the season and performed well in the Central-Franklin game, his excellent play aiding much in the victory for the Blue. Captain Diehl was the favorite of many Centralites as he played on Central basketball teams during four years of his high school career. It was fitting that a well-liked player and excellent athlete was selected to lead the Tigers through the very successful 1925-26 season.

Basketball Squad

Bottom Row: Stiegler, Baker, Ramsey, Diehl, Morrill, Marshall, Scott.

Middle Row: Dornte, Hammond, Hire, Troyer, Bayer, Billingsley.

Top Row: Link, Britton (manager), Heit, Mendenhall (coach), Bash.

1926-27 BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Dec. 4—Rochester, here.

Dec. 10—Muncie, there.

Dec. 11—Decatur, here.

Dec. 17—Froebel of Gary, here.

Dec. 18—Mishawaka, there.

Jan. 7—North Side of Fort Wayne, here.

Jan. 8—Huntington, here.

Jan. 14—Angola, here.

Jan. 15—Washington, here (pending).

Jan. 18—South Side of Fort Wayne, here.

Jan. 22—Bluffton, there.

Jan. 28—Harford City, here.

Jan. 29—North Manchester, there.

Feb. 4—Auburn, here.

Feb. 5—Kendallville, there.

Feb. 11—South Side of Fort Wayne, here.

Feb. 18—Warsaw, there.

Feb. 19—Warren, here.

Feb. 25—Monticello, here.

Other Sports

OTHER sports does not mean minor sports. In other sports are classed track, baseball, and tennis. Track is as much a major sport at Central as football. Every spring a host of lads turn out for practice. The same things can be said for baseball. The tennis teams are picked after tournaments have been held. Without these sports our athletics would be incomplete.

Track Squad

Bottom Row: Roy, Hire, Krudop, Overmeyer, Loetz, E. Felger, Kepler, Shubert, Johnson, C. Meek, Altschul, Meyers, Heaton.

Middle Row: Lange, Marshall, Bond, Buck, R. Meek, Doughman, Hartquist, Langford, Meeker, Mleko, Dailey.

Top Row: Mendenhall (coach), Diehl, Ballou, Glock, Weimer, Casey, Tonkel, Robinson.

1925 TRACK RECORD

City-wide Track and Field Meet: Central, 31 points; Pennsylvania, 28 points; South Side, 24 points.

Quadrangular Meet: Portland, 49 1/2 points; Central, 37 1/2 points; Decatur, 15 1/2 points; Auburn, 14 1/2 points.

Dual Meet: Central, 71 points; Garrett, 28 points.

Triangular Meet: Central, 49 points; South Side, 46 points; Huntington, 4 points.

Dual Meet: Columbia City, 63 points; Central, 36 points.

Central won sectional meet with 37 1/3 points.

Lamont won the half-mile run at the State Track and Field Meet, giving Central 5 points.

1926 TRACK SCHEDULE

April 27—South Side, here.

May 1—Goshen Relays.

May 8—Portland, here.

May 15—Sectional Track Meet, here.

Baseball Squad

Bottom Row: Siples, Billingsley, Baker, Bayer, Scott, Troyer.

Middle Row: Stiegler, Quance, Houck, Manth, Jasper, Brockall.

Top Row: Ridley, Britton (manager), Bills (coach), Ramsev (captain).

1925 BASEBALL SEASON

Central, 12: Wolf Lake, 1.
 Central, 25: Huntertown, 1.
 Central, 8: Howe Military Academy, 2.
 Central, 10: Auburn, 0.
 Central, 1: Bluffton, 4.
 Central, 5: Huntington, 3.
 Central, 11: South Side, 13.
 Central, 10: Garrett, 4.
 Central, 11: Huntington, 10.
 Central, 25: Decatur, 1.
 Central, 3: Bluffton, 5.
 Central, 6: South Side, 19.

1926 BASEBALL SCHEDULE

April 16—Decatur, there.
 April 23—Garrett, here.
 April 24—Huntington, there.
 April 30—Goshen, here.
 May 1—Decatur, here.
 May 5—South Side, here.

May 7—Garrett, there.
 May 8—Bluffton, here.
 May 14—Auburn, here.
 May 19—South Side, here.
 May 26—Bluffton, there.

Boys' Tennis

Last year Central had a tennis team as usual. It was composed of Howard Buck, Ralph Popp, and John and Richard Shoaff, with Howard Buck as captain. They defeated Howe in the first meet at Howe, even though the tennis courts were very poor. Following this meet came some matches with Bluffton and Marion. Bluffton was easily defeated, but the team lost to Marion after a hard battle.

In the final matches of the season Central met South Side. After two very close and exciting matches had been played, South Side won the city championship and the cup for one year. That made the standing for the cup equal, as Central had won it the year before.

As this article is being written, no matches have been played yet this year. Nevertheless, some have been scheduled and more will be. There will probably be about seven or eight matches played, although on account of her suspension South Side cannot be met. All of last year's team has graduated except Richard Shoaff, but there is some promising material in school, and Central ought to have a good team this year. The team expects to win at least a good majority of its meets.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team in a quiet and unpretentious way has been doing some fine work in the past year. It has not received much publicity, but nevertheless has been of credit to the name of Central.

In a contest with Bluffton last year they won all of the games. The tournament was held at the Fort Wayne Country Club and Evelyn Jacobs and Lucile Bonham won the doubles and Dorothy Miller and Alice Yarnelle each won two out of three sets in their singles matches.

The Bluffton girls in their turn played Central's team at Bluffton and were again defeated. The same girls contested, only they opposed different players.

Central's team was also entertained at Marion, where very thrilling matches were played. Dorothy Miller played a good, steady game and after a long contest defeated her opponent. Evelyn Jacobs and Lucile Bonham continued their good work and won their match. Alice Yarnelle won hers, too.

The girls were very well treated both at Bluffton and Marion and received support from some loyal Centralites who offered their cars and themselves as chauffeurs to take them to their games. The out-of-town girls showed themselves to be good losers and the girls at Marion were particularly friendly and entertained the girls in their own homes.

A word or two must be said as to the merits of these players. Dorothy Miller is a very brilliant player with a wonderful stroke and an exceptionally good backhand. Evelyn Jacobs is a dependable player, working with all her might for each play and not letting a point go by carelessly, and very conscientious. Lucile Bonham, as Evelyn's partner in doubles, proved her right to be on the team with her close net play. Alice Yarnelle was not up to form last year, although she won her games.

Girls' Athletics

THE girls, not to be outdone by the boys, have accomplished many things. They have done much that they can well be proud of. Early in the year they began by playing soccer. Then as the basketball season progressed, they specialized in this sport. They held tournaments and contests. Too much praise cannot be given them for this athletic attitude.

MISS HILDA SCHWEHN

MISS HILDA SCHWEHN, by whom every Centralite has in some way been benefited, was formerly one of Central's students. After graduating from Central she entered the Battle Creek Physical Training School. She finished her two-year course there and immediately registered in Olivet College. While attending Olivet Miss Schwehn taught German and Physical Training, and after two years received her A. B. degree. Upon returning to Fort Wayne, Miss Schwehn took Miss Martha Carr's position as Physical Instructor in Central High School and so again became a staunch Centralite.

Miss Schwehn has a pleasing personality and has made gymnasium work much pleasanter for the girls. She is an able coach of basketball, baseball, and all other sports. Besides working for Central, Miss Schwehn is also working in city athletics. She is now a member of the athletic board of the Y. W. C. A. and her ability is greatly appreciated in this line of work.

Girls' Varsity Basketball Team

Bottom Row: Long, Miller, Pratt (captain), Phipps, Scoles.

Middle Row: Williams, Roberts, Fletcher, Stemen.

Top Row: Davis, Bradtmiller, Smith, Michaels.

Girls' Athletics

Miss Schwehn has been with Central three years and this small person, full of pep and vim, has done a great amount of work for Central, and both the school and girls have been greatly benefited by her presence in this short time.

Shortly after Miss Schwehn's arrival the baseball and basketball class tournaments were begun and have been held each year for three successive years. This year the basketball tournament was held during the months of January and February. The annual struggle is between seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen. This year an incentive to strive harder was given the girls, for, besides the honor of winning the tournament, Mr. Robert Koerber presented to the school a beautiful silver cup. The class numerals of every class winning the tournament are to be engraved upon it. The lucky juniors were the first to have their numerals, "1927" engraved upon the cup by reason of their defeating the unfortunate seniors by one point, 14-13.

Girls' Class Basketball Champions

First Row: Maas, Phipps, Pratt (captain), Winter.

Second Row: Scoles, Harnish, Michaels.

The baseball tournament extended over a period of a month. The clash in baseball was not, as in basketball, between the four classes, but between the different gymnasium classes. The games were held outdoors and each class did its best to win. These tournaments give the girls a great deal of pleasure, create good sportsmanship, and from the class teams the basketball and baseball varsity teams are chosen.

The basketball varsity was made up of a peppy group of girls composed of five seniors, four juniors, and four sophomores. The great amount of time and work the girls gave to basketball was shown by their vigorous and accurate floor work. Two games were played with South Side and in these games Central's "Fighting Spirit" was certainly portrayed by the girls. The game played on the home floor was one of the most exciting and well matched games played during the year. The game played at South Side was equally exciting, but the girls had hard luck and were at a decided disadvantage playing on the large floor. Central lost five excellent basketball players when the girls graduated in June, but the girls left behind will take their places and work as hard for Central as these girls have done. They are eagerly waiting for the arrival of the next basketball season, hoping to make it more successful than the last.

Central Girls' Athletic Association

Perhaps one of the most outstanding events of the year was the organization of the Central Girls' Athletic Association. This club could by no means be omitted as it becomes increasingly important. It builds the girls in body and mind and provides them with a real incentive in their work. Every girl has an equal opportunity provided by the point system. Awards were given the girls according to the number of their points. The awards are well worth striving for as the girls all know. For the girl who does not like basketball or baseball there is always some other interesting sport by which she can earn her points. This organization has had some splendid hikes on which the girls all enjoyed themselves.

The C. G. A. A. banquet, held April 29, was a decided success. It was an all-sports banquet and at this time the letters and numerals were given. The gymnasium was attractively decorated and this banquet alone showed the great progress and success of the Central Girls' Athletic Association.

Tennis was one of the main features of the year. The girls' tennis team was an excellent one with an enviable record of winnings. Many out-of-town games were played and the girls were extremely successful in these. The home games were immensely exciting and just as successful. Graduation again took some excellent players from tennis.

Along with tennis came volley ball and soccer. These two sports, although not as popular as tennis or baseball, were very popular. Central had excellent new material in the freshmen who entered, as many of them were very good volley ball and soccer players.

Athletics have progressed greatly in Central the past year. This has been due to the splendid co-operation of the girls and their coach, Miss Hilda Schwehn.

KEPLER

Cairo! Cairo! Cairo! Cuss!
Egypt, I gypt, they gypt us.
Razzle, Dazzle, Ziss. Boom!
We put the stuff in King Tut's tomb.
Dig 'em up, Central!

No. 1—Hey!

That's what.

That's what they all say.

No. 2—What?

What's what?

What do they all say?

Zickety boom—rah, rah!
Zickety boom—rah, rah!
Hoorah, hoorah—Central High School,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
And a weewo—and a wiwo.
And a weewo, wiwo, wum!
Go get a rat trap bigger than a cat trap
Go get a cat trap bigger than a rat trap.
Cannibal, Cannibal, zis, boom, bah!
Central High School,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
C-E-N-T-R-A-L, Central!

SCHWARTZ

DRAYER

Give 'em the blue, the blue, the blue,
Give 'em the white, the white, the white,
Give 'em the blue, the white, the blue, the white,
Yea, Central, fight!

ACTIVITIES

School Clubs

CENTRAL boasts of many fine clubs. Along with the associations in the classroom come many social activities after school hours. Almost every department has its club. These clubs have varied activities. Some have meetings at which a generally good time is had by all. Others tend toward the more serious and through their discussions and activities to boost our school. All of the clubs create a more friendly spirit and join us more closely to our school.

Boosters' Club

OFFICERS

SOL SCHWARTZ	-	-	-	-	-	-	Chairman First Semester
WAYNE KEPLER	-	-	-	-	-	-	Chairman Second Semester
HAZEL HAWKINS	-	-	-	-	-	-	Faculty Adviser

CHEERLEADERS

SOL SCHWARTZ

WAYNE KEPLER

PARK PRAYER

JOHN HABECKER

GEORGE BOND

The Boosters' Club

The purpose of the Boosters' Club is, as its name signifies, to boost everything worth while that is fostered by Central. This year they have conceived and carried out a number of worthy innovations.

Early in the football season the club with the co-operation of the public speaking classes, sent Central and South Side boys to all the men's clubs of the city to present two very definite ideals in high school athletics: namely, to make high school sports a civic asset, and to build an all-year program of sports by making one sport as popular as another. Incidentally, several students received practical training in public speaking. The noticeably increased interest that was taken in our games is partly the result of this campaign.

For the first time in the history of Central an Alumni Day was launched through the plans and efforts of the Boosters' Club. Special features, the game with South Bend being the big event, were the publication of Alumni Day booklets and Alumni dance in the evening in our own gymnasium. The enthusiasm and hilarity, and the cheers for old Central, gave promise of a continuation of Alumni events.

A Christmas party to all letter men, including the present basketball squad, and their friends, marked the beginning of another splendid movement, that of giving some small social reward to the boys who give much to Central. Two more similar events were scheduled to follow.

A large part of the ticket sales for all athletic events is carried on through Boosters—Madeline Cromwell and Clarence Buck being the champion salesmen.

Through their stunts the Boosters are best known. At the Central-South Side football game they sent up two beautiful pennant parachutes. An annual stunt, snappy and popular with the crowd, is the reunion of yell leaders at one of the South Side-Central basketball games.

Although there is nothing spectacular in issuing score sheets free, the Boosters have given real service in that way to over thousands of fans, not only to our own, but to South Side's also. Score sheets for the South Side-Central football game and Who's Who in South Side-Central basketball folders for the first basketball game were issued to the fans of both schools. Yell sheets were issued to all our fans at the Milford game. Another service is a committee of Boosters which meets every visiting team, and another of their customs is that of displaying the colors of all our opponents. And the trail of activities leads on through pep sessions, girls' interclass games, rooters' corps, baseball, and track events.

The Boosters' Club, under the direction of the club adviser, handled efficiently the sale of "Mikado" tickets for the students. This system avoided confusion, and was responsible, to a great extent, for the financial success of the production.

They also handled the decorations at the sectional tournament. Here again the originality and good judgment of the members of the club were greatly evidenced. Their ideas which give us so much pride in our school are really the result of hours of patient work. One of the most spectacular displays was that of little dolls dressed in blue and white and green and white seeing the Central team fulfilling its motto, "On to Indianapolis."

All of the many things that the Boosters do for Central are made possible by the co-operation of the administration and chiefly by the backing of Miss Hawkins, the club's faculty adviser. Each member of the club is chosen from another school organization or club and in this way plenty of the pep and loyalty that Boosters stand for may be brought into the club.

Brush and Pencil Club

OFFICERS

FIRST AND SECOND SEMESTERS

President	Clara Busse
Vice-President	Elizabeth Valentine
Secretary-Treasurer	Bonnie Walker
Faculty Adviser	Miss Anna Newman

Brush and Pencil Club

The Art Department has organized a new club this year which is known by the name of the "Brush and Pencil Club." For some time an art club has been desired in Central, but the organizing did not come into effect until September, 1925. The club holds its meetings the second Monday of each month. Miss Newman, of the Art Department, is the very capable adviser who has helped organize and make the club a success. A pin has been designed in the shape of a palette with brushes and pencils drawn through it. This is to be made the standard emblem of the club for all future time.

The object of the Brush and Pencil Club is "to create a finer appreciation and broader knowledge of Art, which will result in increased enjoyment in the truth and beauty of living." To further this enjoyment many very interesting talks and illustrations have been given. Miss Sinclair spoke at one of the meetings about "past impressionists." Miss Newman at another time spoke on "The Beauty of Egyptian Art." At another time Mr. Knight gave a very interesting talk on "Wrought Iron." In imagination, the club planned a trip to Italy and at each meeting the members studied about a museum, or a painting, or some work of the famous artists of Italy. Miss Hall gave an interesting talk on Italy. Sketching parties were enjoyed by the members where each one tried his skill at out-of-doors sketching.

Some people express Art as "beauty," some as "truth," and still others as "harmony," but whichever it is, life seems to hold more for the person who can see and appreciate its beauties. The Brush and Pencil Club desires to create a feeling among its members that Art is a real and vital thing, and that a sense of beauty is as necessary to the good citizen as a sense of morality.

Early in March the club held a very interesting meeting, at which the members of the South Side Palette Club were guests. A very enjoyable talk was given by Mrs. Lane on the arts and crafts of the countries that she visited in Europe last year. Mrs. Lane told how all the countries wanted the tourists to see their picture galleries and their craftwork, in order that they might receive a better knowledge and appreciation of their culture. Mrs. Lane also had an unusual variety of beautiful embroidery, weaving, and handmade lace from different countries, and some reproductions in color of paintings by the old masters to show the girls. A number of photographs of beautiful doorways and Gothic interiors were shown also and were fully appreciated by the girls. This joint meeting of the two clubs was the first of its kind ever attempted and was most successful. The members are looking forward to many more.

The club has also staged several very successful candy sales and was very active in making posters for different plays which were given during the year.

Early in the spring the Home Economics Club invited the Art Club to attend one of their meetings. At this time Esther David gave the clubs a talk on the subject of imported laces, scarfs, and rugs. Esther told the girls how to tell the difference between the real imported goods and the false goods. Both clubs agreed that the meeting had been an enjoyable one and enthusiastically clamored for another. After observing all these activities, we are all agreed that the day that saw the organizing of the Art Club was indeed a memorable one.

Friendship Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Ruth Schneider
Vice-President	Margaret Roberts
Secretary	Matilda Aumann
Treasurer	Maxine Wyatt

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Blanche Lonergan
Vice-President	Miriam Quinn
Secretary	Charlotte Stier
Treasurer	Catherine Alter

FACULTY ADVISERS

Miss E. M. McKinnie Miss M. Ingham Miss V. Sites

Friendship Club

Headed by Ruth Schneider, president the first semester, and Blanche Lonergan, president the second semester, the Friendship Club has completed a very successful year.

In 1913 and 1914 there was a girls' Bible class organized and taught by Miss Mary Harrah. In 1914 another club was organized, called the Shadow Club. This was directed by Miss Haust. Girls in the Bible class belonged to the Shadow Club also. In September, 1915, Miss Harrah organized the Freshman club—Do Shai Kai. This was composed of the girls of the class of 1920 only. Miss Wingert, formerly dean of girls at Central, organized the Common Wheel Club (limited to twenty-five members) in this year. These clubs continued until the following year (1916), when through the efforts of Miss Harrah the clubs were combined and a Y. W. C. A. girls' secretary was brought to Fort Wayne. The combined clubs were called what is now so well known as the Friendship Club. Thus the club got its start in Central.

The program for the first semester had "The Quest" as its subject. In this way the girls learned many things on their questing adventures. One of the most interesting meetings was the "Romany Quest," at which time the girls all turned into gypsies and went treasure seeking.

The foremost social event of the first semester was the co-ed party. Some of the girls dressed as boys and escorted their chums to the affair. This was one of the social successes in the long list of Friendship Club accomplishments.

The second semester the program was named "The House of Light." The meetings were all very much enjoyed and especially the one put on by the Alumni called "Candles at the Window." The joint meetings with So-Si-Y always are successful and "Lift up the Latch" was no exception.

The social event the second semester was a genuine girl and boy party. Everyone had a wonderful time, enjoying dancing, bunco, and good eats.

However, the girls did other things besides planning the social events of the year. The service committee was busy planning ways for the club to do service work.

Thanksgiving, the girls filled baskets and distributed them among the poor people of the city. Each girl of the club volunteered to bring some article to be put in the baskets. These were taken to the families by the service chairman and committee the day before Thanksgiving. At Christmas time more baskets were distributed and sent to the poor. A Christmas party was also given for the poor little "kiddies."

These things and many others were carried out by the committees and much credit should be given to them and their chairmen for the success of the year. The publicity and membership committees were also active. The former did much to inform the girls of the meetings and to get them to attend. The membership committee increased the roll and worked untiringly.

These things and the co-operation of the girls in all activities helped to make this year such a successful one for the Friendship Club. The club has truly lived up to its name, for the girls have completed a full year of friendship and service to others.

Hi-Y Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Robert Bradtmiller
Secretary	Howard Kayser
Treasurer	Tom Popp

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Page Robinson
Vice-President	John White
Secretary	Dean Cutshall
Treasurer	Edward Miller
Faculty Adviser	Fred H. Croninger
Y. M. C. A. Adviser	Stanley G. Hamilton

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club is an organization of junior and senior boys of Central High School, sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. During the past seven years it has steadily improved until today it is one of the best clubs in the school. The members have as their ideal the purpose, "to create and maintain throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The members have been faithfully working toward this goal and have been very successful.

The Hi-Y Club started the year by holding a two-day Setting-Up Conference at the "Y" camp. Here an interesting program for the year was arranged.

Led by Robert Bradtmiller, president, Howard Kayser, secretary, and Tom Popp, treasurer, the club began its activities with determination to make every dinner meeting a success, and on looking back it can be said that this was ably accomplished.

Meetings are held every Thursday evening in the "Y" club rooms. After the dinner the regular business is carried on, followed by a discussion, a special speaker, or some social function. This year, as a headliner, Mr. Ward spoke at the opening banquet. This meeting was followed by a lively discussion of school problems. Later on they were very fortunate in securing Mr. Sam Jackson to speak at a meeting.

One of the most important events was a Father and Son Banquet. This always brings the fathers closer to their sons and is an incentive for a keener interest in their activities.

During Thanksgiving vacation, a delegation from the Fort Wayne Clubs was sent to the Older Boys' Conference at Anderson. The boys returned full of ideas formulated from the activities of the other Hi-Y Clubs of the state.

At another meeting a discussion on fraternities in high schools brought out many interesting and complete ideas.

One of the high spots of the year was the reunion of all old Hi-Y'ers at the Alumni meeting during Christmas vacation. It was voted as the best ever held. Mr. Croninger led a discussion on the choice of a college, in an attempt to help those who were undecided as to which college they should attend. The program closed with an inspiring address by Mr. Chapman, State Boys' Work secretary.

The boys may well be proud of their splendid efforts to further the club and of their earnest efforts toward attaining their ideals.

Home Economics Club

OFFICERS

FIRST AND SECOND SEMESTERS

President	Eleanor Weller
Vice-President	Edith Dean
Secretary	Alice Tigges
Treasurer	Marguerite Buesching

FACULTY ADVISERS

Miss Laurinda DeVilbiss
Miss Amy Barnes

Miss Martha Beierlein
Miss Agnes Pate

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is a new club which has been organized in Central this past year. For some time the teachers and students of the Economics Department have considered such a club, thinking it would greatly benefit the girls who are taking this course. Invitations were then issued to all girls who had taken one year of this work or were completing their 9A work. A splendid response resulted as more than fifty prospective members turned out. Various temporary committees were appointed—nominating, constitution, and program.

Shortly afterwards a second meeting was held. At this meeting the officers were elected and the constitution was sanctioned. It was arranged to have the meetings the first Monday of every month. Various committees were chosen, among which were: Program, Social, Publicity, Welfare, Activities, and Ways and Means.

The programs throughout the year have been both interesting and educational. Sometimes a musical program was held and other times an outside speaker led some interesting discussion on topics which were of unusual interest to the members.

An especially interesting talk was given by a nurse from the Lutheran Hospital whose subject was "The Care of the Infant."

During the second semester Dr. L. P. Drayer spoke on the "Feeding of the Infant."

The Ways and Means committee, composed of Mildred Reed, Saidie May Woods, Gertrude Schroeder, Virginia Kaylor, and Norma Johnson, have been especially active. At different times they have had charge of the stuffed date sales and the famous chocoric sales, half of the proceeds going to the Spotlight and the other half to the club. These sales were promoted with the idea of benefiting the students by inducing them to buy sweets other than candy. The sales have indeed been most successful and the school wishes them even better success in the future.

Shortly before Christmas the club filled stockings for the Veterans' Hospital of Indianapolis. The donations of shaving cream, soap, Christmas favors, and candy were made by the members of the club.

The advisers, the Misses DeVilbiss, Barnes, Pate, Beierlein, and Mrs. Edson, have entered heart and soul into the interest of the club.

In the spring the members enjoyed a big banquet. It was such a success that the girls decided to make it an annual affair.

A very unusual and original idea was worked out by the members this year. They arranged to have a small space in every issue of the Spotlight which they would fill each time. Sometimes it would be filled with advice on health, sometimes with advice on character building, and sometimes with just a jolly little poem. At any rate it was appreciated by all and served the purpose of keeping the fact fresh in our minds that there was a very much alive club in our midst.

The colors chosen by the members as their club colors were black and gold.

The club hopes to extend its interests every year until it is benefiting in some way every girl and boy in the school.

With an ideal like that we feel that this club, although still in its infancy, cannot help but become a marked success in the future. We are all back of you, girls!

Junior Hi-Y Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	John McMeen
Vice-President	Winston Koehlinger
Secretary	Clayton Dunton
Treasurer	Edward Bender

SECOND SEMESTER

President	John McMeen
Vice-President	Charles Weirich
Secretary	Edward Bender
Treasurer	Lee Foster
Faculty Adviser	Charles E. Dickinson
Y. M. C. A. Adviser	Warren Locker

Junior Hi-Y Club

The Junior Hi-Y Club is a club for all freshman and sophomore boys of Central and South Side. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character among its members. The club motto is "clean speech, clean sports, clean habits."

The club holds its meetings every Wednesday at six o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. club rooms. The meeting consists of a half hour supper period, followed by an interesting musical program or a speaker, after which each school group meets in separate club rooms for a short discussion.

The year started out with the election of a very lively and peppy bunch of officers. Those elected were: John McMeen, president; Winston Koehlinger, vice-president; Clayton Dunton, secretary; and Edward Bender, treasurer. Under the leadership of this capable crew the club could not help but be a marked success. The meetings during the past year were graced by many fine and appropriate programs.

Bible study is another prominent feature of the club. Ten weeks of intensive Bible study was entered upon by each member. The course extended from February to April, inclusive. At the conclusion of this term a test was taken by the members in order to find out if they had benefited by such a course. All the fortunate ones who passed the test received a diploma. We are happy to note that a large number of Central boys passed and received the coveted award. This feature was indeed interesting and so worth while that it drew a large attendance.

At intervals during the year many prominent men and women of the city spoke to the boys. This, of course, all helped to make interesting meetings still more enjoyable. Mrs. Vera Lane gave a delightful talk on her European trip. Later on Colonel D. N. Foster gave a very inspiring address on the "Life of Lincoln." At the beginning of the new year Mr. Roy E. Chapman, Boys' Work Secretary of the "Y," was secured to give an especially interesting talk to the club.

About the first of March the boys were very fortunate in hearing Mr. George Collins, of Cleveland, who spoke at a joint meeting of the Hi-Y Clubs. His topic was the "Christian Adventure." He pointed out the difficulties of living the Christian life in a real sense. He said that it was easy enough to be a Christian while it was the popular thing; the difficulty was in following the teachings of Jesus when public opinion or group opinion pointed out the other way. His talk was very stimulating and was a challenge to the boys.

The boys had two "co-ed" parties during the spring semester. One took place the first part of April, while the second was a May Day Festival, the latter being an annual affair, and one to which the boys look forward with great eagerness.

April 14, Mr. Scudder, superintendent of the Huntington schools, spoke at a joint meeting of Hi-Y and Junior Hi-Y clubs. He proved to be a very satisfactory speaker, and one whom the members thoroughly enjoyed.

A great part of the success of the club is due to Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Bronson, boys' secretaries at the Y. M. C. A. The president of the club, John McMeen, also deserves a great deal of credit for the excellent showing that the club as a whole made this year.

Although a great many of the members will be eligible to the Senior Hi-Y next fall, many new students are expected to join and keep up the spirit and ideals of the club.

Math Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	James Anglin
Vice-President	Sylvia Berman
Secretary	Edith Dean
Treasurer	Naffie Gladstone

SECOND SEMESTER

President	James Sutton
Vice-President	Edith Dean
Secretary	Margaret Roberts
Treasurer	Clayton Merrilat
Faculty Adviser	Miss M. Gardner

Math Club

The Mathematics Club of Central High School was organized December 4, 1913, by the members of the class of '14 under the supervision of Mr. D. W. Werremeyer. Since its inception the club has always been one of the largest and most active in the school. It had a membership of about fifty students. Meetings are held on a Friday night of each month in the school year. The membership was originally confined to members of the two upper classes, but now anyone who is taking or has taken 10A mathematics is eligible for membership.

The purpose of the club is to present to those interested in mathematics the phases and practical applications of that science which cannot be treated in our already too crowded curriculum.

This purpose has been admirably carried out in the programs of the club. Members of the faculty and others connected with the business institutions have given some very interesting talks showing the use of mathematics in the outside world. Enlightening talks on statistics and banking have been features of some of the meetings. Mr. Hewitt gave a talk on the "Einstein Theory and the Fourth Dimension." A speech has also been given on "Dizzy Figures," a clever talk illustrating the very high and low numbers now used in business. Another was on the lives of men who advanced the science of mathematics long ago with their inventions and discoveries. Sir Isaac Newton and Des Cartes were among those mentioned.

However, educational speeches are by no means the only features of the programs. Games and contests arranged by the Social Committee furnish amusement after the serious part of the program for the evening. Novel and interesting games are enjoyed at each meeting. Geometrical puzzles, theorem contests, and construction races are some of the favorite indoor diversions of the embryo mathematicians. For the Christmas meeting a geometrical Christmas tree was decorated with geometrical trimmings. Refreshments always top off the evening of fun. The climax of the social meetings comes with the annual picnic, which is held in the country every year. The club is quite famous for its good times and refreshments.

James Anglin piloted the mathematicians through the first semester. The afore-mentioned Christmas meeting was his greatest achievement. James Sutton succeeded him for the February term. Mrs. Clark gave an interesting and educational talk on "Intelligence Tests." These tests are used to determine one's native ability. Another delightful feature was the presentment of a group of piano selections in the auditorium by Elmer Doege. The manner in which the members received this, show that they can enjoy other things besides mathematics.

The club is unique in the fact that the mathematics teachers of Central take such an interest in it. Miss Gardner, Miss Sites, and Miss Christman very, very seldom miss the monthly meetings. They enter with real zest into the good times offered. They also chaperone the annual picnics.

The membership fee is 25 cents a semester. There is an exceptionally large enrollment for a club of this type. Of course, next year the number of members will be made smaller, but it is to be assured that their caliber will be up to the standard.

The monthly meetings are very enjoyable to those who attend, and are well worth while. Besides the store of practical knowledge acquired, the Math Club has other benefits. The gatherings of the club help to extend the acquaintance among the faculty and students. At the meetings one can hardly tell the teachers from the students, so well do they join in the genuine good times furnished.

Platonian Literary Society

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Dean Cutshall
Vice-President	Charles Hengsteler
Secretary	Bob Gardner
Treasurer	Paul Mensing

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Harold Jordan
Vice-President	Jack White
Secretary	Jack Kitch
Treasurer	Dick Meeker
Faculty Adviser	Meredith Aldred

Platonian Literary Society

The Platonian Literary Society is one of the most popular and helpful of the school clubs. It was founded in 1916 for the purpose of improving the members in public speaking, debating, and parliamentary law. With this splendid purpose in mind the club has steadily grown and has accomplished much in its career. However, when public speaking became a part of the curriculum and debating was placed under the supervision of a coach the Plats turned their attention to parliamentary law, short speeches, and discussions. This year's Plat Club has decided to drop the study of parliamentary law, due to the dryness of this subject, and has decided to confine its study to oratory in general.

This club is the only boys' literary club in school and is open to all juniors and seniors. The membership ranges from ten to twenty persons. The meetings are held every other Wednesday in Room 116 under the able supervision of Mr. Aldred.

The year 1925-26 started off right with a very capable and energetic set of officers. Those elected were: President, Dean Cutshall; vice-president, Charles Hengsteler; secretary, Bob Gardner; treasurer, Paul Mensing; sergeant-at-arms, James Hiester; recorder, Jack Kitch. Under this able set of officers interesting meetings were enjoyed throughout the year.

Many short discussions were held at different times, several of which have been on the question of Japanese Immigration, High School Athletics, Dry Ontario, and Why the Plats Are the Best Boys' Literary Club in Central. During the year the speaking committee gave the following speeches honorable mention: "North Atlantic Homes," by James Hiester; "The Eastern States," by Harold Jordan; "Dix River Dam," by Jack Williams; "The Wonders of Deep Pearl Diving," by Bob Gardner.

With the new term the Plats took a new interest in life and elected a new set of officers. The following boys accepted the responsibility of steering the good ship Plat through its stormy course:

Harold Jordan, president; Jack White, vice-president; Jack Kitch, secretary; Dick Meeker, treasurer.

The Plats stoutly claim that the chief aim of their club is to learn parliamentary law and oratory, but their adviser, Mr. Aldred, is of another opinion. He states most emphatically that their chief aim in life is to wreck his Botany laboratory. The harder and farther they can throw his Botany books and apparatus the better pleased they are with themselves. This sort of behavior delights Mr. Aldred, of course.

The esteemed and honorable Plats point with great pride to Messrs. Paul Mensing, Milton Rosenthal, Jim Heister, Dean Cutshall, and Charles Hengsteler as living examples of what oratorical ability can do for a fellow.

The Platonians are quite proud of the thing they have accomplished this year in spite of the disheartening and disappointing fact that no parties were given, due (according to their former president) to many unfortunate obstacles and circumstances. We wish the Plats an even more successful year next term, and of course a gayer one.

Radio Club

OFFICERS

FIRST AND SECOND SEMESTERS

President	Maynard Faith
Vice-President	Dorrison Linaberry
Secretary-Treasurer	Frank Mlecko
Faculty Adviser	Harry Veatch

Radio Club

To enlighten the uninitiated into the mysteries of radio, to increase the interest in, and to promote the study of, radio—these are the purposes of the Central High School Radio Club.

This club has just completed its second year of existence and a very successful year it has been. Last year found it in its infancy and not much could be prophesied as to its future success. But in its second year it has proved itself a most precocious infant and its success in future years is well assured.

The club holds its meetings every other Friday night in Room 333 and the members are entertained and instructed by talks and demonstrations arranged by the program committee.

The program committee, led by Dorrison Linaberry, who was chosen permanent chairman, and upon whose shoulders rested the responsibility of planning the program and securing speakers for the meetings, was indeed successful. These meetings were somewhat irregular during the winter months due to the basketball season, but after its conclusion the meetings followed with clock-like precision, much to the delight and gratification of its members.

Besides giving the members a real good time and increasing their technical knowledge, the club assists the members in solving their own difficulties encountered in their attempts to gain further knowledge in this mystery—the radio.

The meetings were always instructive as well as entertaining. Several meetings were devoted to the taking apart and rebuilding of sets. This proved intensely interesting to all the boys. The art of "tuning in," cutting out interference, and the construction of sending sets were only a few of the interesting problems taken up by the club.

There are in the club two student advisers. They are: Maynard Faith, technical adviser, and Dorrison Linaberry, the practical adviser.

Several prominent men of the city who are interested in such things gave splendid and helpful talks to the young enthusiasts. Mr. Chester Hall, of the General Electric Company, and Mr. Coolidge, of the Wayne Radio Company, both gave interesting speeches. The boys were benefited in many ways by these experienced radio men. Questions were put to these men which could not be coped with on account of the limited experience of the boys.

In spite of the diligent and serious study (?) which the members put forth they managed to enjoy several social gatherings this past year. A successful banquet was held the latter part of March and several out-of-door meetings were enjoyed. The club's social gatherings are sometimes in the form of trips to the lakes or hikes.

The boys are certainly benefited in various ways by this club and we are very proud of our group of enterprising young radio engineers.

In years to come we will not be a bit surprised to read of some great scientific discovery made by one of our former Central students. But considering that their first training was received in our own Radio Club, naturally we don't expect anything else. We expect wonders from you, boys.

Sorosis Literary Society

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Margaret Leasure
Vice-President	Phyllis Long
Secretary	Virginia Curdes
Treasurer	Marian Norford
Sergeant-at-arms	Margaret Roberts
Chairman of Program	Nell Gunn

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Nell Gunn
Vice-President	Esther Gaskill
Secretary	Frances Bash
Treasurer	Freda Withers
Sergeant-at-arms	Margaret Roberts
Chairman of Program	Rosalia Pollak
Faculty Adviser	Miss Hazel Hawkins

Sorosis Literary Society

The purpose of the Sorosis Literary Society is, as its name implies, to promote the reading and appreciation of good literature. Sorosis is under the excellent supervision of Miss Hawkins. This club is composed of girls who are 10A's or over, and who have the average of B. The membership of this club is limited to sixty girls.

There have been many interesting programs this year at the Sorosis meetings, which are held every other Thursday. A new idea of an open forum was introduced. These discussions were interesting as well as educational. At the first of these discussions a program entitled "In Flanders Field" was enjoyed by everyone. It consisted of World War stories and poetry and reports of work of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Salvation Army, and Red Cross. At another date a group of modern American poets was discussed, including Amy Lowell, Carl Sanburg, Margaret Widdemer and others. The most spectacular program of the fall term was a playlet called "Bluebeard's Wife," portraying the temptations that lure one away from study.

The programs this spring have consisted mostly of book reviews. Willa Cather's "Professor's House," Booth Tarkington's "Women," Kathleen Norris, and many others. The entire club joins in the discussion of these books. We also renewed the custom of serving refreshments at our meetings. This makes the meetings quite homelike, especially as they are held in the library. The surroundings there encourage the members of the club to read and love books.

Sorosis is probably best known in the school for its patriotic programs on Memorial Day and Armistice Day. Last year the program on Memorial Day was especially impressive. The veterans of the Civil War were guests at the ceremony. David Heaton, who delivered a stirring address, was the speaker of the program. The chairman of the program was Marcella Koerber. The Armistice Day program was in charge of Margaret Leasure. Reverend Rocca was the speaker and Mrs. Lane read a very beautiful group of war poems.

This year another patriotic program was left in the hands of Sorosis. A very spectacular program was given by the club on Washington's birthday. The girls' quartette, dressed in costumes of the sixteenth century, sang some lovely old-fashioned songs. The Sorosis girls sang "Faith of Our Fathers." A minuet of Washington's time was also included in the program. Rosalia Pollak and Lillian Hans presented this pretty dance and Nell Gunn was chairman.

Sorosis stands for scholarship. Many of its members are on the honor roll. The motto of Sorosis is "to be intensely something" and the club is doing everything in its power to live up to its motto.

During the second semester a refreshment committee was added to the club. Eats were served at all the meetings.

The club fulfills a need in the life of Central. It gives the girls a deeper insight into the more cultured phase of life. The meetings occur every other Thursday. Miss Hawkins shows that she is not only a Booster, but also a leader of girls. She succeeded Miss Williams three years ago.

Every year Sorosis has a banquet, with attractive decorations and place cards. Clever and witty toasts always prevail, making the affair one of the important ones of the club.

Sorosis enlivens the interest of its members in such cultural things as literature, art, and music. It is the club of the Muses. It develops the æsthetic tastes of the members, and gives them a chance to overcome self-consciousness in a friendly atmosphere. Though the membership is limited, graduation leaves vacancies for those who wish to affiliate themselves with the organization.

U. P. D. Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Mildred Slater
Vice-President	Hazel Warning
Secretary	Margaret Smenner
Treasurer	Mary Thayer

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Margaret Smenner
Vice-President	Mary Thayer
Secretary	Florence Koegel
Treasurer	Hillis Harris

FACULTY ADVISERS

Miss E. Burton	Miss I. Freeman	Miss E. Symons, Y. W. C. A.
----------------	-----------------	-----------------------------

U. P. D. Club

The U. P. D. Club was organized six years ago by the class of 1920. At that time the membership was very small because it was open only to freshman girls. Now it is open to all freshman and sophomore girls. The club has grown steadily until it is one of the best girls' organizations in Central.

The girls have tried in the past year to live up to their standard of Usefulness, Patriotism, and Devotion, and have come to be an important factor in Central. By its various kinds of service work, the club has made itself a real help to others outside of school.

The club holds its meetings every other Thursday at the Y. W. C. A. clubrooms.

The subject developed in the programs for the fall semester was "The Quest." All the meetings developing this idea was very interesting and helpful to the girls. Early in the fall a joint meeting with the U. S. A. Club of South Side was held which proved successful for both schools.

Through all the good times the girls did not lose sight of the first word in their ideal—usefulness. At Thanksgiving large baskets were filled with good things to eat and were sent to poor and needy families throughout the city. Christmas time found the girls busy helping the Red Cross fill Christmas stockings to send to the veterans of the World War at a tuberculosis hospital. This was done instead of giving the annual Christmas party for poor kiddies.

The first real social affair was an informal get-acquainted party for the new 9B's. During the fall term a very enjoyable co-ed party was given. All members had exceedingly handsome escorts, the reason for this being that all the escorts were girls dressed as men.

The U. P. D.'s have learned to think of others who are less fortunate than they, and have done many things which tended to cheer others up. When Valentine's Day came along, each girl took the name and address of two orphans from the Allen County Children's Home and sent them each a valentine greeting. Needless to say, they were heartily appreciated and for days after, many little hearts were happy because of a real-for-sure valentine. These girls are made better citizens and better girls because they have learned this lesson of helpfulness. Any club which fosters such a spirit is a club among clubs and one to respect. Keep up the good work, all ye loyal U. P. D.'s.

On January 23 the Girl Reserves held their annual banquet in the clubrooms.

The club, led on by Miss Symons, Girl Reserve Secretary, Miss Burton, and Miss Freeman, has reached great heights this year and we wish them the best of luck in the future. May they always live up to the ideals set for them, to be—

G racious in manner;
I mpartial in judgment;
R eady for service;
L oyal to friends;

R eaching toward the best;
E arnest in purpose;
S eeing the beautiful;
E ager for knowledge;
R everent to God;
V ictorious over self;
E ver dependable;
S incere at all times.

Student Players' Club

OFFICERS

FIRST SEMESTER

President	Tom Popp
Vice-President	Verl Clark
Secretary	Florence Blosser
Treasurer	Dean Cutshall

SECOND SEMESTER

President	Tom Popp
Vice-President	Verl Clark
Secretary	Harriet Hiester
Treasurer	Harold Jordan
Faculty Adviser	Miss M. Suter

Student Players' Club

Now comes the Student Players' Club. Why is everyone so interested? Just because it is the Student Players' Club. "Nothing unusual about that," some will exclaim. "It is composed of some of our schoolmates." But that fact is not particularly startling. The real startling thing is that these people are not always "just schoolmates." Haven't you seen them as old, bent people—as Vedette, for instance, played by Harold Jordan, and a host of other characters, who are not like our everyday chums in the least. They are different. There is something in them that makes them forget they are only boys and girls and causes them to live in these other characters. Consequently they are able to portray emotions which in real life are foreign to them.

The Student Players' Club has been consistently true to its purpose; that is, "to create an interest in dramatics and to develop the talent of those interested." They have done this with remarkable success. To be a member of this club a student must have passing grades in all subjects and have taken part in a play or assisted in producing one. The constitution of the club holds the members to high ideals.

The club under the direction of Miss Marjorie Suter holds regular meetings every other Friday at three o'clock in Room 111 and has social meetings at the various members' homes once a month.

One of the most enjoyable of the club's social affairs was that given in November of which Harold Jordan was the genial host. It was an initiation as well as a party. It was given on the eleventh floor of the Wayne Pharmacal building in the banquet and lounging rooms. The new members were first given a solemn initiation and as is the custom this part was followed by the "funny" one. But it is said that many of the initiates failed to see the "funny" part. Imagine what a sad plight to be in. I am quite sure that we would have carried it out gracefully. After this sad lark of humor on the part of the initiates, the guests were taken to the banquet room, where they were served a delicious two-course luncheon. It wasn't until very late that the merrymakers consented to disband.

Later in the year Helen Piatt was the gracious and becoming hostess to the club. This too was initiation night. The cast of the Christmas Play, which had been received so heartily by the school, was initiated. Everyone seemed to feel unusually good and peppy that night, much to the chagrin and discomfiture of the new members. They certainly got the benefit of this overflow of spirit and felt more or less the worse for it. Late in the evening the members were led to the dining room, where the table was artistically set in lace with a bowl of roses forming a centerpiece. Delicious refreshments were served and again it was a late hour before they disbanded.

The next social meeting was held at Marcella Koerber's home. A very delightful dinner was served and afterwards almost everyone went to the Tiger Prom.

The last event of the year was a picnic held at Tri-Lake on June 5. This closed one of the most successful seasons that the Student Players' Club has ever enjoyed.

Central's Clubs

The clubs pictured, follow all sorts of activities. It is well to stop and review them. The Boosters are always looking for things to do that will boost our school. The Brush and Pencil Club is organized to advance art work in our school. The Friendship and U. P. D. Clubs are sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., and nothing more need be said since we already know of the ideals of the Y. W. The Hi-Y and Junior Hi-Y Clubs are sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. The same things that are true of the Y. W. are true of the Y. M. The Home Economics Club holds its meetings in the Domestic Science room of our school. There they discuss the problems that will enable them to take better care of their homes later in life. The Math Club deals with the arithmetic line. In their meetings mathematical problems are worked in a way much different than that employed in the classroom. The Radio Club is very much in date at this aerial time. Sorosis is another of the girls' clubs teaching high ideals. The Student Players are actors.

All of these clubs deal with the social things. All of them furnish good times to those who attend. There is, however, something deeper and nobler in them. All of them are teaching valuable principles which will be appreciated later on. Parliamentary law is studied. Friendships are developed. The discussions instill ideals. Thus we are getting fundamental training which, along with our academic work, is indispensable.

Dramatics

THE lure of the stage has entered our noble halls through our stage activities. Plays of all kinds have been produced, varying from the comedy down to the more serious types. Gladly have the nickels been given to see these masterpieces that have been presented. We have left the auditorium after each play, taking with us some new moral which we have resolved to follow.

"The Fifteenth Candle"

Sylvia, daughter of Vedette	Pearl Salon
Rose, daughter of Vedette	Sylvia Berman
Vedette, Italian shoemaker	Harold Jordan
Teacher of Art	Harriett Hiester
Mr. Goldschmidt	James Sutton

This is the story of an Italian girl, Rose (Sylvia Berman), who wishes to study art, against the wishes of her father (Harold Jordan). Her sister Sylvia (Pearl Salon) realizes how talented she is, and tries to persuade old Vedette to send her on to school, but he proves to be obstinate and refuses to listen. Sylvia is willing to sacrifice much in order to send Rose to school. Finally the teacher of art (Harriett Hiester) comes to talk with Vedette and persuade him to give in, but to no avail. Mr. Goldschmidt (James Sutton) appears on the scene with an offer, but Rose is doubtful. Vedette was a humorous old man, and very conservative. When the visitors come to see him, Sylvia has a terrible time to get him to put on his coat, but she finally succeeds, and he does so unwillingly. The play was very well presented and the characters were well chosen. The entire cast was good, and all the characters spoke with real Italian dialect, which really is no easy thing to do.

"Wisdom Teeth"

FIRST CAST

Esther Gaskill	Miss Henrietta Wellington	Marcella Koerber
Florence Blosser	Miss Pearson	Helen Piatt
Lorena Ford	Nurse	Lorena Ford
Tom Popp	Henry Wellington Hill	James Anglin

SECOND CAST

"Wisdom Teeth" is a humorous play about an aristocratic aunt and her nephew. The scene takes place in a dentist's office, where Miss Henrietta Wellington (Esther Gaskill, Marcella Koerber), goes to have a tooth extracted. She drags her unwilling nephew (Tom Popp, James Anglin) along with her, and during the first part of the play he is bored to death. Not until The Girl comes to have a tooth treated does he want to stay. Being rather shy and bashful he finds it very difficult to carry on a conversation, but both Florence Blosser and Helen Piatt get him to talk freely by the end of the play. Finally, the aunt comes from the room with the attendant (Lorena Ford) and her nephew registers great concern about her condition. He tells her that she must stay at the office for at least an hour or so because she might faint if she doesn't. After many funny remarks between aunt and nephew, The Girl comes from the dentist's room. It happens that she is the secretary whom Miss Wellington has employed. This overjoys her nephew and he is quite willing to leave with both the ladies.

“The Heart of Pierrot”

Pierrot	Carl Jacobs
Miss Vanity	Rosalia Pollak
Mama Pierrot	Miss Suter
Haughty Lady	Katherine Dye
Clown of Clowns	Milton Rosenthal
A Negro Boy	Elvan Combs
A Little Girl	Frances Kaye
A Newsboy	Paul Aumann
An Old Lady	Nell Gunn

“The Heart of Pierrot” was the Christmas play presented by the Student Players’ Club. It is the story of the real Christmas spirit and it was well received by the students. Pierrot (Carl Jacobs) tries to shed the rays of the Christmas spirit upon all those who come his way. Pierrot goes to a school for clowns and Mama Pierrot says that this will be good training for him. A newsboy comes along and his hands are cold. Pierrot shows him a game to play that will warm him up. In a few minutes he goes away happy. Then a little girl comes up to him and is crying because she dropped her doll. Pierrot cheers her up and she leaves him feeling happy again. A Negro boy goes by him next and he talks to him and complains about the heavy load he is carrying. Pierrot soon cheers him up.

The Clown of Clowns walks up to him and tells him that he has done a work that he should be proud of. He gives him a bag full of laughs, and wishes him good luck.

"Op-o'-Me-Thumb"

Mrs. Galloway	Florence Blosser
Horace Greensmith	Eugene Martin
Amanda Afflick	Lorena Ford
Celeste	Esther Gaskill
Madam Didier	Rosalia Pollak
Rose Jordan	Marian Jordan

The last of a series of plays which were presented by the Student Players' Club was "'Op-o'-Me-Thumb.'" This play was written by Frederick Fenn and Richard Price. When the curtain rises, Madame (Rosalia Pollak) is ironing, and Rose Jordan (Marian Jordan) is putting packages on the shelf. Mrs. Galloway (Florence Blosser) is mending socks at a small table. Celeste (Esther Gaskill) is sitting on a table, singing, while she marks off collars in the account book. The four girls are talking about the time when they shall be married. Madame Didier is disgusted with the girls and tells them that they need to work if they expect a husband. As they chatter, someone mentions Amanda Afflick (Lorena Ford) and for a time the conversation is concerned chiefly about her and the shirt that Mr. Horace Greensmith (Eugene Martin) left to be washed.

Amanda likes Mr. Greensmith and a flirtation starts between the two. Amanda thinks he cares, but when he tries to get out of taking her to 'Amstead, she realizes that he is ashamed of her, and to make things turn out for his good, she pretends not to care, but only be joking with him. Before he leaves her, he kisses her abruptly and she sinks in a heap on the floor.

"Seven Chances"

LYALL MORRILL has seven chances of winning $12,000,000, and the chances in question are all girls! This was only part of the unique dilemma in which the hero found himself in the Senior Play production of Belasco's comedy success, "Seven Chances," which was presented May 20 and 21. Lyall appeared in the role of a young chap who is a confirmed bachelor: one of those misogynists, if you know what is meant. Living in comparative poverty, and yet aching for money for the good he can accomplish with it, there comes to him the news that his grandfather has just died in France. The eccentric old gentleman has left a fortune of $12,000,000 contingent only on the fact that his grandson, Jimmie Shannon, must be married before his thirtieth birthday. The fact is brought out in the will, and by a strange coincidence the news of the millionaire's death does not reach Jimmie until one day before his thirtieth birthday. Thus, Jimmie has just twenty-four hours to overcome his matrimonial repugnance and find himself a wife. Jimmie's friends muster a bevy of eligible girls—seven of them, to be exact. To each of these he proposes in turn, varying the form of proposal to suit what he fancies are the idiosyncrasies of the girl. Six of the girls refused him, but the seventh, fate decrees, Jimmie shall win as his bride. And as it happens, the seventh chance is the one girl whom, without realizing it, Jimmie has been in love with all along.

This smart little comedy, which by the way has been written by Roi Cooper Megrue, author of "It Pays to Advertise" and "Honors Are Even," was founded on a short story by Gouverneur Morris. It is delicious in its rapid fire humor, both of situation and dialogue, and is designed to keep audiences roaring from beginning to end. Appearing with Lyall as the chances, Miss Sutter selected Esther Anne Gaskill, Evelyn Jacobs, Florence Blosser, Marian Jordan, Ruth Walhausen, Selma Levy, and Helen Piatt. In addition there also appeared Harold Jordan, Marcella Koerber, Eugene Martin, James Sutton, Aubrey Williams, Dean Cutshall, and Robert Ruhl. Carl Riedel was the stage manager and Virginia Curdes and Vera Liggett served as prompters.

Music

CENTRAL'S high position along musical lines is undisputed. Here again are rivals of the old masters themselves. Central's orchestra and its band, which is a new organization in this school, have made themselves very popular. Both of these organizations as well as the quartette and glee clubs have appeared before the approving public many times and have well merited the praise bestowed on them. The hearts of many have been lightened by the sweet strains of their voices and instruments.

"THE MIKADO"

Music Department

IT has not been until recently that our school has realized the great value and importance of music in a high school. This has been brought about under the able instruction of William R. Sur, who has proved to be a very valuable member of the faculty. Mr. Sur is a man who has unusual ability for leadership, and, being such a music enthusiast himself, inspires the students.

One of his accomplishments is our orchestra. At last we have a capable orchestra. The number of members in the orchestra has been very much increased. Throughout the year an average of forty players has been maintained.

The Indiana Teachers' Association honored Central by inviting the orchestra to play at two of the sessions of its annual convention held at Indianapolis in October. Approximately forty-five members were transported in large busses. These concerts were given at Cadle Tabernacle and the Manual Training High School.

After the Indianapolis trip the orchestra was in demand for many occasions, and among these were: The Shrine Ceremonial, the Adams School Dedication, the annual Christmas Carol service of the students of the grade schools, and the Teachers' Reception.

GIRLS' OCTETTE

A select group of students from both the Central and South Side orchestras was chosen to play the accompaniments in the comic opera, "Mikado," which was given at the Shrine, March 24. Professional players were interspersed among the high school students to make them competent for playing the accompaniments to such an unusual undertaking for a secondary school.

An annual orchestra and glee club concert was given this year. It consisted of music of very high standards. The orchestra played part of Beethoven's Symphony No. 1.

The orchestra will again play a very prominent part in the commencement exercises.

Glee Clubs

The Girls' Glee Club consists of approximately one hundred and twenty-five members. The week preceding Christmas vacation "Pan on a Summer's Day," by Paul Bliss, was given in the auditorium. The week before Christmas the girls sang carols on the court house square, and on Wednesday, December 23, the girls and boys visited the prominent places of business and sang carols.

The Boys' Glee Club sang for the Armistice Day Program.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

CALDRON

ORCHESTRA

BAND

The Central and South Side Glee Clubs combined to give the "Mikado" at the Mizpah Shrine Auditorium. The "Mikado" is an opera written by Sullivan. It was one of the finest and largest musical affairs ever attempted by the city schools.

Mr. William Sur directed instrumental work, Mr. Roland L. Schafer the vocal work, Miss Marjorie Suter the dramatics.

All of the leading parts were taken by professional musicians of the city who kindly volunteered their services for the benefit of the high schools.

Band

The Central Band now has uniforms, and the dream we had last year of a good band has at last been realized. This year the membership has averaged forty pieces, including the beginners' band.

We regret very much that our capable Drum Major, Leonard Scheele, has to leave us next year.

A concert was given in October by the General Electric and the Central High Bands, both under the direction of Mr. John L. Verweire, which was a great success musically, as well as financially. They also played at many other functions: The Armistice Day parade, football games, South Side-Shelbyville game, several of the Central basketball games, the Shrine Christmas party for children, and a concert at the James Smart school.

Through the courtesy of some Fort Wayne business men our band was taken to the Central-Auburn game at Auburn. Transportation was provided both ways.

Girls' Quartette

The Girls' Quartette consists of Jeanette Pitts, Eleanore Eisenhut, Mildred Crawford, and Ruth Grodrian. Substitutes: Mary Steiner and Lorena Ford. The quartette has always played a very prominent part in the musical activities of the school. This year it has succeeded in bringing some of our school music before the various luncheon clubs and churches of the city. They also gave a program for the foreign students of the Night School. This program was especially well received by them. They sang several numbers at Mr. Northrop's banquet given by the teachers.

In addition to these extra activities Mr. Sur offered the regular music course, which consists of Music Harmony and Music Appreciation and History. Both classes were well attended.

Publications

JOURNALISM is one of the important subjects at Central. Classes were organized this year for the first time in the history of the school. The students have followed various lines. Those of the journalism classes have used their talents in producing our weekly paper, the Spotlight. The others have produced our commercial paper, the Keyboard, and the Fragmenta Latina, the organ of the Latin department. Still others have tried to produce an annual. How well they have succeeded only you can tell.

The Caldron Staff

First Row: Leonard Scheele, Editor-in-chief; Marcella Koerber, Associate Editor; Virginia Curdes, Circulation Manager; Thomas Popp, Junior Assistant Circulation Manager.

Second Row: James Anglin, Advertising Manager; Harold Brueckner, Advertising Manager; Richard Shoaff, Photographic Editor; Robert Ruhl, Business Manager.

Third Row: Phyllis Long, Girls' Athletic Editor; Maxwell Baker, Boys' Athletic Editor; Ruth Walhausen, Class Editor; Esther Gaskill, Feature Editor.

Fourth Row: Fern McComb, Club Editor; Marie Williams, Club Editor; Esther Broxon, Music Editor; Florence Blosser, Art Staff.

Fifth Row: Bonnie Walker, Art Staff; Mildred Hershberger, Art Staff; Elizabeth Smith, Stenographer; Lucille Steiss, Stenographer.

The Caldron

This is the thirtieth year in which an annual has been published in this school. The first one, in 1896, was called the Vedette, which became synonymous with "in debt." In 1897 the year book was rechristened Eniauton. It would be interesting to note that this book was illustrated by Charles Falls, now a very noted artist.

By 1900 a discussion arose as to whether to call the book the Vedette, which means "advance guard," or the Eniauton, meaning "once a year." To them Vedette seemed an appropriate title for the first annual because it was the "advance guard" of all the rest. Several years later, however, it was again called the Vedette. This title persisted until 1915, when the name CALDRON was given to the F. W. H. S. annual. This name seems to be well liked by everyone, for it has been used for nine years, and there has been no agitation to alter the existing name.

The financial question seems to be the pet "bugbear" of every staff of an annual. The class of 1902 deliberated the wisdom of publishing a year book. The cost of the annual was $450.00 for the printing of 250 books. These were to be sold at one dollar apiece, which brought $250.00. With $200.00 worth of ads, the staff could come out even. In addition to the great financial risk, hours of time were required, making the class work of the staff members below its normal standard.

Despite these handicaps, each class thus far has assumed the risk and published a year book to the best of its ability. Each class seems to have profited from the mistakes of its predecessors, and by earnest endeavor has made the annual progress each year.

This book is for the school. The 1926 staff has made it as interesting and worth-while as it could. This probably will be the largest annual for several years because the school will be smaller with the addition of a sister structure of learning. Therefore, this should be a gem among your collection.

Spotlight Staff, First Semester

EDITORIAL STAFF:

Editor-in-chief	Elsie Erdman, '26
Managing Editor	Maxwell Baker, '26
News Editor	Ruth Schneider, '26
Assistant News Editor	John White, '27
Sports	{ Lyall Morrill, '26 Glenn Casebeer, '26 Alice Yarnelle, '27
Copy Editors	{ Virginia Trier, '27 Freda Withers, '27

BUSINESS STAFF:

Business Managers	{ Richard Shoaff, '26 James Ballou, '27
Advertising Manager	Aden Current, '26
Advertising Solicitors	{ Rose Katzenberg, '27 Charles Gass, '28 Bernard Hartquist, '26 John Habecker, '27
Circulation Manager	Harold Johnson, '26

SPECIALTIES:

Society Editor	Marie Williams, '26
Exchange Editor	Charlotte Stier, '27
Features	{ Fern McComb, '26 Pearl Salon, '26

CALDRON

REPORTERS:

Virginia Traxler
Milton Rosenthal
Margaret Stocks
Mary Liggett
Madeline Cromwell
Hazel Warning

Ignota Winters
Esther Lowery
Mary Smenner
Frances Cook
Dorothy Michaels
Florence Koch

Pauline Robinson
Ethel Bobilya
Esther Gaskill
Thelma Scoles
Jane Bradtmiller
Lois Duesler

Spotlight Staff, Second Semester

EDITORIAL STAFF:

Editor-in-chief	Maxwell Baker, '26
Managing Editor	Ruth Schneider, '26
News Editor	John White, '27
Assistant News Editor	Freda Withers, '27
	{ Lyall Morrill, '26
Sports	{ Thoburn Wiant, '28
	{ Glenn Casebeer, '26
	{ Virginia Trier, '27
Copy Editors	{ Charlotte Stier, '27

BUSINESS STAFF:

Business Assistants	{ Robert Brown, '28
	{ Carl Tannehill, '28
	{ William Shellenback, '28
Advertising Manager	Rose Katzenberg, '27
Circulation Manager	Harold Johnson, '26
	{ Margaret Stocks, '27
Assistant Circulation Managers	{ Paul Aumann, '28
	{ Helen Light, '28

SPECIALTIES:

Society	Marie Williams, '26
Features	Fern McComb, '26
	{ Dorothy Michaels, '27
Club Editors	{ Milton Rosenthal, '27
Student Adviser	Elsie Erdmann, '26
Faculty Adviser	Willis Richardson

REPORTERS:

Mary Smenner
Ernest Tonkel
Manford Biddle
Ethel Bobilya
Jane Bradtmiller
Ruth Bruns
Madeline Cromwell
Katherine Croxall
Harriett Derck
Rachel Dole

Donald Elder
Bella Hurwitz
Martha Harris
Charlotte Hodel
Robert Porter
Esther Lowery
Helen Light
Katherine Osborn
Pauline Robinson
Anne Schwartz
Evelyn Jurgens

Florence Koch
Paul Aumann
Robert Baker
Thelma Scoles
Hazel Warning
Pearl Weinstein
Ignota Winters
Jack White
Mildred Tonkel
Rachel Masterson

The Spotlight

The Spotlight has been published since 1919. The seventh year shows a marked growth, for it is well regarded by high school journalists all over the country. Its predecessor was the Caldron monthly. Until 1922, the fourth year of the publication of the paper, it was a senior publication with one reporter from each class. Since then, anyone competent is eligible to the staff, and merit means promotion. The paper was sold in the halls until 1925, when a subscription system was inaugurated. The paper, four to six pages, is delivered to the classes the first period every Friday.

Since February a definite milestone has been passed. There are two classes in journalism, meeting the second and eighth periods. This eliminates the necessity of staff members staying after school, and the paper is put out more efficiently. It also enables members of the staff to learn sidelights of newspaper work. During the semester they visited the Central Print Shop and the Fort Wayne Typesetting Company. They saw that all the work of an issue is not in writing copy. This class will enable Central to produce better journalists for college and daily publications.

CALDRON

Elsie Erdmann edited the paper the first semester. Under her leadership both the staff and circulation increased. Maxwell Baker piloted the paper during the spring semester. At this time a new position, that of student adviser, was created. Much responsibility falls to this person, for he, in a measure, supplants the faculty adviser, so the adviser may pay more attention to the business end of the Spotlight. Elsie Erdmann was the first student adviser. The tournament issue was a notable tribute to the second semester staff.

Much credit is due Mr. Richardson for the efficient management of the paper. No detail is too small for him to aid a puzzled embryo journalist. His patience is inexhaustible, and yet he obtains results from his staff. His seemingly futile efforts were rewarded by the long-sought classes in journalism. He has put the paper on a firm financial basis. Without a leader of this caliber the Spotlight could not have approached its present success.

Last fall the publications department sent to the Indiana High School Press Association at Franklin, Indiana, the following people: Leonard Scheele, Virginia Curdes, and Mercella Koerber from the CALDRON staff, and Elsie Erdman, Maxwell Baker, Ruth Schneider, and Harold Johnson from the Spotlight staff. Mr. Richardson accompanied them. Here many facts were learned which aided in presenting the present year publications.

The Keyboard

The Keyboard is a publication of the Commerce Department of Central. It is a monthly paper and is edited by a staff composed of commercial students. This paper is in its third year of existence. It was edited the first time in 1924 by Vera Shipley. The next year Lois Fashbaugh and Martha Rex were the editors. This year the advanced commercial class put out the Keyboard with Elizabeth Smith as the editor.

The purpose of this publication is to create an interest among all the students of the school for business and commerce.

The first year, Mr. Northrop was faculty adviser. For the past two years Mr. Eyster has ably supervised the publication of this paper.

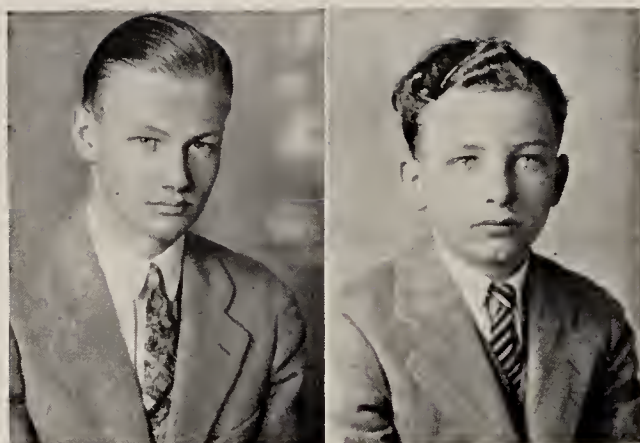

1926 STAFF

Editor.....	Elizabeth Smith
Assistant Editor.....	Lucille Steiss
Circulation Manager.....	James Sutton
News Editor.....	Vernida Bowman
Sports Editor.....	Earl Felger
Stenographers.....	  Lucile Bonham Ivalu Sheets

REPORTERS

Matilda Aumann
 Lonavene Banks
 Eileen Chaney
 Maggie Barnes

Hazel Bonham
 Elsie Erdmann
 Bernice Franklin
 Dorothy Miller

NORFORD

HEINE

Fragmenta Latina

Fragmenta Latina, the publication of the Latin Department, made its first appearance in the fall of 1919 under the leadership of Stewart Hulse and William Merrill. At that time it was something quite new of its kind and was eagerly received by the students. The Junior High Latin Departments of both the Jefferson and Harmar schools also contributed to the publication during this first year of its existence. The following year Joseph Folsom and Mabel Gresley edited the paper. In 1921-22 Ned Arick, unassisted, led the paper successfully through another year. During 1922-23, Howard Tenny and John Shoaff were the editors, who were in turn followed by Poynter McEvoy and David Bernstein in 1923-24.

In the fall of 1924 the paper received a new impetus under James Anglin and Vere Kint, and was enlarged from a two-column to a three-column paper, the size of the page was doubled, and a cartoon was a feature of the front page. In addition to the two managing editors, a corps of reporters was chosen, one from each Latin class, thus making the paper more fully represent the work of all the Latin students.

Originally one number was published each semester and this custom is still adhered to. In 1919 the price was one cent a copy, this was later raised to three cents, and still later to five cents, which is the present price.

With the close of the present school year, Fragmenta Latina has successfully completed its seventh year. The success of the paper this year has been largely due to the editors, Virgil Norford and Richard Heine, and Miss Beierlein, the adviser. The first issue had as its main theme the Roman Saturnia, which corresponds to our modern Christmas. The illustration represented a likeness of the ancient god, Saturn. The second issue was concerned with Cæsar and a comparison of him with Mussolini. The cartoon showed Mussolini listening to his master's voice, which was that of Cæsar, coming from station S-T-Y-X, the Underworld, announcing "I, Cæsar, would rather be first in an Iberian village than second in Rome."

The purpose of the paper is to create a keener interest in Latin as a living language, by stressing the manifold ways in which it is used every day, and thus far it has certainly carried out its idea.

Public Speaking

DURING the past year much has been said about speeches made by various learned men in our country. Herein is presented a group of people who have done much to equal the accomplishments of the grown-up speakers. They have gone into various kinds of contests. The debating teams have matched their wits with those of the teams of other schools, while individuals have contested for superiority in argumentation and oration.

HUNT

MORRILL

NOVITSKY

SCHEELE

Public Speaking

During the past year Central's orators have been as talkative as ever. The season has not been a continual triumph, but it has seen its share of victories. The greatest success has been the increasing numbers and enthusiasm among the growling Tigers. Seventeen speakers have upheld the honors of Central on the rostrum in thirteen verbal combats. The record entitles our public-speaking department to its place among the most active of our school's activities.

Two extemporaneous speaking contests have been held since the last issue of the CALDRON. The first in May of last year was contested by Leonard Scheele, Ruth Hunt, Perry Thomas, Leah Peters, and Marcella Koerber. The winner was Leonard Scheele, who spoke on "Crime News." Second place was taken by Ruth Hunt, whose subject was "Prohibition."

The second contest occurred last October. The speakers were Ruth Hunt, Leonard Scheele, Clausen McKim, Don Johnson, Lyall Morrill, and James Sutton. This time the winners traded places, Ruth Hunt winning first with her discussion of "Remedies for Coal Troubles," and Leonard Scheele coming in second with his defense of an "Independent Air Service."

HEATON

SUTTON

TONKEL

MCKIM

CALDRON

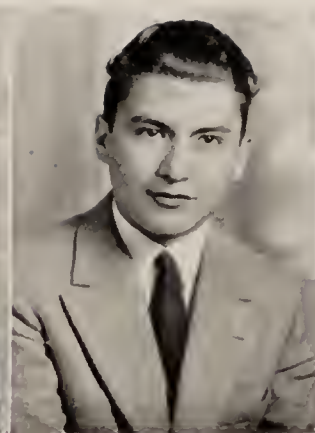

MERRILAT

SUTTON

JOHNSON

EMRICK

Both winners now have their names on the Koerber and Benner cups. But since both are seniors and neither has more than one leg on the cup, it is assured that the titles to both cups will be free of all encumbrances and mortgages by next year.

Last December the debates to decide the championship of the Northeastern Indiana Debating League got under way. Teams from Central, South Side, Bluffton, and Leo entered the competition. The subject for the debates was, "Resolved: That the United States should establish a unified air service under separate control." Central's teams, who defended the championship won in 1924, were made up as follows:

Affirmative—Leonard Scheele (captain), Ruth Hunt, Lyall Morrill, Byron Novitsky (alternate).

Negative—David Heaton (captain), James Sutton, Clausen McKim, Ernest Tonkel (alternate).

Managers—Franklin Emrick, Clayton Merrillat.

In the first round of debates our affirmative lost the decision to the Leo negative at Leo. On the following day the Central negative, speaking on its home floor, took revenge upon the Leo affirmative.

BENNER CUP

HUNT

SCHEELE

KOERBER CUP

In the first debate of the final round, the Central negative secured a favorable decision from the Bluffton affirmative at Bluffton. The debate between Central affirmative and South Side negative was won by South Side.

The final league standing was: South Side, first, and league champions for 1925, and Central and Leo tied for second.

Outside of the competitive interest in the debates, it is interesting to note that in six of the eight debates the material and arguments against a unified air service under separate control were found to be stronger. Such a conclusion reached by thirty-two debaters studying the question from every angle and with the concurrence of more than a dozen judges may be worthy of some notice.

The subject for this year's contests for the championship of the Indiana High School Discussion League was "A County Unit System of School Administration." In the discussion to select the Central representative James Sutton, Ernest Tonkel, Eugene Martin, Harriet Hiester, and Clayton Merrilat took part. James Sutton was the winner, with Ernest Tonkel taking second place.

In the County Contest James was matched against five young ladies representing South Side, New Haven, Leo, Woodburn, and Arcola. He cruelly defeated four of them, but the fifth, Miss Cornelia Bade, of South Side, punished him for his unchivalrous conduct by nosing him out for first place.

The next public speaking event was the annual National Oratorical Contest on the Constitution. Four boys, Don Johnson, Lyall Morrill, Clausen McKim, and Eugene Martin, aspired to the honor of representing Central in the County Oratorical Contest. This honor was won by Don Johnson. Lyall Morrill was runner-up.

Don's excellent delivery of a sound but not noisy speech carried him through to first honors in the County Contest, against orators from South Side, Central Catholic, St. Augustine's Academy, New Haven, and Lafayette Center.

In the District Contest, held in the Majestic theater, Don made a remarkable showing and swayed his audience at will. He won second place. First place was awarded to a speaker from Pleasant Lake.

Central has accepted a challenge from Scott High. of Toledo, for a dual debate on the resolution "That the proposed Child Labor Amendment should be adopted." The debates will be held May 27. One team will make the trip to Toledo and one Toledo team will come here. Central's debaters are hard at work to take full advantage of this opportunity of extending our debating activities. We hope that in the years to come Central may take a prominent part in high school debating activities throughout this part of the country.

Participants in any activity are always indebted to their coach, but Central's speakers of the Class of '26 find themselves graduating almost bankrupt because of their indebtedness to Miss Cromer. They will always remember her not only as an expert and wide-awake coach, but also as a real friend.

TIGER TRAIL

As the Year Passed

SEPTEMBER

September has marked the beginning of school.
We'd been hot all summer, but this kept us cool,
And then there is football, the game of the season,
Of course we beat Bluffton for this very reason:
Our team is the best to be found anywhere,
Its loyal supporters were everyone there.
They had so much pep that on the way home
Three cars went in the ditch; that's as true as this
"pome."

In this very month did the seniors decide
That Robert Bradtmiller must act as their guide.

OCTOBER

Tra la la, hear our band? See that fellow ahead?
That's the great Leonard Scheele, yes, Scheele, I said,

Remember the meeting when we had such pep?
Why sure, Miss McCloud spoke, as also did
"Kep."

Now there is a teacher of whom I'd remark,
Her name's Mrs. Lane, she's a great English shark,

You see, she had been in a land far away,
In Europe, the land of Spaghetti and Whey,
And when she got back 'twas such heavenly bliss
For you can't find a teacher the equal of this.

NOVEMBER

When we won from South Side then our joy was complete,

For as everyone said, 'twas a wonderful feat,
The one blot to our joy was the deluge of rain,
It came down so fast that it gave us a pain,
Then our band got their outfits, (Let's hope they don't shrink

For if they got smaller, what would people think?)

DECEMBER

An energetic faculty met in the gym
Their party was peppy, they had lots of v'm,
Mr. Sur, Mr. Veatch, also Mr. DeLong,
Entertained them with music as well as with song
They said, "We're a trio, we're called B. V. D."
When I asked why, they said, "It's our name, don't you see?"

Then our letter-men also a party did give,
Oh, the life of a letter-man's easy to live.

Did you hang up your stocking? I hope that you did,

And I hope Santa filled it clear up to the lid.

JANUARY

Revenge is so sweet, it's the greatest delight,
We cleaned up on Milford, the game was a sight.
The Girl Reserves' banquet was one big event,
With plenty of eats—but oh, how they went!

FEBRUARY

Did you know that "Dad" Northrop won't be here next year?

And sadly we'll miss him, yes, sadly, I fear.
They gave a nice banquet in honor of "Dad,"
For us we are sorry, for him we are glad.
Zing, and the basketball went through the net,
The girls' team was chosen and it's the best yet.
There's a trifling matter of which I would speak,
Our triumph of Wiley, one which we did seek.

MARCH

The most excitingest things have gone through,
I can't tell you all, but I'll tell you a few,
Our trophy case now is entirely filled up
With trophies we've won from football to cup,
With a record of winnings as long as my arm
Our team's reputation has kept them from harm.
Our last barrier "Berned," our motto became
"On to Indianapolis, there lies our fame."
About this same tournament, much could be said,
But you know all about it so I'll go ahead.
The "Mikado" was given in which they did sing,
Our team had a banquet given by Dr. King.

APRIL

Orations, orations, the talk of the town,
When Don Johnson spoke there was never a frown.
So of all those who spoke in the county contest,
The judges decided Don Johnson was best.
Miss Suter thought best for the seniors to give
The play "Seven Chances" and long may it live!
The cast is the best, I will venture to say,
Of any that ever presented that play.

Oh say, can you dance? You should have been there,

What! You surely are nervy for asking me where,
Are you from the West or—well, where are you from?

The event of the year! 'Twas our Junior Prom.
And our own Tiger Prom was another event
'Twas much more enjoyed for 'twas just after Lent.

MAY

In the merry, delicious, sublim: month of May
A concert our orchestra's going to play.
Those who have grimly, unceasingly toiled,
Who the wiles of four years of Latin have foiled,
Were given a banquet. As Romans they came,
But their dignity vanished with joke and with game.

JUNE

June, with its sunshine and roses so gay,
June, the month of the graduation day.
One other day of much solemn portent
Is recognition day when all are content.
Now if you've been quite faithful, and rules obeyed,
When we all get our grades you will not be dismayed.
The Baccalaureate sermon the pastor will preach,
If possible, don't miss it, but go, I beseech.
The graduation dance is the next one; don't scoff,
Well, since you're disgusted, I guess I'll sign off.

The Campus Beautiful

As I walked to school this morning the thought came to me that I had trod these same steps every morning for almost four years, but I had never taken note of the loveliness by which I was surrounded. Then I began to visualize that building and its environments, which as I am about to graduate, have become so dear.

I saw the main building as it lay under a blanket of snow glittering with scintillating sunbeams. The trees, with their tracery of snow, formed a lacy network as a frame for the buildings' statuesque beauty. The windows, freshly polished, twinkled from their cushions of dark-hued stone. The doorway gave the impression of the smiling host as he bids welcome to those who wish to enter. Toward his friendly beckoning hand we happy young things go, for after all, here our chief interest is centered during our four years of study.

The tip of the gymnasium peeked over the top of trees at the side. I saw in my mind's eye the swimming pool over whose waters the sunbeams glanced and made queer patterns on the ceiling and through the twinkling waters. The pool seemed to be a study of mauve and white and apple green tile and sunshine sparkles. Adjoining this was a great room where students molded their bodies into perfect specimens of young womanhood and manhood by grotesque motions and contortions with the balls and bars with which our gymnasium is fitted.

Yonder wandered a bridle path which enticed the adventurer to mount his swift steed and be off through this white fairyland. In this way he may know the thrilling speed not made by mechanical devices.

I saw the rifle range where eyes were made keen and hands steady to better execute tasks which must be performed.

There was the great stadium where we, numbering into many thousands, had watched so many thrilling contests. Here we had wept or gone into transports of joy because of the movement of a ball in one direction or another. Here athletes had surpassed even their own capabilities, spurred on by the magic name "Central."

But, alas, as I suddenly came upon the real building, surrounded by dirty snow and huddled with rows of soot-blackened, ignominious looking houses, I realized that I must have been wandering in the land of fairies.

CALDRON

CALDRON

Drinking Fountains

The students of Central are acknowledged the most beautiful of the modern age. Their gorgeous coloring, their fine texture of skin, and their lovely glossy hair are more exquisite than even the much lauded beauty of the early Egyptians. Their eyes sparkle with zest for life and their feet are nimble in the dance as well as upon the field and floor of sport. Their minds are keen and eager as they sit at the feet of the great god Learning.

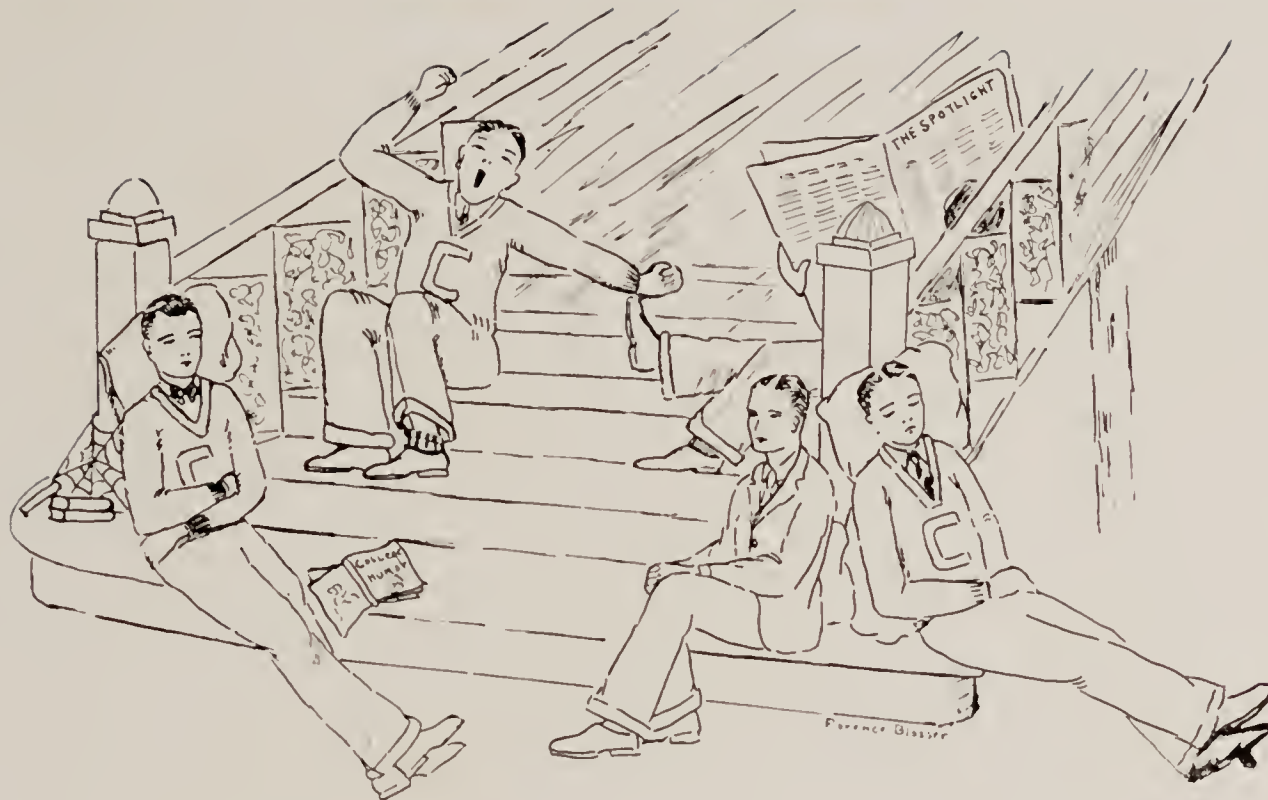

The honored fathers of Fort Wayne had a vision of the beautiful womanhood and manhood of their beloved city so they perused the books of beauty lore handed down by the early Egyptians. These musty volumes seemed to emphasize the custom of the Aphrodites and Apollos of Khufu's time to spend the greater part of their time bathing in the sparkling refreshing waters of the rivers and pools of their fair country. This, then, must be the chief reason for their wondrous beauty and grace.

When our fathers constructed the building which was to house their descendants as they sipped the cup extended to them by Learning, they determined to provide adequate facilities for this same cleansing pastimes. After many years spent abroad among the treasures of art of the ages in search for fountains suited to the worth of their posterity, they discovered twelve in the archives of an Italian palace built many centuries ago. These they guarded carefully on their long journey across the ocean.

As these stand in their shaded alcoves they bring thoughts to your fancy of the sweet flowers of spring as they, upon their pedestal of green, nod their brightly hued heads, gently swaying, as they are breathed upon by the softly whining winds.

They are of the pedestal design fashioned of glaring white marble and ornamentally, glistening silver. They are rarely beautiful as they spurt great sprays of crystal water high into the air. This water coming from the pure rock wells of the city is the great source of beauty for the students of Central.

Hypothetically speaking, we refer to the drinking fountains.

Knights of the Stairway

The most socially prominent organization in Central is known as the "Knights of the Stairway." The membership requirements are very strict as every member must have a hard-earned "C" emblazoned on his sweater. The purpose of this club is to circulate gossip and stories as quickly as possible through the halls. Every meeting must be full of the small talk which makes life so interesting.

Each morning the club holds regular meetings from 8:00 until 8:20 o'clock. Short sessions are held between each period, especially between the noon periods. The meetings in the morning allow the members to rest in the ample chairs and recuperate from the fatiguing exertions demanded by certain steps of the terpsichorean art now in vogue of which they are diligent students during the evening hours.

The club rooms are luxurious and comfortable, being furnished with deeply upholstered chairs, divans and chaise lounges. Interesting and profitable reading is provided by the club as each member is supplied with a copy of College Humor as the numbers are issued. It is the only reference book used as it contains all information which is desired or necessary. At the meetings some time is devoted to the discussion of the wit of each article and the members exchange the bright thoughts which they have had while studying the magazine. This, of course, is a very good way to uplift the moral and intellectual standard of those taking part. The members of the club, due to this study, compose the greatest intellect of the school.

After the discussion of College Humor comes the discussion of dates, cases, and girls in general. No boy who has looked twice in the direction of a girl escapes from their badinage. There are a certain few girls in Central—we are not permitted to mention names—for whose hands there is intense rivalry. Even one of the cheer leaders has sought membership in the club so that he may get the low-down on all gossip, as he has fallen for 'the wiles of one of these girls. The athletes we may forgive, but a cheer leader never. He is a model for the school, he must lose his heart to no one, nor must he idle hours in the library.

Mr. Croninger realizes the good that this club accomplishes, so he does all in his power to further interest in the club such as furnishing refreshments, allowing the club to hold meetings in school time, etc. He asks that every student in the school attend a meeting as a guest at sometime to see just what good work the club is doing. The meetings are held at the foot of the middle stairs.

Seven Ages

WE see the freshman as he scuds into dark corners, pale, trembling, and feeling infinitesimal as the mighty senior passes by. He peeks with awe at the school idol who swaggers down the hall with a mob of girls dogging his every step.

We see the shy sophomore as he gazes at the fair-haired girl he would fain have for his own. She in turn centers her dreams about this same school idol and the small sophomore seethes with envy. Thus love's young dreams are shattered.

We see the athlete full of strange oaths as he wears jauntily his flaming scarf and black slouch hat with its merry red ribbon, proud, but with an air of indifference. He spends all his time at the foot of the stairs in the lower hall and talks manfully of battle, women and song.

We see the junior as, mad with rage, he gets his 349th collateral reading for that week. He does collateral readings to the exclusion of all else. If he is wealthy he buys the fruit of someone's diligence of the year before. If he does this he may find time for a ten-minute date on Friday evenings.

We see the lover as he talks passionately with the coveted girl of sophomore days. He is no longer shy but watches boldly and eagerly for her coy glances. He spends four minutes and fifty-nine seconds between each class discoursing to her on the beauty of her eyes, hair, mouth, etc.

We see the senior as he, omniscient, dissertates languidly on metaphysics. He offers solutions for all great problems of mankind. His seat is reserved in the library and he talks intimately with the librarians. He is now cold, cynical, sophisticated—a man of the world.

We see the man as he graduates, realizing that he is entering the treadmill sans brains, sans knowledge, sans everything but hope and ambition. He sees how small he is, how inexperienced, but he is full of the determination to buck against and conquer the world.

Champion Subscription Team

Early this year a big subscription drive was put on for the CALDRON. Every member of the CALDRON staff was made the head of a committee to sell subscriptions, and each chose two people to serve on his committee. There was a mad scramble to get the best salesmen, for the reward was set as a page in the CALDRON, dedicated to the team getting the greatest number of subscriptions.

The drive started off with a bang and every person in school was solicited. There was keen competition among the staff members and the race was neck and neck for sometime. However, Ruth Walhausen and her sure-fire team-mates, Mandolin Cromwell and Harold Brueckner, came out far ahead with one hundred subscriptions. Ruth is well known in school for her energy which she doesn't hesitate to use when called upon. Harold is well liked as is evidenced by the total of subscriptions that he sold. Mandolin is famous for her ability to inveigle people into buying most anything. It is to such people as these, who have the ability to get things done, that the CALDRON owes its success.

CALDRON

CALDRON

Some of our Football
Heroes in action.
by Madolin White.

HERBERT BILLINGSLY

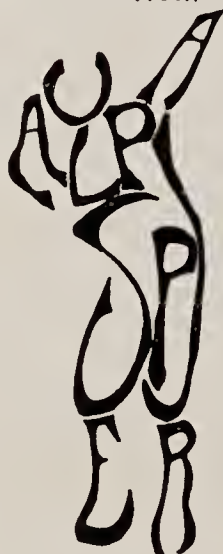

CLIFFORD MEEK

ALBERT WORTON

JIM BAKER

PAUL JASPER

ROME ZINK

HERMAN STEIGLER

BOB RAMSEY

After the classes have passed

Our unbalanced Faculty

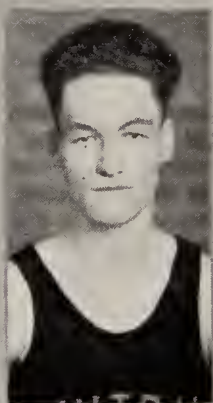

Operator-
Odna L. Roe

Boosters All

CALDRON

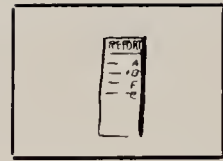

CALDRON

THE TAILLITE

Vol. 1—No. 1

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

FORT WAYNE, IND.

CENTRAL HIGH BURNS DOWN

DONALD CASEY HONORED AT HOMECOMING PARTY GIVEN IN HIS HONOR

Presented Track Shoe by President of U. S.

STARTS HOME AUG. 21

Donald Casey, star of Central High School, won highest honors in the Olympic games held in Paris, France, on July 8th to 11th.

Mr. Casey broke records for the shot-put and also for several dashes. Upon his return to his native country on the Leviathan he was met at the dock in New York by President Coolidge, all the members of the cabinet, many senators and the embassy from Greenland, who escorted him to Ritz Hotel, where an eleven-course banquet was given in his honor. At the close of the ninth course the President arose and made a presentation speech in which he greatly lauded Mr. Casey. After which he pinned upon his breast a gold track shoe with platinum shoe strings.

At the end of the tenth course Donald Casey arose and made a speech of acceptance which moved all of the guests to tears.

After the dinner a reception was held in his honor for all other Washington notables and friends of Mr. Casey. The grandniece of the wife of the governor of Nevada, Mrs. Henry Plume, presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted by the mother-in-law of the Bolivian ambassador, the Countess of Cathcart, and Millicent Rodgers, former Countess von Salm.

After the reception a select group accompanied Mr. Casey to a small dinner party at the Hotel Astor. After which the party attended a theatre on "Broadway."

After the show was over the party went to an inn near where a buffet supper was served.

After being entertained royally the honor guest returned to his hotel, where he expects to remain for a few days in order to see New York. Mr. Casey intends to start west on the 21st of August.

CENTRAL STUDENTS ELOPE

Parents Give Chase But Are Too Late.

Mr. Richard Shoaff and Miss Hazel Roberts were married at Hillsdale after an elopement last Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Shoaff, in company of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, gave chase to the young couple who are both pupils of Central High School, but the Stutz racer, owned by Mr. Richard Shoaff, proved itself a faster car than the one which carried the older couples. The parents arrived just in time to see them pronounced man and wife. An effort is being made to annul the marriage on account of the ages of the young couple.

PREPARATION NOW BEING MADE FOR BIG 4TH OF JULY FOOTBALL GAME

Final arrangements are now being made for a football game to be held at the South Side stadium between the Varsity Girls team of South Side and Central. The game promises to be an interesting one and the attendance of everyone who is able to come is solicited.

WM. SHAKESPEARE WRITES NEW NOVEL

Book Entitled "No Soap."

William Shakespeare, a coming writer of the time, has written a new novel entitled, "No Soap," in which the writer points out the advantages of socialism.

This volume is one of many which the author started while abroad this last summer. This novel, it is thought, will vie for the title of the year's best seller.

PROMISING ATHLETE STARTS TRAINING

Murray Mendenhall, Jr., son of our basketball coach, has started to train for the coming basketball season. He is on a special milk diet.

No More School Until September.

STUDENTS MOURN LOSS

Blaze Starts in Chemistry
Room on Third Floor;
Origin Remains a Mystery.

Just as the day approached the zero hour on last Tuesday a blaze started in the Chemistry Laboratory on the third floor of the Central High School building. The blaze spread rapidly and a fire alarm was sounded. The pupils, not knowing of their peril, marched joyously down the stairways and into the streets, thinking only of the class time they were missing.

When the crowd noticed the fire engines coming toward the school, it realized the loss which it must endure.

The blaze was a hard one to check and the firemen remained on duty for eight hours. All this time the pupils and teachers, with tears in their eyes, stood in the scorching sun watching and looking for the slightest hope of encouragement.

The origin of this fire still remains a mystery, but it is generally thought that a teacher crept stealthily into the room and started the heart-breaking blaze, hoping that the blame would be laid upon Mr. Dilts, the instructor of chemistry.

A report of the superintendent's office verified the belief that no effort will be made to continue school and that the damage would be replaced by next September if the stone structure proves strong enough to hold the new structure.

JAMES BAKER WINS RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

James Baker, an honor student with an average of 95.89 for his four years of high school, has been awarded the Cecil Rhodes Scholarship and will be sent to Oxford to study.

Advertising

THIS opportunity is taken to thank our advertisers who have really made this book possible through their generous support. The student body is urged to prove itself worthy of this support by more careful direction of their patronage among these advertisers. They have goods of perfect quality to offer at attractive prices, and will give the best of service in return for your whole-hearted support.

FIRST---

It's only natural that the first page of ads in "THE CALDRON" should go to us. It is the first place the fellows go, to get correct things.

Elmer E. Smith

Lewis at Lafayette

"The Store That Satisfies"

Complete Printing Service

OUR FORT WAYNE PLANT

We Completely Build Folders, Catalogs, Books, Directories, Magazines, and All Forms of Printed Literature

Every Detail From Conception to Completion of All Printed or Lithographed Products With All Departments Organized and Co-ordinated to Produce the Best Possible Quality. Occupying Our Own Building. Equipped With Latest Machinery in All Departments to Produce Maximum Efficiency.

OUR LANSING, MICHIGAN, PLANT

Photo-Engraving, Electrotyping

The Finest Color-Printing and Deluxe Edition Printing and Bookbinding

Complete Advertising Campaigns Planned and Executed

House Organs Edited

The Fort Wayne Printing Co.

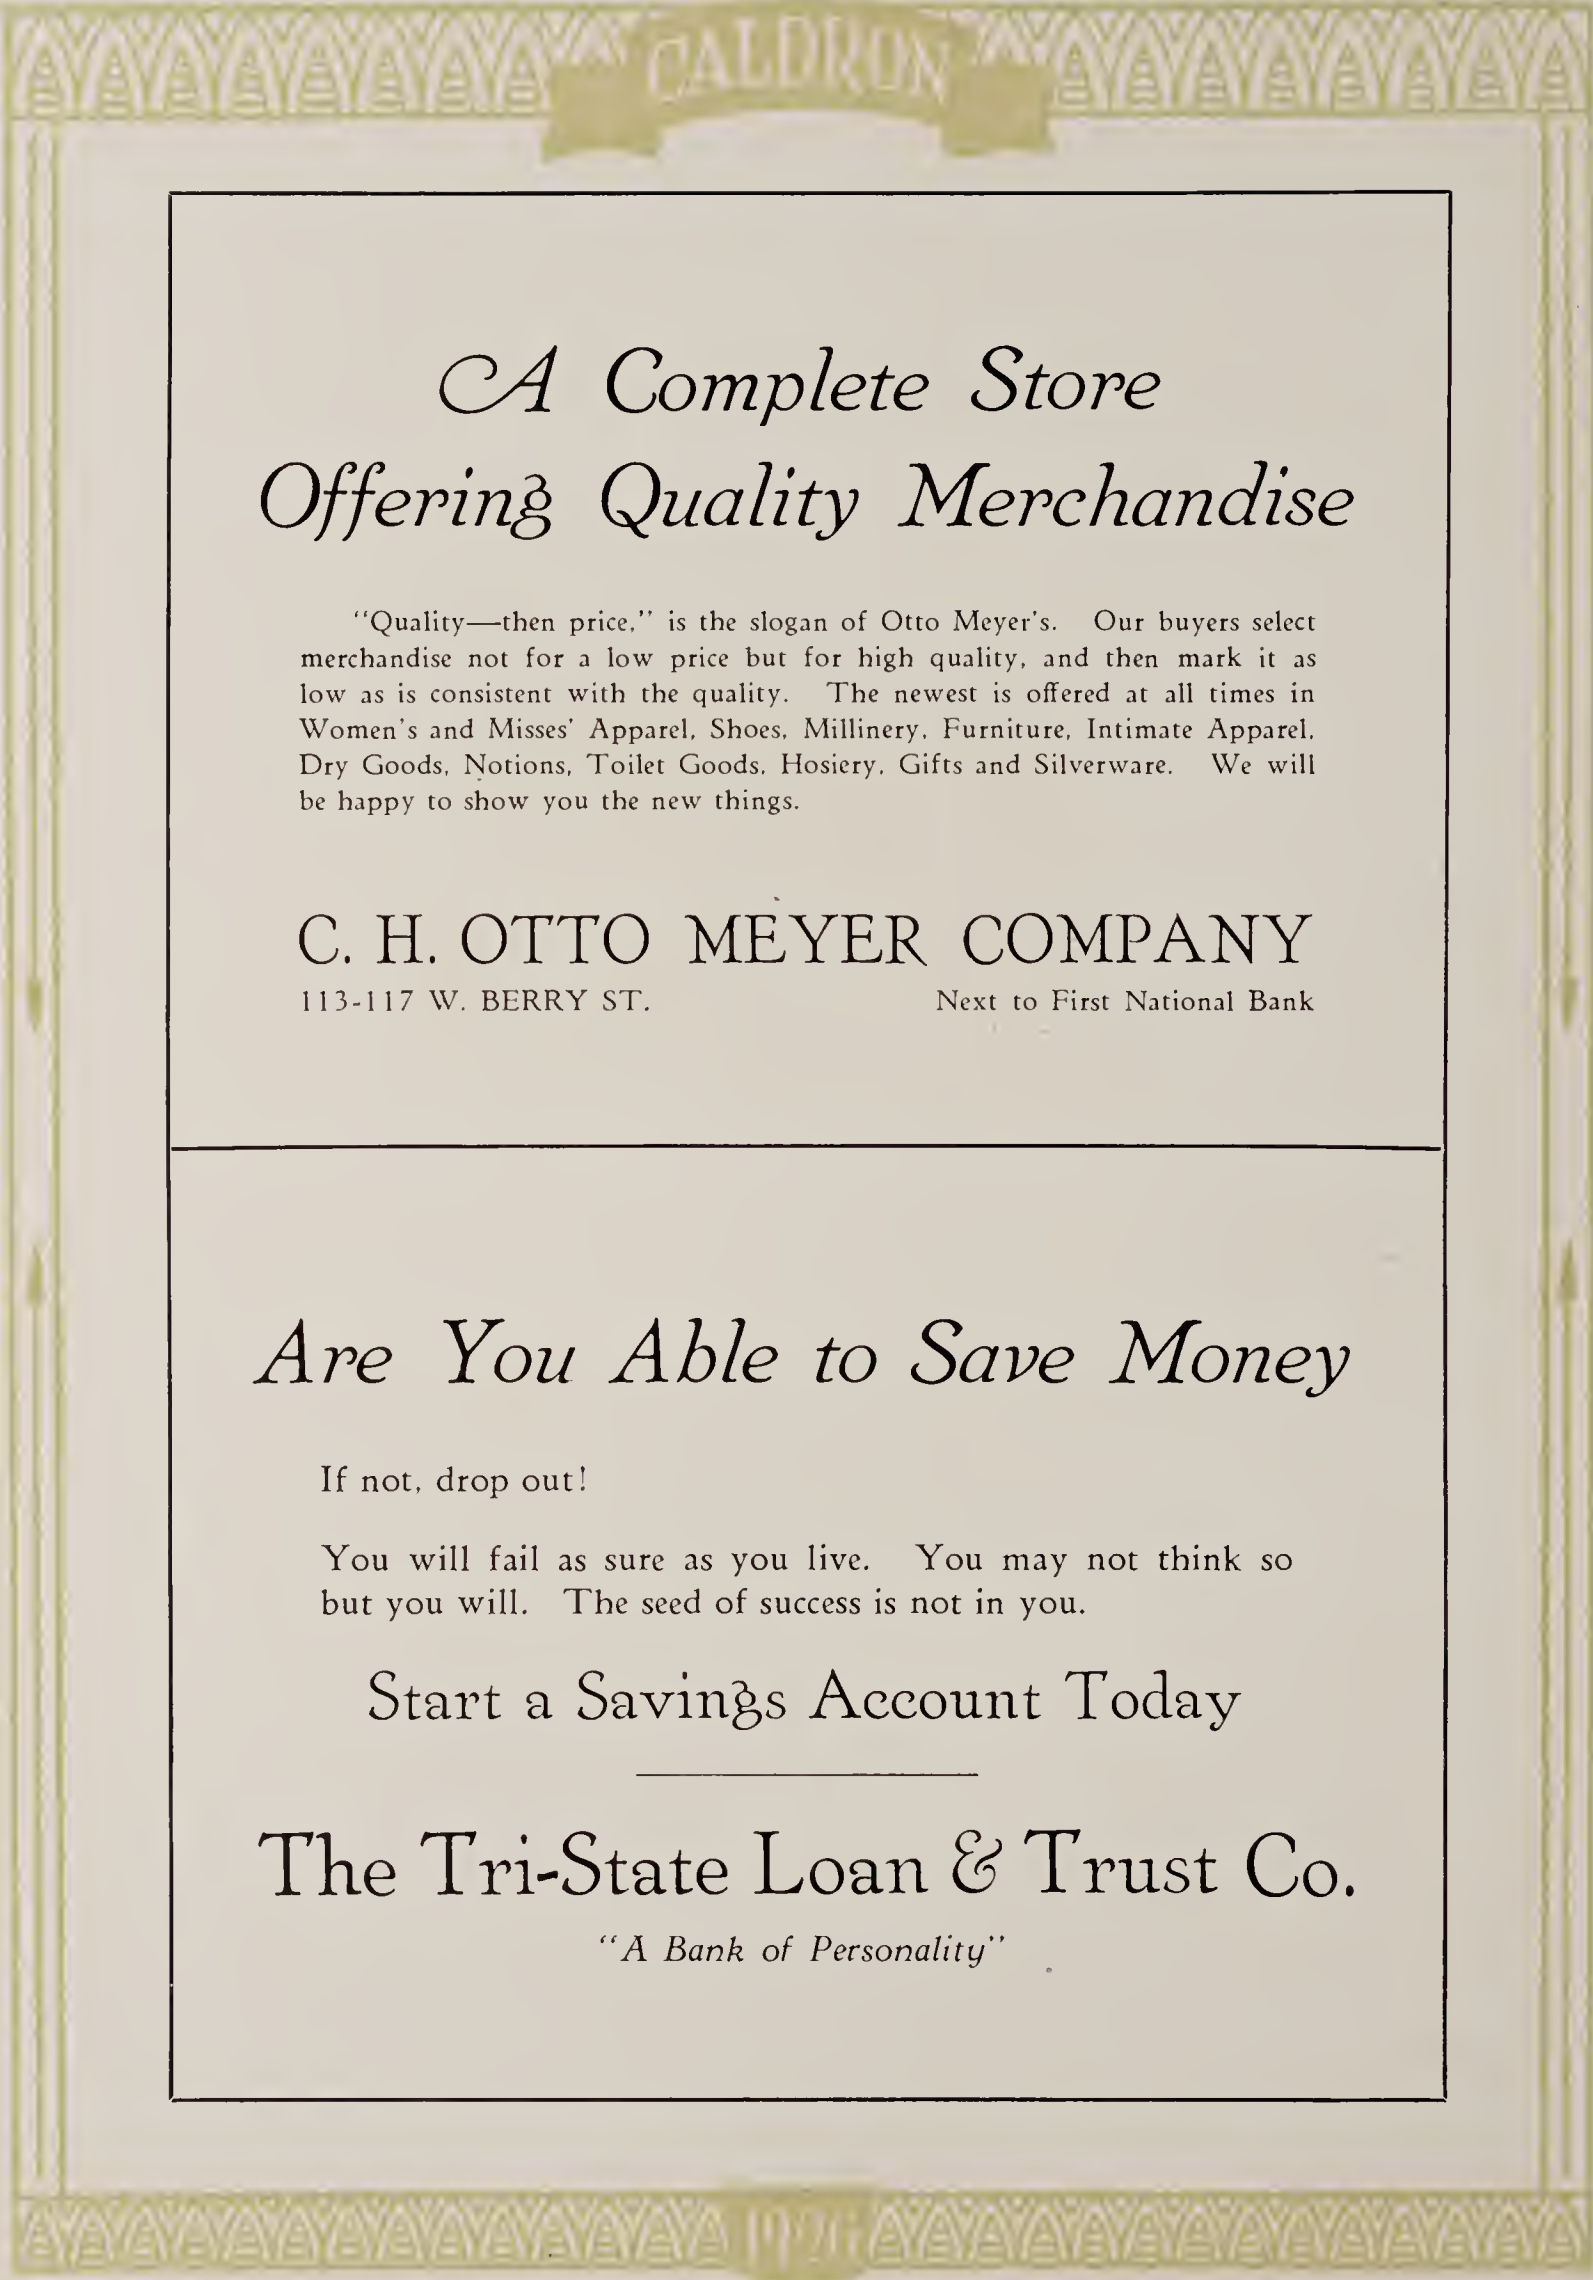

PRINTING CRAFTS BUILDING
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Off-Set Lithographers, Bank and Commercial Printers and Binders, Process Color Work, High Class Catalogs, Publications, Blank Books, Loose Leaf Systems

WHOLESALE STATIONERS

ENVELOPE MANUFACTURERS

"THE MOST COMPLETE ORGANIZATION OF ITS KIND IN AMERICA"

A Complete Store Offering Quality Merchandise

"Quality—then price," is the slogan of Otto Meyer's. Our buyers select merchandise not for a low price but for high quality, and then mark it as low as is consistent with the quality. The newest is offered at all times in Women's and Misses' Apparel, Shoes, Millinery, Furniture, Intimate Apparel, Dry Goods, Notions, Toilet Goods, Hosiery, Gifts and Silverware. We will be happy to show you the new things.

C. H. OTTO MEYER COMPANY

113-117 W. BERRY ST.

Next to First National Bank

Are You Able to Save Money

If not, drop out!

You will fail as sure as you live. You may not think so but you will. The seed of success is not in you.

Start a Savings Account Today

The Tri-State Loan & Trust Co.

"A Bank of Personality"

Quality—Satisfaction—Service

Office of the Homebuilders Supply Co.

We have a Finance Plan to Contractors that will enable you to build your home now.

We have the right supplies and building materials at the right prices.

HOMEBUILDERS SUPPLY CO.

1515 Wabash Avenue

Anthony 1357

HEIT CANDY CO.

1325 Calhoun Street

Emrick-Downing Bakery

1122 Broadway

Fort Wayne Blue Print & Supply Co.

DRAWING MATERIALS

BLUE PRINTS and PHOTOSTAT PRINTING

"Complete Service to the Architect and Engineer"

1104 Calhoun Street

Anthony 4142

Have You Thought---

About the difference in the percentage of INTEREST between 4% and 5%?

$100.00 deposited at 4% compounded semi-annually will earn $48.00 in ten years.

$100.00 deposited at 5% compounded semi-annually will earn $63.00 in ten years.

THE MORRIS PLAN pays 5% per annum—interest computed semi-annually.

THE MORRIS PLAN

217 EAST BERRY STREET

Are You Going to College Next Fall?

Take our course and you can work as a Pharmacist or Analytical Chemist. The work is interesting, and the professions are uncrowded. We cannot supply the demands for our graduates.

Most of our students earn their expenses by working in drug stores outside of college hours, averaging from $10.00 to $15.00 per week.

This college is twenty-two years old, and has the largest enrollment of any such college in the state.

Send for catalog and interesting information

INDIANAPOLIS COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

Indianapolis, Indiana

PARKER DUOFOLD FOUNTAIN PENS
SCHEAFFER LIFETIME FOUNTAIN PENS

GRADUATION CARDS

Eaton-Crane and Pike Stationery

Dennison's Party Favors and Decorations

CENTRAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT CO.

Phone A-9161 120 W. Washington

CLYDE F. DREISBACH

Realtor

Graduate of Central High, 1897
Pays the Freight on this Space

Graduation Gifts

BRUDER-CALHOUN CO.

Jewelers and Designers

Calhoun Street, Corner Wayne

If You Want Something Fine in Near Beer Buy the Best

BUDWEISER

and

SCHLITZ

S. BAUM & CO.

Sole Distributors

BEACON SHOES

$6 ONE PRICE

For

MEN AND WOMEN

A new Fort Wayne product

“SWEET-PLUS”

“Disc-O-Mints” and Fruit Drops

“Destined to Become a National Favorite”

Five Cent Packages Nine Flavors

Sold Everywhere

SWEET-PLUS, Inc., Fort Wayne, Ind.

The Central High is a Builder of Character

HILGEMAN & SCHAAF
Realtors

are Builders of Modern Homes—the Type of Homes which Home Lovers Enjoy

This year, too, we call your attention to our fine new sections of South Wood Park—just the place to build a home.

If you want a Suburban Place,
select a Home Site on our Beverly Heights—on the Lima road, north of the city.

HILGEMAN & SCHAAF, Realtors

Hilgeman & Schaaf Building

Wayne and Clinton Streets

Dreier's Say:

PURE and SURE DRUGS

Dreier Drug Co.

526 CALHOUN ST.

Louis Fortriede

DEPENDABLE FOOTWEAR

Phone Anthony 8101

615 CALHOUN ST.

A Freshman College Course

Given in Fort Wayne During the Year 1926-27 for

1926 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

By

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Through

THE FORT WAYNE EXTENSION CENTER of INDIANA UNIVERSITY EXTENSION DIVISION

NOTE:—These college courses will be offered of evenings at Central High School beginning Monday evening, September 20, 1926.

ADVANTAGES:—You can earn by day and learn in the evening; you can be at home; you can get your education this way more cheaply; it will help you to determine what line of work you are best fitted for; you can enter some university next fall with advanced standing.

SIX SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE GIVEN TO 1926 GRADUATES

(Consult your high school principal concerning these.)

Come to Our Office, Indiana University Extension Center, 3rd Floor, Court House, Fort Wayne, Ind., or Telephone Anthony 7452

"It Came from Wolf & Dessauer"

This expression, which is so common, has a world of meaning. It means pride of ownership, sureness of style and quality and certain satisfaction. More than a million and a half individual sales transactions last year testify to this.

Wolf & Dessauer

"Northern Indiana's Great Store"

"Our College Shop"

Is the Place Where the Best Dressed Young Men of Fort Wayne Buy Their Clothes.

Patterson-Fletcher Co.

"The Store That Does Things"

92 Years of Service

For almost a century dedicated to the service of Fort Wayne

The News-Sentinel

Has kept the faith and to this may properly be attributed the growth of this newspaper to pre-eminence among Northern Indiana dailies. "It's In the News" has come to be a by-word in Fort Wayne but with The NEWS-SENTINEL it is more than a catch phrase—
it is a solemn pledge.

CALDRON

WAYNE PHARMACAL CO.

West Berry and Ewing Streets
Fort Wayne, Indiana

Anthony Wayne Institute

College of Commerce

Business Needs You

Courses:

Accounting Business Law Business Administration
Income Tax Cost-finding Salesmanship
Advertising
Stenography
Typewriting
Office Training
Secretarial Studies
Filing and Office
Systematizing
Business English
Sales-letter Writing

Extension and Resident Schools

Summer Term
Commencing
June 7, 1926

Fall Term
Commencing
Sept. 6, 1926

For Catalog

Address:

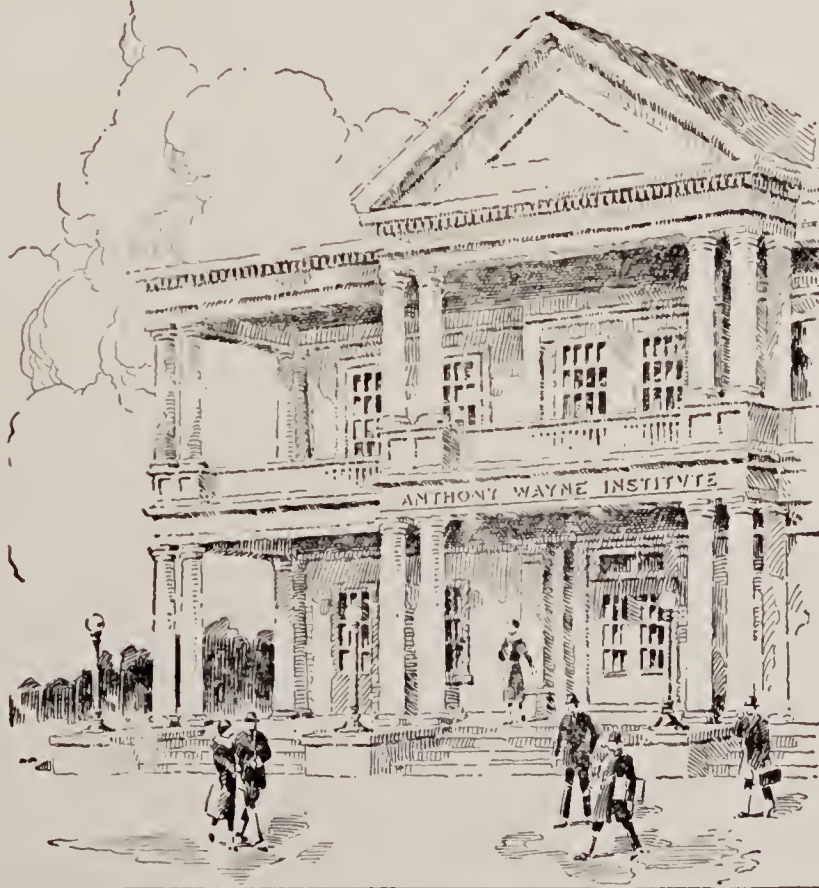

J. R. ZIMMERMAN
President

Anthony Wayne Institute

Fort Wayne, Indiana

Business increasingly dominates and directs all activities—the arts, professions, sciences and social progress. You can accomplish most for your day and generation and do it with quicker results through the channels of business. For the well-equipped, promotion is rapid, financial rewards certain, the day's work full of the thrill and stimulation of worth-while accomplishment.

Anthony Wayne Institute is a college of commerce that equips you for a business life. It will send you out thoroughly trained and ready for the responsibilities business is eager to place upon your shoulders. It enrolls only those who have a high school education or who can meet college entrance requirements.

Select A Good Bank

A GOOD banking connection is a valuable business asset. That is why young men and young women like the FIRST NATIONAL OF FORT WAYNE.

As you enter the business world it is essential that you choose a good bank—a bank strong enough to command your implicit confidence and big enough to help you grow. The day you select the bank for your future is an important day on your calendar.

Ask at the Information Desk for one of our celluloid pocket calendars. It contains a calendar for this year, last year and next year—very convenient for daily reference.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of FORT WAYNE
“As Big As Your Future”

For Cleansing Satisfaction

TROY
DEPENDABLE DRY CLEANING

Just Dial H-1133

The KNABE Piano

The perfect product of American Art

The AMPICO

Re-enacts the Artist

The FISCHER Piano

King Cole Radio Receivers

Who could wish for a finer variety of musical instruments to select from? We also carry a full line of Radio supplies and the latest popular sheet music.

Linus N. Link

304 East Wayne

Fort Wayne, Indiana

SERVICE

YOU "press the button and the light is there."

And behind the switch? Not just a few wires in the house and a meter—but an organization of men and women—poles and towers—miles of distribution lines, generators—boilers—automatic stokers—things seldom seen, perhaps—but they are there.

To deliver abundant power—power which multiplies human effort—power for the everyday household task—power for the large industries—to deliver power any time, on the instant.

That is the meaning of "Service."

Traction Light

Don't Say BREAD

Say

HOLSUM

Wm. F. Bradtmiller

DRYGOODS AND GENT'S FURNISHINGS

1033-1035 Maumee Avenue

Phone A-1201

H. W. MEINZEN

Deutsche Apotheke

Dispensing Chemist

1129 Maumee Ave., Cor. University
Fort Wayne, Indiana

When You Have RUSH JOBS

give them to

CLEARY & BAILEY

Prompt Printers

"Always on Time"

1118 Calhoun Street
Opposite Cathedral
Dial A-7282

Fort Wayne's Finest Men's Store

Adler Bros. and Stein-Bloch Clothing

Stetson and Schoble Hats

Manhattan and Emery Shirts

WE WANT YOUR PATRONAGE AND WE ARE EQUIPPED TO MERIT IT

Quality and Service

SHIELDS-WINTERROWD COMPANY

West Berry Street

The KRYDER CO.

Realtors

224 E. BERRY STREET

PEOPLES SAVINGS & TRUST CO.

913 Calhoun Street

When You Eat
SCHLOSSER'S OAK GROVE
ICE CREAM

You Get Something Good

JOHN C. KOEGAL DIAMONDS, WATCHES AND JEWELRY

Repairing a Specialty

1309 Broadway
Fort Wayne, Indiana

MAKE this store your store. We are endeavoring to buy things for the people in Northern Indiana that are just a little different and nicer. We also want you to appreciate that we are anxious to serve you and help you select the things for your home than just to sell you something. Won't you please bear this in mind when in need of things for the home? We want your home to be comfortable, livable, and lovable.

Very cordially,

FOSTER-RAHE FURNITURE CO.

By FRANK J. RAHE, Mgr.

MANATH'S PHARMACY

1415 State Street

FORT WAYNE

INDIANA

C. E. KLEIN SPORTING GOODS AND BICYCLES

1318 Calhoun Street

Then and Now

THE DOOR OF OPPORTUNITY

Home Office Entrance Lincoln National Life

When Robert Fulton built the first steamboat he called it the "Clermont." The wise guys took a look at the queer contraption and snickered. But "Fulton's Folly" revolutionized the shipping of the world.

Robert Fulton also made arrangements with a New York Bank for the payment of his estate in installments to his family after his death. This was twenty years before the first legal reserve life insurance reserve company was organized. Then the wise guys KNEW he was crazy.

But Robert Fulton left each of his four children an income of $500 per year. And while his wife was collecting $9,000, Bill

Goofus, leader of the Anvil Chorus, stood in the city gates with only one suspender.

Twenty years ago the Lincoln Life started with two tables for desks and a determination to succeed. Life insurance then was not the profession it is today and there were plenty of Bill Goofuses.

But safe, sound, sure; founded on principles eternally right, this Company forged ahead, to a place of mighty influence in the business world. Like him whose name it bears, Lincoln National Life is dedicated to humanity in the service of young and old.

THE LINCOLN NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

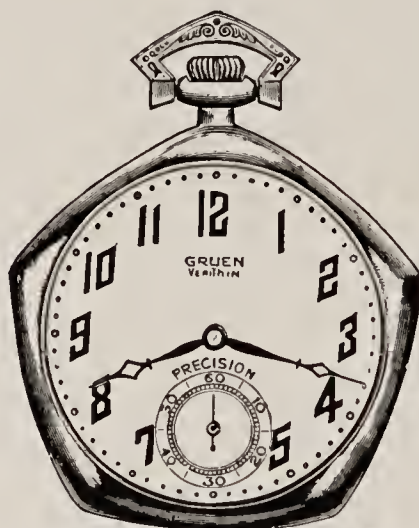

"Its Name Indicates Its Character"

Lincoln Life Building

Fort Wayne, Indiana

More Than $400,000,000 in Force

The Mark of Prestige---

GRUEN PENTAGON PATENTED

Priced at $75.00; Others
from $30.00 and Up

Koerber's on the Gift Box, a mark of prestige gratifying both to the giver and recipient.

For 61 years, this name has been a symbol of quality and the utmost in style and fine workmanship, carrying with it the confidence of thousands of satisfied customers.

When in quest of the unusual — the new — the practical, you will find at Koerber's the finest expression of the jeweler's art, and at moderate prices that are consistent with quality.

KOERBER'S

818-20 CALHOUN

The Bank of Personal Service

DEPOSITS OVER $6,000,000

Lincoln National Bank

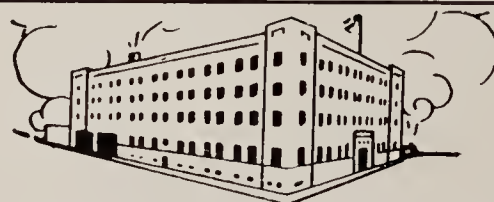

FORT WAYNE, IND.

Ewing's

"Goods Things to Eat"

124 W. WAYNE STREET

Also D. & N. Fountain, Calhoun at Jefferson

BURSLEY & COMPANY

Fort Wayne, Indiana

The Home of

LITTLE ELF

FOOD PRODUCTS and

BURSLEY'S

HIGH GRADE COFFEE

Compliments of

L. E. BOWMAN

CHRYSLER MOTOR CARS

323-327 EAST WASHINGTON BLVD.

A-0248

C. C. Schlatter & Co.

THE HOUSE OF GOOD HARDWARE

Clinton and Columbia Streets

13 DEPARTMENTS

Builders' Hardware
Mechanics' Tool Mill Supply
Builders' Material
Agricultural Tool Cutlery
Sporting Goods
Kitchen Utensil
Home Appliance
Lawn and Garden Tool
Household Hardware
Paint, Oil and Varnish Glass

"IF IT'S A GOOD THING SCHLATTER'S HAVE IT"

Congratulations

From

"Fort Wayne's Dependable
Apparel Store

SAUL'S

1025 Calhoun Street

Do You Know This? Others Do

That it's a mighty good thing for Fort Wayne to have a store like Dessauer Brothers Co. A store where sound and trustworthy merchandise at fairest price levels can be found at all times. A store where quality and value are always correctly represented.

Where interested salespeople seek to serve every customer's need. A store that appreciates your smallest wants and with facilities to take care of your every requirement.

DESSAUER BROS. CO.

On Berry Street, Across from the Court House

Compliments

Fort Wayne Drug Co.

ROGERS
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

824 Calhoun St.

Stores at Springfield, Ill., and Lima, Ohio

"Save with Safety"
Meyer's 14 Rexall
DRUG STORES

REGARDING PROGRESS

During the past year two stores were added to our growing chain which now consists of fourteen, located at Fort Wayne, Anderson, Kokomo, Muncie, Noblesville, Richmond and South Bend.

SUCCESS

A noted writer defines success as a composite of energy, enterprise, endurance, economy and ethics. Whether or not our success is based upon these and other principles, remember, please, that you are always welcome at Meyer's drug stores.

A. C. AURENTZ

Fort Wayne's Foremost Confectioner

Thirty-five years ago Mr. Aurentz started in a very modest way to manufacture candies; today Aurentz's Chocolates are shipped to every state in the union and to all parts of the world. This is something which cannot be said of any other candy manufactured in the United States and can only be said of Aurentz's because they are in a class by themselves and their proven superiority and deliciousness make it worth while for the individual to go to the trouble of ordering Aurentz's by mail. Shipped direct from the factory, freshness is assured, quality unexcelled, parcel post and insurance prepaid, thus making the price the same as when buying direct at our retail store.

Mr. Aurentz has recently added a light lunch department to his store on Wayne street. His ambition is to have his lunches as superior to others as his candies are; sandwiches, salads, pies, cakes, etc., are to be unexcelled and his service first class. Make Aurentz's store your headquarters, for there you will find all that is best in fountain refreshments, candies and light lunches.

There May Come a Time in Your Life

—for it comes to almost all of us sooner or later—when the endorsement or recommendation of a good bank will mean a great deal to you. Credit and confidence once established constitute a valuable asset.

If you hope some day to engage in a business of your own—NOW is the time to establish relations with this bank.

Though your start be modest,—when the time comes you will have your bank account as a basis for capital and credit.

The Old National Bank of Fort Wayne

Established 1835

Two Real Good Places to Eat

HOME

and the

Y. M. C. A. CAFETERIA

Reliable---

Rurode's

Established 1860

The MILLER CANDY CO.

Jobbers

Second Street at Wells

Bunte Bros. and Catawba
Brand

CANDIES

5c and 10c Bar Specialties

Better Service at Our New Home

Baade-Keil Co.

123 WEST MAIN STREET

Half Block West of Transfer Corner

Fort Wayne
Typesetting Co.

106-108 W. SUPERIOR ST.

Telephone A-1273

Books and Stationery, School Supplies, Pictures and Picture Framing, Wall Papers, Paints

COMPARE THESE PICTURES

Both illustrations were made from the same photograph but notice the difference between them. The one on the left is "flat." It lacks contrast and has no depth. But that on the right is quite different. In it you will find not only depth, detail, contrast, and other mechanical traits, but you will find all of the character and charming personality of the young lady who "sat for her picture."

This difference has been obtained by careful hand work. Brushes, crayons and paint have been skillfully used on the plate in addition to the ordinary etching fluids. Naturally it requires artists to apply these mediums in the most effective manner, and it is through the employment of high grade men that "Bond" has earned the reputation of producing only the very finest of halftone engravings.

It was through "Bond's" ability to handle such work that he was selected to engrave the plates used in this annual, and you are invited to inspect every illustration, outside of the advertising section, with a critical eye.

BOND ENGRAVING COMPANY

Market Square

Fort Wayne, Indiana

"Printing Service That Satisfies"

The HOOSIER PRESS

Fort Wayne Paper Box Co.

DESIGNERS ENGRAVERS PRINTERS and BINDERS

Phone Anthony 8111

Calhoun at Superior

The Anylite Electric Co.

extends greetings and best wishes to the Seniors of Central High. May you attain the goal of your ambition, remembering always that "The moving finger writes; and, having writ, moves on."—(Omar Khayyam-Fitzgerald).

King Cole Radio Receivers, King Cole Magnet and Aerial Wire, Anylite Regulators and Plugs. Guaranteed specialties for the home.

ANYLITE ELECTRIC CO.

Fort Wayne, Indiana

Anylite Regulator

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY

Valparaiso, Indiana

Dedicated to the Highest Ideals in Education

OPENING DATES:

Summer Term, June 14th—Fall Term, October 4th

DIVISIONS

ARTS AND SCIENCE DEPARTMENTS: English (Including Public Speaking), Modern Languages, Classical Languages, History and the Social Sciences, Mathematics, Chemistry, Physics, Biological Sciences.

HOME ECONOMICS SECTION:

Special pre-medical, pre-dental, and pre-legal curricula.

TEACHERS COLLEGE: Accredited by Indiana State Board of Education as a Standard Normal School. Four-year courses for high school positions. Two-year courses for elementary school licenses.

MUSIC DEPARTMENTS: Voice, Piano, Violin, Orchestral Instruments. Complete courses in Public School Music.

LAW: Prepares for the practice of law in all states.

PHARMACY: Three- and four-year curricula. "One of the best Colleges of Pharmacy in the country."

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENTS: Civil, Chemical, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering.

COMMERCE: College curricula in Accounting, Business Administration, Business Law, Commerce and Economics.

CO-EDUCATIONAL—LOW COST OF LIVING

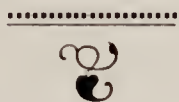

For information write to

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY

Administrative Offices, Valparaiso, Indiana

CALDRON

Pfeiffer's

57 Years a Hardware Store

Corsage Bouquets

Fort Wayne's Popular Flower Shop

DOSWELL
FLORAL CO.

Live-Wire Florists

Quality Flowers Fresh Every Morning

Personal Service that Satisfies

301 West Main Street

Compliments of

Dudlo Manufacturing Corporation

A Toast to the Seniors---

"May your graduation be the first step along the road of accomplishments and success!"

TOASTIE SANDWICH SHOPS

No. 1, 131 West Berry

H. A. CLEMENS, Prop.

No. 2, 1007 Calhoun

NUCOA

BUTTERS BREAD STAYS SWEET

CLARK FRUIT CO.

Distributors

A. C. GOCKE

CANDY
SODA

Northwest Corner Broadway and Washington Boulevard

Phone A-3277

HAVE FINE FURNITURE IN YOUR HOME AND CASH IN THE BANK

Here is an easy way to possess furniture yet not feel its cost. Come in and select whatever you wish, pay a small amount down, and divide the balance into easy payments extending over a year. You will never feel a financial strain, and you will enjoy immediately the comfort and happiness that fine furniture brings. It has been our privilege and pleasure to furnish many homes on this plan. Why not yours?

HADLEY'S

1013-1017 CALHOUN STREET

"The Store That Saves You Money"

YOU NEED AS MUCH NOURISHMENT AS A LUMBERJACK!

"A Maine lumberjack needs 5,000 calories a day. School children of 12 years and over need as much—but many are being cheated out of 1,500 calories every day. The large numbers of under-nourished and underweight children in our schools show that they, as a rule, receive too little rather than too much food."—WILLIAM PALMER LUCAS, Child Health Magazine.

We have striven for 25 years to produce the finest quality baked goods in the United States—P. W. Crackers, Perfection Bread, Bamby Bread, Double-Duty Bread, Whole Wheat Bread, and the most delicious assortment of cakes and cookies—all pure and wholesome—just the kind of healthful nourishment that puts the spring, dash and vigor of a young tiger into the bodies of growing youngsters!

YOUR GROCER HAS FRESH PERFECTION FOODS DAILY!

PERFECTION BISCUIT COMPANY

Fort Wayne, Indiana

SIEB & PETTIT HARDWARE

PEERLESS BOILER PLATE and RUDY FURNACES

Let Us Take Care of Your Roofing and Spouting

1122 State St.

A-9183

GIVE YOU TIME FOR THINGS WORTH WHILE

EAT THE BEST

AIKEN'S

PURE CAKE

ICE CREAM CONES

Ask for Them

CRYSTAL Bottling Works

Carbonated
Beverages

Phone H-1164

1812 Fairfield Ave.

The Crystal Bottling Works at 1812 Fairfield Ave., produces the purest of carbonated beverages. Pure water, cane sugar, and only the best of flavoring extracts are used in Crystal Products. A visit to the plant would be appreciated.

MR. SPEAKER.

Appreciation

In appreciation of the splendid services rendered by students of Central High School, who are carriers for the Journal-Gazette, this space is donated.

The carriers of the Journal-Gazette have a splendid reputation for giving good service. Most of the boys are high school students who are desirous of attending college. The profits derived from the routes of the Journal-Gazette are a big help to our carriers and many of the boys have found it possible to save enough money through the earnings from their routes to pay their way through college.

Good Health—Good Profits—Good Training

Is the Lot of the Carrier of

THE JOURNAL-GAZETTE

A Real Food Dessert

FURNAS ICE CREAM

"THE CREAM OF QUALITY"

ADDS VIM, VIGOR AND VITALITY TO MIND AND BODY

Sold by leading Druggists and Confectioners in many cities

Factories:

Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, Terre Haute, South Bend, Ind.
Columbus and Akron, Ohio; St. Louis, Mo.

Photography of Any Description

For
"PORTRAITS OF DISTINCTION"

Visit Our MODERN NEW STUDIO

In the Beautiful News-Sentinel Building, Barr at Washington Street

Congratulations to You Graduates of 1926. May the Future Hold the Greatest of Success.

CENTRAL HIGH PHOTOGRAPHERS.

Only a year old and steadily coming to the front as Fort Wayne's leading photographic industry. Quality and service is building our business.

Our Commercial Department Offers Every Photographic Service:

Photographs—of interiors, exteriors, groups, machinery, furniture, lamps, merchandise, etc., for all commercial, advertising and legal purposes.

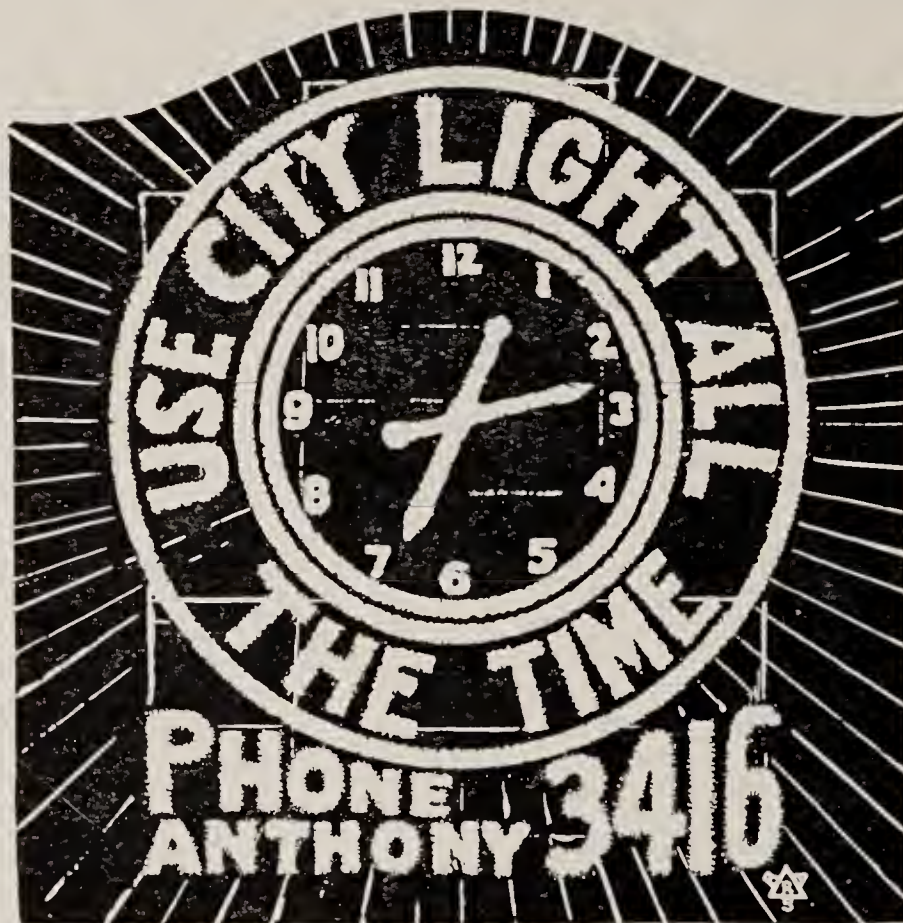

Aerial Photos—of buildings, factory sites, real estate plots, in fact anything that can be "shot" from the heavens above.

Motion pictures—produced of industrial activities, movie advertising and novelty adds. Interior, exterior and aerial work.

GARDNER & NEUMAN

Dial A-6302

Office and Commercial Plant 1121 Broadway
"Watch Us Grow"

Your Humble Servant

DAY AND NIGHT

Lifting Loads and Carrying Your Burdens

CITY LIGHT

Use It for Power—Use It for Light

It's Economical, too

We just couldn't get along without City Light

INSTALLATION FREE

Congratulations, Seniors

Now what?

In choosing a profession, consider well Business. At least give serious heed to the splendid opportunities which would be yours if you possessed business training.

It is important, too, that you use discrimination in selecting the school in which to get your business training.

A dominant leader in the field of Commercial education for more than a third of a century, The INTERNATIONAL takes justifiable pride in offering, as the crowning achievement of these years of notable progress, its EXECUTIVE SECRETARIAL COURSE. As its name implies, this course is intended for the alert, aggressive, determined young man or woman who is ultimately destined for an executive position.

Other high-grade courses are offered exclusively to High School graduates for those who desire a less extensive training. Whatever position in business you covet, you can arrive quickest via The INTERNATIONAL training route. And, your training completed, you will find that "INTERNATIONAL GRADUATES ARE PREFERRED."

THE INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

120-122-124 W. Jefferson St.

Phone A-1354

YOUR ANNUAL IS THE MATERIAL MANI-FESTATION OF THE CLOS-ING CHAPTER IN YOUR GRADUATION LIFE

Both type and pictures should be artistically arranged; The engravings extraordinary; Service completely satisfactory.

FORT WAYNE PERSONAL SERVICE will enable you to achieve exactly these results, economically.

Fort Wayne Engraving Co.
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

AutographsA. J. Gase." 23 "

CALDRON

Autographs

CALIFORNIA

Autographs

CALDRON

Autographs

CALDRON

Autographs

CALDRON

Autographs

1970

